EDGEcombe AGRICULTURAL WORKS, TARBORO', N. C.

Manufacturers of Wagons, Carts, Plows, Gin and Mill Gearing, and Agricultural Implements generally.

EIGHT FOOT GIN GEARING,

In the best style; have never heard a complaint of one of our Horse Powers. We furnish a full set of Bolts with these powers. Price $55.00 complete. Beside several varieties of Turning Plows we make a specialty of the

which we believe has met with more general favor than any Cotton plow ever made. These plows are now made after two patterns, one intended especially for use in hard and stiff land.

LOUISIANA.

She is done with her days of glory, She is fallen on days of defeat: Strips of her robes of splendor, Hurled from her sovereign seat— Naked, plundered, bleeding, Prene at the Tyrant's feet!

His men-at-arms are about her, The rock not of tears nor prayer, But eagerly will the order That bids them slay, not spare, With their bayonets at her bosom And their feet upon her hair!

And above her the harpies gather; Their wings blot out the sun, And the myriads wheel and hover; And scream for her blood as one; So wofully their scars have patience To wait the murder done.

Oh, brothers! who will save her, In this, her hour of need, From the bayonets that beset her, From the ravenous vulture brood? Who will scatter them with thunder And bind up the wounds that bleed?

If none—why then Heaven help her! Our fathers have fought in vain, So blot her star from the banner, But let the stripes remain! Bolder than all the rest are— Her blood has made the stain!

Oh, brothers! sons of her sisters, That matter though remote, Shall we see the tyrant smite her And say that we nothing note? With his heel print on her forehead, And his sword point at her throat!

Oh, brothers! sons of her sister, Be your judgments unperplexed; No law but the law of bayonets— Oh, Land of the North, take warning— It may be thy turn next. Joseph Bradford, in Boston Courier.

Shavings.

Something to boot—lightning rod pedlers. No church is too weak to take up a collection. Can you spell consent in three letter? Yes.

High and Low streets cross each other in Baltimore. Horse thieves are serened in Texas by string bands.

If you do not like your neighbor, buy his child a drum. The taxes which most heavily on schoolboys is Syntax.

The worst kind of education—to be bro't up by a policeman. A man with a big nose isn't always handsome, but he's nobby.

Oneida girls won't let a beau stay after ten, but they sometimes stop the clock. The latest thing out—Our little devil has turned Ventriloquist.

'Tis better to have loved and lost than never to have had a mother-in-law. 'Sally, at what time do you folks dine?' 'Soon as you go away; that's missus' orders.'

When a Florida girl puts her foot down, mountains tremble and little hills jump up and down. 'He was killed by providence,' was the Ohio verdict in the case of a man who was struck by lightning.

Invitation to the young men of our city, from the ladies, to "discontinue their visits," is very numerous of late. A father in Dubuque makes his children address him as follows: Most respected and revered father, I'll take another tater.'

A Rhode Island man carries a $200,000 fire Insurance, and even takes a cold in the head, the companies rush down three or four doctors to feel his pulse. We can't say where the last man belonged. Something ailed one of his eyes and he had a bad nose: looked like a Milwaukee man. He left the door open and was killed on the stairs.—Detroit Press.

A woman of the world was once heard to say: "The estate of widowhood is inconvenient, for one must have all the modesty of a young girl without being able to feign her ignorance."

A man traveling along one day picked up a feather in the road and put it in his pocket; when night came, he carefully placed his feather under him, and laid down to rest his weary limbs. In the morning he awoke, and eyeing his bed exclaimed: "Begorra, if one feather is so hard what would a whole bedfall be!"

"Crusade"—A gentleman who visited a soda fountain with his wife said he'd take 'crusade' syrup in his, when, much to his horror, his wife said she'd take 'crusade' syrup too. But the wicked man winked to the druggist; and his poor wife was soon wincing under the tortures of hot ginger, while he was enjoying his brandy-flavored soda.

Despotism. Pope Gregory VII anathematized Henry IV of Germany. Finding his power gone Henry went to the Pope to ask his pardon. But, before the Pope would allow him to come into the presence of his holiness, he compelled King Henry to stand at his gate, during the month of January, four days and nights, bare-foot and fasting.

Louisiana has been standing at the King's gate nearly ten years, and through all sorts of weather, and the King's wrath seems not to have abated.

The cause against that down-trodden State seems to be even more fearful and lasting than that pronounced by the Pope against the King of Germany.

HAVE YOU TRIED JURUBERA. ARE YOU Weak, Nervous, or Debilitated?

Are you so Languid that any exertion requires more of an effort than you feel capable of making? Then TRY JURUBERA, the wonderful Tonic and Invigorator, which acts so beneficially on the secret organs as to impart vigor to all the vital forces.

It is no alcoholic appetizer, which stimulates for a short time, only to leave the sufferer fall to a lower depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and kidneys.

It regulates the Bowels, quickens the nerves, and gives such a healthy tone to the whole system as soon make the invalid feel like a new person.

It is operation is not violent, but is characterized by great gentleness, and is accompanied by no sudden change, no marked results, but gradually his troubles disappear, and he is restored to health.

This is no new and untried discovery, but has been long and successfully used, and is pronounced by the highest medical authorities, "the most powerful and reliable of all medicines."

Ask your druggist for it. For sale by W. F. KIDDER & CO., New York. 4c.
