ILL.—Mrs. Watson, mother of Capt. R. A. Watson, is lying very low at the residence of her son in this place.

DESTRUCTIVE.—Seven telegraph poles between here and Rocky Mount, on the Branch road, were literally torn to pieces by lightning one day last week.

COUNTY DELEGATES.—The following gentlemen represented Edgecombe in the State Convention: Capt J S Dancy, Gen W G Lewis, Capt Fred Phillips, Capt J R Thigpen, Dr J H Baker, J B Cheshire, Jr., and Frank Nash.

NASH COUNTY DELEGATES.—B H Barnham, Dossy Batt, S T Williams, W L Thorp, A P Chalk, J P Daughtry, J H Thorp, W R Winstead, Jno. R Green, W H Adams, J P Arrington, J A Drake, T P Braswell, G N Lewis, A J Lewis, J S Battle.

OUR CHAPEL HILL LETTER.—We hope our readers will not fail to read our Chapel Hill letter from the outside of this issue. It is an interesting article, and shows the progress this institution is making since its re-organization.

MARRIED.—By G. W. Hammond, Esq., of Rocky Mount, at that place on yesterday, Miss Francis J. Hobb to Mr. Henry H. Beach. We trust this was not Hob(b)om's choice and that the fair bride's happiness may never be beached on the shoals of adversity.

No cards.

BONITZ RESTAURANT.—While in Gollisboro on yesterday we regaled the inner man at the sumptuous board of Mr. Bonitz and can say with the Nash, Martin and Edgecombe delegations, "we want nothing better to eat than Mr. Bonitz sets before you." Try him, don't take our word for it.

VIOLATOR OFFICERS.—A young patriot of Nash County, who combines great personal popularity with the offices of Justice of the Peace and Deputy Sheriff was fined $1.50 by the Mayor of Nashville for pouring a gallon of water in the Street.

HARVEST.—During this week many a broad field of wheat and oats has succumbed to the reaper's scythe.

The wheat crop is the best gathered in this section in many years. The Southerner claims some credit for the larger average than usual.

MAD DOGS.—Mr. J. F. Hight informs us that mad dogs and the rumor thereof have become rife in the Hilliardston neighborhood. Several have been killed. If more dogs should become rabid and share the same fate, wool growing and mutton devoting interest would prosper better.

A MODEST CITIZEN.—We are informed by Henry D. Robinson, Esq., of Martin Co. that a neighbor of his Mr. Joshua Taylor is 73 years of age, was never within the walls of a Court House, served as a juror or witness. He is a respectable, responsible man and pays 100 cents in every dollar he owes.

PISCINE SAGA.—Our old army friend Capt. Charles McDonald of Calhoun Co., met us in Raleigh. Capt Mc is extensively engaged (in a private way) in the culture of fish. He has a three pound trout in his pond that will follow him 'round the pond like a dog.

By all means let us have a fish commissioner for the State. It is a large and profitable interest.

A DESIRABLE BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.—A large and well-known New York house, about to establish an agency in this town and county, require the services of an active and reliable man or woman. The compensation will be liberal, while little or no capital is required. Only an energetic and trustworthy person will be accepted. Write to G. S. Hulbert, P. O. Box 5629, N. Y. City, for full particulars.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH BY SUPPLICATION.—Mr. P. V. Renfrow of Nashville, Nash county, descended into a well he was blasting rock in on Monday, and was suddenly stricken, apparently, lifeless. An outcry was raised, the entire town gathered around, none daring to enter the well. Finally Mr. Richard Barnes arrived and agreed to go down. With ropes he tied Mr. Renfrow and both were drawn up. Dr. Sills was sent for and succeeded in restoring the nearly extinct spark of vitality remaining. Mr. Barnes was similarly affected but not so severely.

IMPROPER CREDIT.—The Petersburg Index-Appel accredits the resolution, requesting the State Convention to call on Col. Pool the Superintendent of Public Instruction to resign, to the Greensboro Convention, whereas the resolution was passed by the Nash County Convention.

Nash is the banner democratic county of the State and good for every thing saving of radicalism with no faltering step or uncertain sound.

RATHER ROCKY.—A man from the country came in our law office last week in answer to a call from us. We had a bill to collect against him. He threw himself languidly on a chair with an air of maudlin sentimentality, exclaiming a strong odor of dynamite detection.

"Can you settle that little bill this morning?" We inquired with great snavity.

"Money, money, I never 'pects to see no more; I lives rough, I works hard, I'll the poor and go to—"

We gently drew out his opinion on the weather, foreign missions and Sunday schools.

PAINTFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. G. B. Lipscomb was painfully hurt on last Monday evening while attending to leading some wagons with lumber. He was sitting on the pile of lumber that the hands were loading from, and suddenly the lumber took a slide and precipitated him below catching him underneath it. The hands immediately went to his relief, soon extricated and removed him to his house. His leg is very badly hurt, but we are glad to say not seriously.

LET GRAB ALL TALK WARRENING.—More than one person down there are guilty of selling liquor unlawfully, and in violation of the laws of North Carolina. Remember those that drink your whiskey will be summoned before the Grand Jury at the next Judge's Court.

A REVEREND AMERICAN.—Uncontrollable circumstances prevented our attendance at a tea in a most hospitable mansion about five miles from Rocky Mount in Nash County, on Sunday last. We regretted, more than we can express, our inability to answer the kind invitation. From a friend, who was present, we learned that the fair and accomplished hostess presided with her usual grace and pleasantness over a board literally groaning under its sumptuous freight.

Every delicacy, edible and bibulous, tempted the palate, and this was greatly enhanced by the amiable sallies of wit, combining a "feast of reason and flow of the soul."

We hope for a more propitious fate in future. Many thanks to Miss P. G.

A BRILLIANT AMERICAN NOVEL.—John Estlin Cooke, of Virginia, an American novelist, whose stories, in thrilling situations, sustained popular dramatic incident, and charming diction, are unsurpassed, has written for the Detroit Free Press a serial entitled "Candors: The Fortunes of a Partisan of '81. A Story of the Revolution." It was commenced in the Weekly Free Press of June 16th. During this Centennial year such a story should be especially welcome. Such of our readers as are interested in this department of literature, will, no doubt, gladly hail "Candors" as the type of the heroic partisan of America's liberty, and listen to secure for themselves the pleasure of the perusal of what promises to be the most attractive story of the year.

COL. POOL REASONS.—The following card explains itself:

RALEIGH, N. C., June 10, 1876.

Mr. Editor:—I have this day tendered my resignation of the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction to Governor Brogden, to take effect June 30, 1876, the close of the present school year. On that day I shall give to the public, through the columns of your papers as shall see fit to publish it, a brief, yet full, statement of my official conduct; and, in addition thereto an explicit account of all matters connected with the Peabody fund and its disbursement by me. From these statements, when published, the public can see whether I have failed to perform any duty imposed upon me by virtue of the office of Superintendent.

Very respectfully,
S. D. Pool.

EATEN BY A SHARK.—We learn through a gentleman from Fort Mason that on Sunday last one of the Sergeants at the Fort lost his son in a horrible manner. The boy was in surf-bathing in the rear of the Fort when he suddenly disappeared from sight, and from the commotion made in the water and the non-appearance of the least vestige of the boy it was presumed that a shark had taken him under water and devoured him. The mother of the little fellow was lying very low in one of the dwellings at the Fort, and for fear the shock would result in her death, the horrible news was not taken there.—New-Yorker Nut Shell.

THE FAIRLIES PICNIC.—We put in our appearance at P. M. and danced one set at the picnic on Friday. It is well for us we did not arrive earlier or dance more as it cost us just 50c. If we had indulged in all fifteen our bill would have been $7.50.

"Heaven tempest the wind to the shore lamb."

This time we had the ladies on our side, and with them we could

"climb Parnassus height,
And there we'd scan the weather,
Wrench the rainbow from the clouds,
And let the gods contend together."

We had four warm friends, Mrs. T. H. G., Mrs. D. A. and Misses L. P. and F. G. These ladies individually, distinctly and separately saved us four dinners of a mouth-watering character. We devoured two and like the urdlin who cried because he had eaten so much darsom tart he couldn't eat any plum-pudding, signified our want of depth of hold to stow away the other two.

And we were unhappy. If the prayers of the wicked availeth aught, our fair friends have ours.

When we arrived on the ground and looked upon the dancers, muscular activity prevailing and sweat pouring, we recalled the words of Herodotus, he made a desert and called it peace, and soliloquized, "is this fair?" The Shah of Persia on his English visit wondered why sensible people didn't make their servants do the dancing. Being Leap Year this was an affair of the ladies' getting up and of course was a success.

GRAND COUNCIL ROYAL AND SELECT MASTERS.—THE GRAND ROYAL ARMS CHARTERS.—This grand body of Masons met at Masonic Temple building in Charlotte last week, Grand Master John Nichols, of Raleigh presiding. There were four councils represented. The address of the Grand Master was confined chiefly to matters pertaining to the craft. No business of special importance to the public was transacted. The grand officers elected for the ensuing year were:

Grand Master—C. M. Van Orsdel of Wilmington.

Deputy Grand Master—John B. Neathery of Raleigh.

Grand P. M. of W.—S. E. Allen, of Winston.

Grand Treasurer—John Nichols, of Raleigh.

Grand Recorder—Donald W. Bain, of Raleigh.

Grand Captain of the Guard—M. M. Katz, of Wilmington.

Grand Conductor of the Council—E. A. Wilson, of Greensboro.

Grand Steward Wm. Murdock, of Salisbury.

A lengthy report on Foreign Correspondence was submitted by the chairman, John Nichols, of Raleigh.

The officer were duly installed by H. H. Monson, of Wilmington.

The next assembly of the Grand Council will be held in Newbern, on the first Wednesday in June, 1877.

Chamberlain & Rawls are offering great inducements to purchasers of goods in their line. A splendid assortment of Clocks just received. A full line of 18K Rings, Vest and Opera Chains, cheaper than they were ever offered before in Tarboro. Every thing else in their line "dirt cheap." Fine repairing a specialty.

MERCHANT TAILOR.—G. Zander, Merchant Tailor, is now prepared to cut and make clothing to order, warranted to give general satisfaction. Cleaning and repairing specialty. If you want your old clothes made new, go to his place, opposite the old Gregory Hotel.

TAR RIVER SPORTING CLUB.—F. M. Fazio, MERRIMAN and GLEZ.—It was his good fortune, i. e. "J. G.'s," to have been present on last Wednesday (by invitation) at Red. William's Mill Pond, with the Tar River Sporting Club. He arrived at a late hour, but just in time for dinner. He was treated as a guest and there fore requested to look on and observe the amusements and delings of that merry-making assemblage. As the object of this party is for sport, they seem to fully carry it out in various ways. He never spent a more agreeable day at any place, and learns they intend keeping it up during their dull summer days. They have new applications for membership issued daily, and the club is increasing in strength rapidly. To give a little insight to their workings, we publish below their Constitution and By-Laws:

ARTICLE I.

Sec. 1. Any man wishing to become a member of this Fraternity shall send in his application in writing (well recommended by some member of the Club) accompanied by the usual initiation fee ($1.00), or in lieu thereof 1 quart of Old Rye, 1 Box of Lobsenz, 2 good Hockeys, and a good lot of goods, valued at $1.00.

Sec. 2. If it shall appear at any time that any member has joined this club with any (dishonest) intention, charges may be preferred against the offender, and he shall be expelled therefrom, he shall pay to the Treasurer of this club not less than one Licken Pack of Cards nor more than one barbed Log-legs, and shall be liable to arrest at the option of the Club.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1. No member with muddy feet shall be allowed to stand on the Secretary's Table to make any motion, without written consent from the Chief Cook.

ARTICLE III.

Sec. 1. The President shall have power to assess each member—according to light and good looks—with a proportionate part of "grab" and "Liquor" to satisfy the lazy stomachs in the club during a dry time—and shall have the right to order out the whole of his stomach, for the purpose of blanketing a Terrapin or taking by storm any muddy fish-hole.

Sec. 2. The President is authorized and empowered for the transaction of business, and extra Drink, with sugar, to the member who can catch the biggest fish with the least bait, or kill the largest snout, with the smallest amount of size. This extra drink, however, shall be governed by the size of the fish or meat taken or killed.

ARTICLE IV.

Sec. 1. Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and in the absence of the President, the Vice-President shall take the chair and control the meeting.

Sec. 2. In the absence of both, President and Vice-President, the highest officer present shall be the presiding officer, and in the event of no one at all being present, the Secretary and Liquor, in the way of a take a drink out of Treasurer's jug, for each and ever absent member, until his head goes as heavy as the jug, and there shall have authority to close the meeting, eat all the Bull Frogs that have been sent in, and wait 1-2 hour and go home.

The officers of the club are: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Boatman, Mar., Chief Cook, Assistant Cook and Field Director.

FRODOLO TOWN.

LOSS TOWNS, Edgecombe Co., N. C., June 12th, 1876.

DEAR SOUTHERNER:—I had the pleasure of attending two places of enjoyment this week, of which I will give you a description.

On Thursday the banks of Savage's Mill Pond was made quite lively by the young members of the Fraternity, who were there for a picnic. The music was furnished by old Jacob and his son, two delicate colored violinists, though their feeble looks did not prevent their bringing the music forth.

The crowd was very large, but sufficient to devour all the barbecue (if any) on the ground. Any one would have been astonished to see the amount of barbecue mutton and beef that was eaten by the crowd. The fact was not dancing amusements in a little game of cards, and would ask: "Uncle, how long before the barbecues will be done?" The old fellow would give them an encouraging answer and they would turn off, and so on until about 11 o'clock, when dinner was announced. On arriving at the table I enjoyed some very nice chicken, ham and cake which were served there by the ladies, and made for it, but no barbecue could I discover. This is the first one of the season that I have attended.

On Saturday I attended a Temperance Lecture at Bright Hope Lodge, I. O. G. T. The speaking I thought to be very good, although I profess to be no judge, but a member of the Fraternity, and I thought the crowd was very large. There were four speakers: Messrs. Nash, Kitchen and Van, (the other gentleman I did not learn his name) of Scotland Neck. There was a large crowd in attendance, the greater part men. The Lodge is in a flourishing condition and doing a noble work in the temperance cause.

I formed the acquaintance of a Mr. Savage of the N. C. Co., a fine hunter and sportsman, he was out on a hunt the evening before, saying he killed on that occasion 6 foxes, 1 possum and 1 squirrel. A good evening's sport. More anon.

Nos.

Fourth Congressional District—Hon. J. J. Davis Renominated.

[Condensed from the Raleigh Sentinel of Tuesday Evening.]

Under the most flattering auspices the democratic convention of the district convened met in this city to-day at 12 o'clock, M., in Metropolitan Hall. Every county in this district had a delegation of able and representative men, and the meeting opened from the first to be a spirit of harmony and good feeling prevailed among the delegates, which even the most intractable croaker must recognize in the "brightest set of omens of another triumphant victory in the gallant old 4th district."

C. E. Farish, of Orange, was called to the chair as temporary chairman, and T. C. Evans was appointed secretary.

The committee on permanent organization, after a brief absence, returned and reported the following, which was concurred in:

Resolved: C. M. Cook, of Franklin; Vice-President Thomas Webb, of Orange; J. A. Hayward, of Wake; Dr. J. W. Vick, of Johnston; T. H. Venable, of Granville; Dr. R. K. Smith, of Chatham; Jas. S. Battle, of Nash; W. S. Malley, of Franklin; Secretary, T. C. Evans, of Wake; N. A. Davis, of Granville, Assistant Secretary.

It was moved by Wm. Diebold, of Wake, that Hon. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, be nominated by acclamation. W. S. Roullac, of Orange, asked that his name be allowed the honor of nominating Mr. Davis, which motion was unanimously concurred in, and Mr. Davis was nominated unanimously as the democratic nominee for Congress in this district.

W. P. Green, of Franklin, thanked the convention in the name of Mr. Davis for the honor conferred on him, and stated that Mr. Davis would accept the same, and endeavor to carry the banner to victory.

Mr. F. H. Dodson, of Wake, and S. J. Skinner, of Granville, were placed in nomination for elector.

Mr. Skinner withdrew his name in favor of Mr. Dodson, and moved that Mr. Busbee be declared elector in lieu of Skinner, which was carried unanimously, and Mr. Busbee declared to be the choice.

Messrs. Webb, of Orange, J. S. Battle, of Nash, were chosen delegates to St. Louis, Messrs. A. W. Graham, of Orange, and S. J. Skinner, of Granville, were chosen as alternates.

After the business of the convention was over, addresses were made by Messrs. A. M. Lewis, of Wake, and S. J. Skinner, which were enthusiastically applauded.

On motion, the old district executive committee was re-elected.

After raising cheers for the nominee the convention adjourned.
