AT THE LAND OFFICE.

Five Persons Proved Up On Their Claims Tuesday.

Five persons proved up on their claims Tuesday before the officials of the local United States land office, and two persons filed applications for homestead entries. Those who proved up on their claims were Julius Norbye of Mercer, S. A. Furbush of Leipzig, Orion Andrews of Leitch, Clark A. Mossman of Carson, and Edward L. Honey of Carson. Clyde Brenner of Gackle and Konrad Lang of Lehr, filed on claims.

XMAS PRESENTS FOR CLERKS.

Employees of Local United States Land Office Are Advanced.

The officials of the United States land office in this city have received word from the commissioner of the general land office at Washington, that two of the clerks employed here, W. F. McMahon and Leon Choquette, will be granted raises in salary of $240, to take effect the first of the year. This speaks well for the competency and faithfulness of the employees of the government in this branch of the service.

K. OF P. MEETING.

There will be a regular meeting of St. Elm lodge No. 4, Knights of Pythias, this evening at Castle Hall. A large attendance of members is desired.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE.

All candidates wishing to try for places on the Company A team this year are requested to appear at the armory this evening ready for practice. It is expected that a number of good games will be scheduled as soon as the team is organized and is whittled into shape.

THE CITY

HOME FROM HOSPITAL.

Mrs. R. F. Mojlan has returned to her home in this city from the St. Alexis hospital, very much improved in health.

HAS LEFT HOSPITAL.

Frank Geiermann, who was recently operated upon for appendicitis at St. Alexis hospital, has sufficiently recovered to be able to return to his home. His friends wish him a speedy return to full strength and good health.

HOME FOR CHRISTMAS.

R. C. Carroll, traveling salesman of the Bismarck general agency of the International Harvester Company, left for Beckett, Ohio, Tuesday, where he will spend the holidays at his home.

WENT TO ILLINOIS.

B. B. Bennett has gone to Rockford, Illinois, where he will spend the holiday season at home. Mr. Bennett is one of the travelling men in the employ of the International Harvester Company in this section of the state.

MOTHER IS ILL.

Miss Randine Gulseth, employed as stenographer at the local agency of the International Harvester Company of America, left for her home at Battle Lake, Minn., Tuesday, on No. 8, having been called there by the serious illness of her mother. She will probably remain there until after the holidays.

HAS BEEN ILL.

Leon Choquette has been confined to the house for the past few days suffering from an attack of the la grippe. There seems to be a prevalence of grippé and pneumonia throughout the city, and some of the citizens are wondering whether or not the open winter has anything to do with it.

XMAS PRESENTS FOR CLERKS.

Employees of Local United States Land Office Are Advanced.

The officials of the United States land office in this city have received word from the commissioner of the general land office at Washington, that two of the clerks employed here, W. F. McMahon and Leon Choquette, will be granted raises in salary of $240, to take effect the first of the year. This speaks well for the competency and faithfulness of the employees of the government in this branch of the service.

K. OF P. MEETING.

There will be a regular meeting of St. Elm lodge No. 4, Knights of Pythias, this evening at Castle Hall. A large attendance of members is desired.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE.

All candidates wishing to try for places on the Company A team this year are requested to appear at the armory this evening ready for practice. It is expected that a number of good games will be scheduled as soon as the team is organized and is whittled into shape.
