

LINTON

Commissioner E. H. Brant, of the Hartford country, spent Tuesday in town taking in the sights.

A. R. Moore, of Roscoe, S. D., but formerly a resident of this place, was calling on old friends Monday.

G. A. Herolz returned to Linton Tuesday, after a two-months' absence, and the political campaign is now on in full blast.

J. H. Reamer drove to Shields, N. D., the fore part of the week in his automobile, taking a couple of land men with him.

A. M. Britts and Walter Mewing made a trip to Long Lake Monday on a hunting expedition. They report very good success.

Miss Hall, W. C. T. U. worker, will speak in the M. E. church Thursday evening, Oct. 10th. Everybody is invited to be present.

Miss Genevieve Braddock left Tuesday morning for Valley City, where she will resume her studies at the state normal school there.

Attorney R. N. Stevens, register of the U. S. land office at Bismarck, was in town a couple of days this week attending the term of court.

John Haley, of Vivona, was spending several days here this week. John is an Emmons county product, having lived here from childhood.

Mrs. M. T. Barger and son, Thomas, returned Saturday from a two-weeks' visit at Glendive, Mont., where they spent the time with relatives.

Miss Hazel Easton, of Kiutrye, who is teaching in the southern part of the county, was in Linton Saturday on her way to her home to spend Sunday.

Chris, Vorlander, the Eureka baker, was a Linton business visitor Tuesday, and also called on his nephew, Carl Vorlander, the Linton druggist.

Attorneys Atkins of Napoleon, was in Linton Tuesday and yesterday on business. He is one of the candidates for state's attorney in Logan county.

M. B. Morford and Jesse Morford were over from Hartford Saturday on business.

Miss Olga Suelz, whose home is near Eraddock, was spending a part of the week in Linton visiting some of her young friends. She went to school here last winter.

A. E. Dutton, living northwest of Hazelton, was in Linton Tuesday night to get some full-blooded sheep which he had had shipped in here from South Dakota points.

Martin G. Schmidt is absent in Bismarck this week, called there by the intelligence that his sister-in-law, Miss Barbara Pettig, was ill in one of the Bismarck hospitals.

W. T. Britts left Tuesday morning for Bismarck, where he will enter two of his Scotch Collie dogs in the kennel show which is to be a part of the Industrial Exposition there.

S. J. Hagg drove his car over from McLaughlin, Tuesday. At Fort Yates he picked up Johnnie Stiles, and the two were visiting with their many friends here a couple of days.

Another large class of candidates were initiated into the Moose, Monday night. Some thirty-four candidates have applied for admission to the lodge during the last fortnight.

Mrs. Wm. Macalder returned Tuesday from an extended visit to the Atlantic coast. She accompanied her daughter as far as Pillsbury academy, Minneapolis, where the young lady will attend school the coming winter.

A report in Linton is to the effect that Jonathan Hoff, living southwest of Linton, is in the toils of the law at Fort Yates, charged with selling liquor to the Indians. Word was sent to Linton Tuesday for Attorney Cameron to come to his assistance. Later the case against Hoff petered out. It seems that Hoff was arrested on this side of the river, entirely outside of the jurisdiction of the Standing Rock agency authorities.

John Farness, of Braddock, was among those to be naturalized at the recent term of court. Hans Hanson and Knud Anderson, of the same neighborhood, were his witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Turner, accompanied by Don Tracy, made the trip to Emmonsburg Tuesday night in the Turner car to attend the moving picture show and dance that night.

Court cases and the hearing of applications for naturalization were about all that occupied the time of the court at this term. No jury was called and all jury cases were laid over.

A. M. Britts and Roy Carley and Emmonsburg Tuesday afternoon to their respective families drove to attend a moving picture show and dance held at the Hart Lee home that night.

Chris and Carl Bosch, formerly residents of the country a few miles east of town, have purchased the day business of Bechtel & Brenner and will move to town to take charge of it.

Court opened in Linton for the regular fall term Tuesday. Judge Crawford is presiding for Judge Winchester, who was unable to be present. Mrs. Winchester being seriously ill.

County Superintendent of Schools H. H. Hanson is this week busy visiting the schools throughout the county and arranging for the opening of the fall and winter term in most of them.

Capt. Rumball, an old sea-captain who formerly resided in the Hazelton neighborhood, but who for several years past has been on the Pacific coast, has been spending the week in Linton.

A letter from Ole A. Sjerstee, an old-timer in the Braddock country gives the welcome intelligence that he is among the fortunate farmers

Stop at the Hotel Nicollet in Minneapolis
 "Recommenced as the Really Good"
 Convenient Central Comfortable
 Washington Ave. between Nicollet and Hennepin Aves.
 EUROPEAN
 200 ROOMS—$1.00 UPWARD
 BEST IN THE SWISS COTTAGE

this year. His wheat went from 20 to 34 bushels per acre.

It is understood that a number of auto loads of Linton people will go to Bismarck Sunday to take in the Industrial Exposition. If the weather will permit. They expect to return Monday evening.

Work is being done on the old Wolfer store building, which will be fixed up and used for exhibiting the displays of grain, vegetables etc., which will be shown during the county fair, October 17th and 18th.

Jack Moch, working in the Dakem neighborhood, suffered a rather severe injury a couple of days ago when he had a hand caught in a threshing machine. Dr. Fuller patched him up.

His injuries consisted of a couple of broken fingers and a badly lacerated hand.

MERIT HAS WON AGAIN

And don't forget when buying a range to select the winner that cooks perfectly, consumes little fuel, is simple and easy to operate and built so strong that it will last you many years.

IT IS THE ROUND OAK CHIEF STEEL RANGE

And Costs No More Than Many Inferior Ranges

Its running mate is the Jewel Oak Heater. It produces a great amount of heat from a small amount of fuel. It is easily regulated without fuss or muss. You can not lose if you buy this pair.

See Our Booth at the Exposition Building

Telephone 82

BISMARCK HARDWARE COMPANY BISMARCK North Dakota

URINARY DISCHARGES RELIEVED IN 24 HOURS
SANTAL MIDY CAPSULES
 Each Capsule bears the name MIDY
 Beware of counterfeits
 ALL DRUGGISTS

A refund of fare up to 100 miles will be given to all purchasers of $50 or more.

SALE OF WOMEN'S TAILORED GARMENTS

A refund of fare up to 100 miles will be given to all purchasers of $50 or more.

The Famous, Elite Milliners and Ladies' Clothiers

City National Bank Building

We have the largest and most select assortment of ladies' garments in this part of the Northwest. This wonderful showing of suits, suits of irreproachable style, suits of choice materials and excellent tailor work. Suits of such excellent fitting qualities that in many instances patrons wear them right out of the Suit Section, without a single alteration.

And the styles are so many and varied that every woman is assured a becoming suit—one to her liking. There are plain man-tailored styles, demi-tailored styles with broken waist line and the more fancy suits for formal wear.

Every material fashionable and new is here—among them are Diagonals, Serges, Broadcloths, Velvets, Corduroys, Zibelines, Velour de Laine.

And the sizes—they range from the smallest size 32 to size 49.

We are Offering Special Prices on all Garments During Exposition

See Our Exhibit at the Exposition Building