FAMILY BURNED OUT

Hazelton Republican: The family of Jacob Meier, living fifteen miles southeast of town, were burned out last Saturday morning and barely escaped with their lives. The fire started from a defective chimney while the parents were at the barn milking, and before they arrived at the house the fire had gotten beyond control, some of the rooms being a mass of flames. The children, four in number, were all in bed, and in attempting to rescue them, Mr. Meier succeeded in getting his wife and children from the burning building after many attempts. The six months old baby was so nearly suffocated that it took two hours to restore it to consciousness, but the rest were not badly overcome.
