Butterfly baking is what you become accomplished in when you secure the help and information imparted by Mrs. Briggs and Miss Dingham, at the free baking school—baking that is light and airy as the crest of the wave—sparkling in crispness—delicious in flavor—every mouthful nourishing. Such baking, such delight is attainable every time, if you secure the helpful suggestion given by these experts and use K. C. Baking Powder as she suggests and all-around excellence are sure to command themselves to your favor. Don't pass lightly the recommendations of your friends who are saying such nice things about K. C.—but do as they did—get a 25c can and try it—bring the certificate found therein to the baking school and get your "Cook's Book."

You will say as they do: "I was surprised and so pleased that I tried K. C." There are no words of praise adequate to express all the pleasure its use elicits. Don't neglect taking advantage of the opportunity to secure such valuable information as is imparted at the baking school and learn all that K. C. Baking powder really means to you. The "Cook's Book" can also be recommended to you. It is safe to say that its equal has never been offered before and its possession will gladden the house of any housewife. Every recipe in it is a gem and the change from the old dishes you have been baking these recipes make possible are sure to be appreciated by you.

The following palatable baked dishes will be served after being illustrated at Thursday's session: Devil Cake, Prune Kuchen and Peanut Cookies. Please bring fork for sampling.

Don't miss witnessing the illustration of the collection of five dollar recipes.

Bring your "Cook's Book" with you to the class. It will help you follow the work more closely, and add to your pleasure and convenience.

Ladies out of the city may mail their certificates to Mrs. Briggs and the "Cook's Book" will be mailed to them.

K. C. Baking Powder makes every bak eday a success and delight.
