HENKE WAS VINDICATED

Mandan, N. D., March 23.—Complete vindication of H. L. Henke, the recalled president of the Mandan city commission, was expressed by the voters of Mandan when he was re-elected a winner at the special election, with a greater number of votes than he received by the other two candidates combined.

Henke received 285, T. G. C. Kennelly 209, and Loren S. Royer 72. The election is believed to have put the quietus on the prolonged wrangle which has been going on in Mandan city politics for several months.

During the early part of November John Foran, then president of the Mandan City commission, was appointed postmaster at Mandan. In order to qualify for the office it was necessary for him to resign as president of the commission.

Following his resignation, a special election was called for November 20. H. L. Henke, commissioner of fire and police, resigned to run for the presidency of the city board. T. G. C. Kennelly, coroner of Morton county and P. W. McGillie were opponents. Henke was elected over Kennelly by a vote of 151 to 150.

Before Henke had been sworn into office, Kennelly circulated a recall petition alleging incompetency. Failure of the city commission to receive the petition favorably caused Kennelly to carry his point to the district court, where he won a partial victory in mandamus proceedings.

However, the petition was declared insufficient and Kennelly circulated a new one to which he secured about 180 signers. After several weeks of legal jabber in the commission the election was called.

For two weeks Mandan was in the throes of one of the hardest fought battles ever waged in the city.

That Henke was wanted in the position was shown by the plurality he received.

CLOSE OF MILWAUKEE CAMPAIGN

Milwaukee, Wis., March 23.—Political leaders gave final instructions to their lieutenants in the Milwaukee campaign today and the lines were drawn tight for the primary election tomorrow, when candidates are to be named for mayor and other officials to be voted for in the next municipal election. The advocates of non-partisan government are making a hard fight to continue the present administration in power, while the socialists are fighting equally hard to bring about a restoration of the socialist regime, which came to an end with the non-partisan victory two years ago.

It is generally believed that the results of the next election can easily be forecasted from the size of the vote received by the majority candidates in the primary tomorrow. The candidates for mayor are Gerhard Rading, the present incumbent, and the head of the non-partisan candidates; Emil Seidel, former mayor and choice of the socialist party; David S. Rose, another former mayor, and Theobald Otjen, a former congressman.
