YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in February and March or Face Will Stay Covered. Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use Othine—double strength. This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of Othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.—Adv.

REV. DANFORD RETURNED. Dr. Danford has returned from Los Angeles, where he was called by the illness of his son, who at one time was very low with pneumonia. He was there during the flood, and says it as very bad. Of course, everybody reported it as exceptional, which it was. Mr. Danford says when he saw in the papers that the east was snowed in, he was experiencing the deluge in California. He was all the more anxious to get back to North Dakota and enjoy the nice weather.

There was a happy party of little folks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Katz, Thursday afternoon when their little daughter Esther, celebrated her eighth birthday by inviting a number of her little friends to her home. The proceeds of the sale amounted to $1,389, was auctioned by K. A. Erslund and clerked by Mr. Cunningham. It was a most satisfactory sale all through.

ANOTHER LAUNDRY. Berger & Sampson have leased the Barble building, 409 Front street, and are fitting it up for a steam laundry, which will be known as "The Golden Rule Laundry." Most of the machines have already been installed and the new concern will be in operation by April 1. Mr. Sampson is an experienced laundryman, having conducted a laundry at Ryder for the past three years, and will be ably assisted by Mrs. Sampson, who is also an expert in the laundry business. The Tribune predicts excellent success for the new enterprise.

STRAY TOPICS FROM LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

New York, March 26.—When 30 gun toters come up for sentence before Judge Rosalsky in general sessions court next Monday a squad of detectives will be in the courtroom to pick out such of the men as may be second offenders against the Sullivan law, which prohibits the keeping of dangerous weapons in one's possession. All thirty of the gun carriers have been convicted and on such of them as are recognized as second offenders the maximum sentence of seven years will be imposed. If the police and the courts continue this policy it will go a long way toward solving the problem of suppressing the "gangsters."

The Castles, famous as teachers and exponents of the tango and other modern dances, are to make New Rochelle famous as the home of the finest dancing academy in America. A corporation capitalized at $300,000 has been formed to carry out the project. The academy building is to be ten stories high, with 25 exits on the first floor, of exclusive design and finished in terra cotta brick. The dancing floor, which will be nearly 20,000 square feet in extent, will be large enough for 1,000 couples to dance comfortably. Private ball rooms and instruction rooms will occupy the upper floors of the academy building.

The American Society of Graduates of German universities is arranging to hold its first convention in this city early next month. The object of the convention is the fraternization of those who have been scholars of German universities. Besides a number of German professors there will be delegates present from Yale, Harvard, Cornell, Johns Hopkins, Columbia, Franklin and Marshall, the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Illinois. The convention will conclude with a banquet at which the noted guests will include Vice President Marshall and the German and Austrian ambassadors at Washington.

Cardinal Farley will sail for Rome next month, accompanied by his secretary and a party of clergymen of his diocese. It is announced that the Cardinal's trip has no special significance, but is merely in keeping with the custom of the Holy See in summing up the work of the church throughout the world to report on the work of their respective dioceses. It is understood that Cardinal Farley's report of the work of the church under his immediate jurisdiction will be supplemented by an important contribution to Peter's Pence. The archdiocese of New York is regarded as one of the most flourishing in the United States, and the authorities at Rome look for a specially fine showing from the cardinal.

The Authors' League of America, of which Winston Churchill is president and Theodore Roosevelt vice president, has moved into its new home at Irving Place and Seventeenth street. The house was for years the home of Washington Irving and there the famous author wrote his "Life of Oliver Goldsmith," and prepared the material for his "Life of Washington." The house has two stories and a basement. The ground floor room, looking down Seventeenth street, which Irving used as a study, serves the Authors' League as a library and reception room. In Irving's day its chief attraction was the unbroken view of the East River.

John D. Rockefeller is to have the largest fountain bowl of its kind in the world to grace the lawn in front of his new mansion at Tarrytown. The bowl is to be carved from a single stone twenty feet wide and weighing 100 tons. A number of years ago Mr. Rockefeller saw a granite fountain bowl of great size in St. Petersburg and the oil king decided he wanted one just like it, but of larger size. He gave a contract to the owner of a stone quarry in Stonington, Me., and for months the contractor's employes have been at work quarrying the immense stone. The stone is too large to be placed on a flat car, so a special boat has been chartered to convey it from Maine to Tarrytown.

One of New York City's electrical landmarks, which had its origin in the mind of Thomas A. Edison and was developed under his skillful guidance, is about to pass out of existence into the discard of things which have passed their day of usefulness. The old Edison generating station in Duane street, which within the last few months the city and the city's being abandoned largely on that account, is of historical importance in the annals of electricity, for the experiments and developments recorded there have been adopted the world over. It was the Duane street station which helped to give to New York the distinction of having the first electric lighting system in the world, built in 1891 and at the time was held to be a wonderful achievement—a show place which engineers came from everywhere to see.

Nowadays the electrical engineers go to see the great new station which the electric light and power company has built in 23rd street. The comparison between the new station and the old Duane Street station is startling. In connection with the new station a unique and interesting problem has arisen. Several eminent authorities on acoustics and methods of silencing noise indoors and out have been engaged by the company to devise some scientific method of silencing the roar of three giant 15,000 kilowatt turbine driven generators with which the station is equipped. The noise of these big generators in operation is so great that the property owners in the neighborhood have complained. Two large doors in the front of the building are left open all night, and with the rush of air from the basement generating room the rear of the generators is carried out into the night, disturbing the sleep of apartment dwellers a dozen blocks away.

HERMAN WOLFF.

One of the most popular numbers of the Glee Club program put on by the University of North Dakota boys, is the rendering of "Perfect Day," by Herman Wolff. With the hummed accompaniment by the club and the cello obligato it leaves very little to be desired. Herman Wolff, one of the soloists, with the University of North Dakota Glee club, which is to appear here soon has been choragus of his class in college, both as freshman and sophomore. His class took second place in the Carney Song contest of this year and lost first place by a very narrow margin.

The Canadian forestry association, which recently met in Ottawa, has selected Halifax, Nova Scotia, for its next annual meeting place. If you don't owe a dollar you can look any man in the eye and tell him to go to—work.

New Law Firm for Bismarck

Continued From Page One.) rather for the district court, but for over a year he has resided in Washburn, where he has been associated in the practice of law with States Attorney C. F. Maennel, and has been assistant states attorney. Both he and Mrs. Madden have a host of warm friends in Bismarck, who are more than pleased to learn of their decision to return to the capital city. That the new firm will meet with success here there is no question. Mr. Hyland, the senior member of the new firm, brings with him years of experience, and has an extensive list of clients and law practice from the north end of the Soo Line that he will bring here. At Washburn, where he has lived for so many years, he acquired an enviable reputation for ability and as a reliable, straightforward business man.
