THE REASON FEWER PEOPLE TAKE "SALTS"

We find the use of salts and other harsh physics is becoming less every year because more and more people are using Rexall Orderlies, which we and they firmly believe to be the best bowel remedy ever made. They taste so much like candy that even the children like them. At the same time they act so easily and naturally that there is no purging, griping or pain. They promptly remove the constipation and, by soothing and strengthening the bowels, make it less liable to occur again. We have the utmost faith in them. We know what they are made of and the pleasant, beneficial results that always follow their use.

You needn't take our word for it. If Rexall Orderlies don't help you—if they don't entirely relieve all your bowel troubles—come back and tell us and we'll give back your money. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.

You can buy Rexall Orderlies at The Rexall Stores, and in this town only of us. Lenhart Drug Co., Bismarck, N. D.—Adv.

STERLING.

E. C. Fogarty was a passenger to Bismarck Thursday to attend the Teachers' convention. Miss Anna Inwood of the Sterling school went to the city on the same mission.

The proposed County Highway from Bismarck east is the all important subject and conversation these days. The general sentiment seems to be in favor of the road, due east from Bismarck on the Township lines, both from an economic and most useful standpoint, and all signs point that way. As this highway is to be permanent and will be a great expense to the entire county, the township line is the only and proper solution. It is up to the County Commissioners Friday afternoon.

Taft and Sterling townships held a joint meeting at the Sterling State Bank Tuesday afternoon to vote upon opening the township road between the two townships running east and west and both boards voted in favor, feeling almost assured that the County Highway will take that course. It was also decided to buy a road grader together as each township had never felt able to invest in one alone. So Good Roads are to be the watchwords through Sterling and Taft vicinities this spring and summer.

The Sterling Board of Supervisors then held a special meeting to appoint a practical highway overseer according to the new law and Martin Hanson, being of several years' experience and favorable to all, was decided upon. Chairman Chas. Lundquist, Supervisors Rice and Parke being present.

H. E. Wildfang and R. A. Day of the Excelsior Cycle Co. have placed seven orders for Excelsior motor cycles this early in the campaign and they maintain that the country will be flooded with Excelsiors before many months.

Ed. Kafer was elected manager of the Sibley Butte ball team now in course of organizing and every effort is being made to raise the necessary funds for new suits and other baseball accessories. Manager Kafer advises of meeting with much success and a winning team is assured.

Mrs. May Random and Margaret Thorwaldson returned home from Sanborn Wednesday after enjoying a delightful visit with relatives.

Dr. E. A. Lang, veterinary surgeon of Jamestown was called to treat very sick horse for H. R. Wright Wednesday.

It is rumored that the Sterling hotel will be opened for business in the near future under new and able management.

Ray Sandry shipped six cars of cattle from South St. Paul that arrived here Thursday to be pastured for the summer.

Bob Day motored up from McKenzie in the Overland Wednesday accompanied by A. V. Anderson who is out for County Superintendent of Schools position. He will cover the county on an Excelsior Motor cycle to get acquainted with every voter and his brother.

Moffit, McKenzie, Driscoll and Sibley Butte are planning on fast baseball teams this season while Sterling, who has had the winning team for the past two years, are liable to be out of the running through lack of material and support.

All signs of the heavy snow have about disappeared with filed sloughs and coulees appearing in its stead, which looks good to the farmer as the sign of a good year for moisture and naturally a good crop.

Mrs. George Manly and Emma Elsworth entertained the whist club at the former's residence last Friday night amid much pleasure and splendor. Favors were awarded Miss May Random, after winning on the draw from the Mesdames Fogarty, Lundquist and Ellsworth, and Theron Ellison. Cards, music and refreshments helped while away a most enjoyable evening.

George Manly, Sr., went to the Capital City as delegate for the Modern Woodmen of America Wednesday. After the county road is decided you can turn your attention to the primaries.

Those wishing to work their taxes must be sure and notify the overseer, Martin Hanson, to that effect on or before May first, or be compelled to pay them.

PLAYS AND PLAYS

Elsie Janis is appearing in vaudeville in London.

E. H. Sothorn says next season will be his last on the stage.

The Shuberts have produced an English comedy called "The Third Party."

James A. Hearne's play "Sag Harbor" has been revived for the stock companies.

John Galsworthy's newest play, "The Moth" is to be seen in America next fall.

Julia Sanderson, Donald Brian and Joseph Cawthorn are to appear together in a musical play next season. "The Belle of Bond Street" is the name of the new Shubert play in which Sam Barnard and Gaby Deslys are to appear.

Arthur Byron, Sarah Cowell Le Moyne and a number of other well known players in the cast.

George Paston's play of English life, which has been seen in Canada under the name of "Nobody's Daughter" is soon to be produced in New York under the title of "The Little Intruder."

Low Fields is to have the principal comedy part in "The High Cost of Loving" which A. H. Woods is to present next summer. Alice Hegeman has been selected for one of the leading feminine roles.

"Forward March" with William Collier in the principal role, is to have its first production at Atlantic City on Easter Monday. A number of well known players have been engaged for Mr. Collier's support.

The English rights of "The Midnight Girl" which has scored a success in New York, have been sold by the Shuberts to George McLellan, who is planning for an early production of the piece in London.

Fay Templeton and Josephine Jacoby have been engaged to appear in the production of "Piaflore," which is to be staged soon at the Hippodrome in New York. The two artists will alternate in the role of Little Buttercup.

Richard Bennett and Edith Wynne Battishon will join forces next season to lead a travelling company, which will first produce Ragn Kennedy's play "The Idol Breaker," in which he deals with men and things in general as he happens to like or dislike them, and Brioux's "Maternity," a vigorous piece about unwedded motherhood.

"THE FIREFLY"

Miss Trentini, her voice even more beautiful than when she was identified with Mr. Oscar Hammerstein's Grand Opera Company, and her stage presence still typified by a wonderful and tireless energy, will make her appearance in the new Haueback-Prinzel comedy opera, "The Firefly" at the Auditorium tonight. It is said to be the best play that has yet been brought to Bismarck, under direction of Mr. Arthur Hammerstein.

"The Firefly" is a realistic and joyous stage drama, a varying spectacle of radiant beauty and entrancing music, and there are no dull moments. When captivating songs do not engage the attention, witty lines, praiseworthy acting, well executed dances, humorous and sometimes spectacular situations follow in such rapid succession, as to hold interest throughout.

It has been several years since a light opera of "The Firefly" type has been produced with such unity. The unusual feature of this production, is that, although choruses ensembles and musical numbers are frequent, they dovetail into the plot naturally, without that jarring effect that frequently mar musical plays.

"The Firefly" has been written to fit Miss Trentini's voice—a fact that gives her many opportunities to display her vocal ability. This has been accomplished, however, without the effect of having reduced the importance of other roles in order to give her a starring vehicle. The play opens at 8:15.

The Elk's meeting that was to have been held Friday evening has been postponed until Saturday evening, April 4, 1914. Installation of officers and initiation Saturday evening.

JAMESTOWN COLLEGE.

Monday, March 23, the preliminary debate was held for choosing the team to meet Valley City Normal in the annual Valley City Normal-Jamestown College debate. The three debaters to represent Jamestown this year are: Miss L. Moore, Mr. Landis and Mr. Orlandy. Miss L. Moore and Mr. Landis were on the team last year, when Jamestown defeated Valley City, and it is their intention to repeat their victory of last year.

Last Wednesday the Y. W. C. A. had a shower in their rooms to which they invited a number of Jamestown women. The afternoon was well enjoyed by all. The gifts received many beautiful and useful gifts for their room.

Monday, March 30, a Temperance Oratorical contest was held in the College chapel. There were three contestants for the prizes that were offered by the Presbyterian General Assembly. Miss Buck received first place, with an oration on "A Plea for National Prohibition." Mr. Perry was second, with "Shall the Stain Be Blotted Out." Miss Porter, the third contestant, took for her subject, "Temperance and the Children," and handled it very well.

President Kroeze returned from the east Tuesday evening, where he has been a number of weeks in the interests of the college.

Baseball practice is being held every day in the gym, during the present bad weather. The men expect to be out on the field by Friday.

SUFFRAGE SPEAKER IS BISSSED AT ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, April 2.—Hissses and catcalls from men in the audience greeted Mrs. Alice Curtice Moyer when she addressed an open air meeting in front of the courthouse here in behalf of woman suffrage.

After the interruption had continued for some time, Mrs. Moyer sat down. John Reed of Wyoming then stepped up to the automobile from which Mrs. Moyer had been speaking and said to her:

"I want you to know that I don't approve of the actions of this crowd. If such a thing had happened in Wyoming, we would have smashed those men's heads with clubs."

Several hundred men crowded about the automobile when Mrs. Moyer began to speak, but she said not gone very far, when one called out "say, who's watching the kids while you are out?"

"We women need the vote," said Mrs. Moyer, trying to ignore the interruption. "And we want you to give it to us, for we know the time is ripe in Missouri for equal suffrage."

"You'd better go home and tend to the kids and cook dinner for them," shouted some one in the crowd.

OVER 300 PER CENT PROFIT IN HARD COAL

Trenton, N. J., April 2.—The assembly coal investigating committee has submitted a report to the house that eleven big railroad companies control 87 per cent of the total anthracite mined; that there is a general combination between these companies to fix prices, and that the coal sales companies are owned and controlled by the railroads and are devised by the carriers for the purpose of technically avoiding the commodities clause of the Hepburn railroad act.

The report asserts that these companies not only control 87 per cent of the coal mined, but also a large proportion of the acreage of all the anthracite producing regions.

The committee declares that the prepared sizes of anthracite, such as stove, egg and chestnut, used almost exclusively by the small consumer, are sold at the enormous profit of upwards of 300 per cent.

The committee further asserts that the business of mines selling this 87 per cent of hard coal is controlled by a combination of 40 men.
