BUYS HOME A MOTT.

Mott Spottlight: Pinning his faith to our thriving little city is George J. Helming of the German State bank, who closed a deal for an elegant residence lot on Plety Hill this week, where he expects to erect a modern residence during the next few months, plans for which are now being drawn. It takes sometime to get these "George's" started, but it is a foregone conclusion that once started he knows how to do it.

U. of the world. Miss Anna Gordon, national vice president, will act as president until the next election.

The Second National Conference on Farm Marketing and Rural Credits.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 8.—The Second National Conference on Farm Marketing and Rural Credits will be held in Chicago, April 14-17. The conference promises to be of unusual value in many ways. President F. L. McVey of the University of North Dakota has been invited to give an address on "The Different Types of Proposed Legislation for the Establishment of Rural Credits." This invitation comes to him from the Western Economic association, which is acting as host for the conference. President McVey will leave for Chicago the latter part of this week. An effort is being made to have a large delegation from North Dakota at the meeting.

University Laboratories Receive Gift of Plants from Porto Rico.

Two large boxes of plants from Porto Rico have just been received at the University of North Dakota, to be used for purposes of instruction in the botanical laboratories. Dr. N. E. Pfeiffer, who has charge of the work in botany, has already arranged the plants in the laboratory and they are available for inspection at any time.

These plants are a gift to the university from Dr. W. N. Pfeiffer of the University of Chicago, who has been spending the last three months in Porto Rico, for the express purpose of studying the plant life there and selecting desirable specimens for the use of students in the laboratories of the University of Chicago.

The plants were sent by parcel post at a total expense of $2.50, and arrived in excellent condition, after six days on the ocean to New York and two days' inland journey to Grand Forks. There are over 50 plants in the collection, which includes about a dozen orchids, a half dozen seedlings belonging to a tropical form related to the pines, a half dozen lilies, four or five amaryllis and ten plants related to the pineapple. The rest are ferns of different varieties. The bulb plants, especially, are in a good condition and likely to bloom in a short time. Special study of these plants will be made by the classes in Nature study, Plant Physiology and Plant Morphology at the University of North Dakota. Some of the plants will be used also for decorative purposes.

University Sock and Buskin Club Gives Ibsen's "Little Eyolf." On Thursday, April 16, the University Sock and Buskin club will present its fifth annual play at the Metropolitan Opera House, under the personal direction of Frederick H. Koch, Professor Dramatic Literature and Oratory.

The play will be "Little Eyolf" one of Henrik Ibsen's latest and best productions, a play of great social significance. The best talent of the Sock and Buskin club will be in evidence in this play; also, there will be special Grieg music from the Plety Gymn. No pains have been spared to make it an unqualified success and it promises to be the best production thus far staged by the North Dakota University Dramatic club.

A large number of tickets have already been ordered and, considering the support of the student body, the present indications are that every seat will be taken.

North Dakota University Has Big Demonstration.

Before separating for their spring vacation, students and members of the faculty of the University of North Dakota gave vent to their enthusiasm and college spirit at a big mass meeting, held in the gymnasium. The time was spent in speech-making and singing college songs. Two excellent features of the program were the songs rendered by the Men's and Girls' Glee clubs. The opening number on the program was a song by the entire audience, and the meeting closed by singing Alma Mater. President Frank L. McVey presided. Those who made speeches were: Mr. J. J. Pettijohn, head of the Extension Division; Professor W. W. Norton, Director of Music; Dean Vernon P. Squires of the College of Liberal Arts; Dean Joseph Kennedy of the School of Education; Dean E. J. Habcock of the School of Mines; Walter Schlosser, of the Law School, represented the men students, and Miss Olga Serungard spoke for the women students.

The speakers in general discussed and emphasized the functions and ideals of a state university, the way in which the University of North Dakota is carrying out those ideals and its growing place among the great institutions of the country. Attention was called to the opportunity which vacation gives for students to get in touch with the home and the home with the university and the duty of students to extend the benefits of the university in the entire citizenship of the state.

Club Notes

The Woman's study club of Mott met with Mrs. F. H. Davis at her home with a good attendance of members present. A paper on "Luther Burbank and his creations of plant life" was read by Mrs. Orr, followed by Mrs. Rounds, whose topic was "Judge Lindsay and his juvenile court." A most profitable afternoon was spent by those present.

The drama section of the Fargo Fine Arts club met for the study of Nathan Hale, an American drama by Clyde Fitch. The drama was read by Miss Ella Kivlie and afterwards discussed by the members. The program arrangement for the coming year's work was read and discussed. The members are planning to take up more study of famous dramas and writers than has heretofore been done.

The Mother's club of the Presbyterian church of Minot met in the church parlors. A very interesting program was given. The opening was the singing of the first Psalm by the ladies. Mrs. Erickson then sang a group of child songs, and Mrs. Smallwood gave a paper on Current Events.

Little Margaret Jackson sang "If I Only Had a Home Sweet Home." May Shaft gave a number of readings and Vaughn Smallwood also gave a reading and each were very much enjoyed. Mrs. Van Fleet gave a paper on "The Observance of the Curfew." The program was completed by two songs by the Glee and Quartets, "The Sweetest Flower that Blows," and "Slumber Boat."

The Woman's club of Minot met at the home of Mrs. D. A. Dinnie on South Main street. In the absence of Mrs. Ellison, Mrs. Carr read her paper on the Mexican Revolution. This was exceedingly interesting, the revolution being traced from the beginning to the most recent events. Mrs. Robinson selected her topic, which was "Maailas." She said among the recent maailas were the past card craze and the tango. She also said that she hoped the next fad would be the "clean-up craze" in the city of Minot. Mrs. Sherman gave a geographical paper on "A Trip Through Central America." The last paper of the afternoon was "Economy and Taste in the Building of a Home," by Mrs. Dinnie. She showed how the plans for a home should suit the location, the size of the lot and surroundings. She presented a number of plans from the lake-side bungalow to the larger home in the city. Another sketch was that of a kitchen planned by two St. Paul women and which was on exhibition at the Minnesota State fair last year. The kitchen plan was perfect in every detail and was so arranged to save many a step.

The Woman's club at Jamestown held their regular meeting in the Cynosure club rooms. There was a good attendance and an excellent program was given. In the absence of Mrs. J. H. Poulson, her paper on "Home Nursing" was read by Mrs. F. M. Warner. This paper was very practical and interesting. Dr. A. H. Mottus who was to have presented the subject of "Sex Education," found it impossible to be present and Mrs. Mottus read the paper which the doctor had prepared. This paper was a very logical, sane and thorough treatment of the subject. The writer has made a somewhat thorough study of this important subject and the paper embodied many of his own suggestions and ideas. Following this, Mrs. Earle of the State hospital lead the discussion in a very thorough treatment of the subject. Miss Taylor of Jamestown college continued the discussion, taking up the subject from the teachers' viewpoint. From the standpoint of the mother and the home, the subject was discussed by Coffee Drinkers, And think a minute!

Some persons seem able, for a time at least, to get along with coffee, but it contains a subtle, habit-forming drug, caffeine, which sooner or later is pretty sure to rob one of health and comfort.

If you know coffee don't harm you—if you feel prime and fit under its continued use, well and good—stick to it.

But—if you are sometimes a bit "off color," and irritable nerves, disturbed heart action, biliousness, headache, or symptoms of liver or kidney trouble make you wonder what's the matter—

Better find out what coffee has to do with it.

Evidently some people are learning the truth about coffee—listen—

During 1913 the sales of coffee in this country decreased over one hundred million pounds.

A mighty army of former coffee drinkers now use
