

TEDDY TO RE-ENTER POLITICS

POLITICIANS BUZZING ABOUT OYSTER BAY, THICK AS FLIES IN HONEY.

WILL ALSO TAKE STUMP

Will Try to Even Up Score With Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania.

Oyster Bay, L. I., May 23.—To all appearances, Roosevelt has recovered entirely from the effects of his trip into the South American jungles.

Council of War.

Except for a long walk across the country with Mrs. Roosevelt, the Colonel devoted the day to a long council of war with political associates and in work with his stenographers.

The political outlook in New York and Ohio was taken up. Plans for a vigorous campaign in New York state were sketched. Much of the Colonel's time and energies will be directed to the fight in New York, which is expected to give one of the severest tests of strength of the new party.

Chairman Robinson, of the state committee, and Regis Post, former governor of Porto Rico, and a pioneer in the organization of the party in this state, were among the visitors. As far as learned, the proposal that Roosevelt accept the progressive nomination for governor of New York was not brought up.

Will Aid Progressive Nominees.

In the conference recently Mr. Pinchot was assured, according to reliable reports, that Mr. Roosevelt would aid him in his campaign for the United States senatorship, and also William Draper Lewis, who was named as the progressive nominee for governor of Pennsylvania. His friends here say that the light vote cast in that state at the primaries was somewhat of a blow to the erstwhile president.

George W. Perkins, chairman of the executive committee of the national progressive committee, spent three hours with Theodore Roosevelt Thursday at Sagamore Hill and besides relating to him the political happenings of the seven months in which Mr. Roosevelt has been in South America, urged upon him the demands of the new party that he become an avowed candidate for office.

Politicians Calling.

New York state politicians of his party are calling upon him to become a candidate for governor in the coming election. Mr. Perkins informed him, and the progressive party and Roosevelt men throughout the country are calling upon him to be their candidate for president in 1916.

Fighting Mad.

That the reports of Mr. Perkins carried great weight was indicated by the fact that Mr. Roosevelt later authorized the statement that he would spend the next ten days in making arrangements for his political activities, would then go to Madrid to attend the wedding of his son, Kermit Roosevelt, and upon his return would plunge into politics with all his might.

Speaking Trip.

He announced that besides many short speaking trips into New York state and Pennsylvania, he would make the longest and most aggressive political tour of his life, going from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and speaking at many places in most of the states.

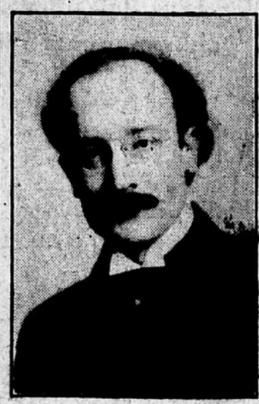

Gifford Pinchot, progressive nominee for United States senator from Pennsylvania, was another important caller upon Mr. Roosevelt. He remained for dinner and over night at Sagamore Hill. Mr. Perkins returned to New York City. He would not discuss politics for publication, but it was understood that there could be no doubt that Mr. Roosevelt had consented to engage in probably the busiest political campaign of his life.

The Minneapolis Orchestra Is a Wonderful Organization

EMIL OBERHOFFER.

SECURED FOR BISMARCK THROUGH EFFORTS OF MRS. W. F. CUSHING.

WILL GIVE TWO CONCERTS

Arrangements Have Been Made for the Company to Be at the Auditorium June 2.

With her characteristic energy, Mrs. W. F. Cushing has secured for the city one of the greatest musical treats that has ever been billed to appear here. The treat consists of two concerts given by the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, which has the name of being one of the best musical organizations in the United States today.

Will Be Here June 2.

After having secured the consent of the great organization to come to Bismarck and play for the people, the next step was to arrange a date that would be most suitable. This finally was decided upon for June 2, in the afternoon and evening. The auditorium was then secured and the work of making the preliminary outline of the work in hand has fallen largely upon Mrs. Cushing.

Great Leader.

Mr. Oberhoffer, who leads this great orchestra, is one of those wonderful men who thrill and guide his followers by a nod, a poised baton, or a glance, and the response to his moods is as wonderful as it is instantaneous. The result is so pleasing that most people who have the pleasure of hearing him, marvel at the ease and grace with which the members of his orchestra execute the many difficult passages and runs.

FIRST MARKET DAY A SUCCESS

Several Hundred Farmers and Their Wives Made City Buying Headquarters.

BAND GAVE A CONCERT

Baby Show Had Many Entries.

Kenneth Rubel Wins First Prize; Emma King 2nd.

The first Market Day of the season was a big success. The biggest crowd in attendance at any market day was here yesterday, and if the interest keeps up during the summer it is the way it has started, these will be the biggest days of the year.

Kenneth Rubel Prize Taker.

The baby show was a success. There were 16 entries from all over the county, including Brittin, Driscoll, Wing and other towns. The five highest scores were made as follows: Kenneth Rubel—Driscoll, 100 per cent. Emma King—Menoken, 99.8 per cent. Henry Frank Hassa—Bismarck, 99 per cent. Vera Lucile Ramey—Bismarck, 99 per cent. William Roger Dohler—Wing, 99 per cent.

All Made Good Showing.

The rest of the babies all followed these closely, and there was almost no choice between any of them. Dr. Stackhouse and Dr. Fleming of the Bismarck hospital, did the judging, while Mrs. Dr. Smyth had general supervision of things. Two nurses from St. Alexis hospital, were on hand to help care for the babies. Everything went off smoothly, and all the mothers appeared satisfied.

Band Gave Concert.

The Bismarck band gave an excellent concert for an hour at the corner of Fourth and Main streets, which was listened to by a large crowd. There was so great an attendance at the Bismarck theater that Manager Wingrove had to give two shows to accommodate the crowds. The stores were well patronized and the bargains offered were taken advantage of by the people.

The next Market Day will be held

June 20. The prize will be for the girl under 17 years old, who can form the greatest number of words out of the letters BISMARCK. All proper names, compound words and foreign words are barred. The Secretary has received a number of inquiries already from girls around the country who are working for the prize and undoubtedly a large number will have their lists in the contest.

Rifle as a Prize.

The boys of the county should remember about the rifle to be given on the Boys' Market Day, July 10, for the boy in the county who kills the biggest number of gophers. Send in the receipts for the tails given you by the township clerk or county auditor to the Commercial club, as these will form the basis from which to judge who will be the winner.

A COOKING SCHOOL FOR ALL WOMEN

TRIBUNE HAS ENGAGED MRS. MARY J. MARSHMENT FOR TEACHER.

IS NOTED CULINARY EXPERT

Free Instruction Will Be Given to All Ladies Who Desire to Take Lessons.

The Daily Tribune is genuinely interested in those problems which confront its women readers and whenever an opportunity presents itself this paper is glad to perform some service which will be of real benefit to the whole community.

Every good housewife takes a deep personal interest in her kitchen and the preparation of the daily meals is one of her greatest tasks, what to get for breakfast or luncheon, or dinner is the eternal question in the average woman's mind nearly every day in the year and for that reason The Tribune is particularly pleased to be able to announce a great big feature of especial interest to every woman in Bismarck and vicinity.

This paper will conduct a comprehensive cooking school and household show the last three afternoons and evenings of this week, the 28, 29 and 30, and cordially invites every interested housewife in the city and surrounding territory to attend one or all of the sessions as a guest of The Tribune.

Expert Engaged.

Mrs. Mary J. Marshment, known throughout the entire country as an authority on domestic topics, particularly in that important department of the home, the kitchen, has been engaged by this paper to come to Bismarck and offer the experiences she has gained in her work for the benefit of local women. Mrs. Marshment will conduct two classes in cooking each of the three days she will be in this city, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and again at 8 o'clock in the evening, completely changing her programs and lectures at each session.

Practical Plans.

Practical, sensible, plain, everyday recipes will make up the cooking programs instead of the hard-to-prepare and seldom used dishes so frequently shown by expert lecturers and the keynote of the entire affair will be economy. Economy in time spent in the preparation of the daily meals, economy in fuel and food and economy in actual cost of preparation by using less expensive cuts of meat and utilizing every portion, even to the "left-overs."

Actual Work.

During the three afternoons and evenings Mrs. Marshment's stay in this city, she will actually go through an entire dinner menu from soups to desserts, as well as showing a hundred and one attractive and valuable economical receipts which will serve to vary the monotony of the daily bill of fare, preparing the ingredients which go to make up her programs before the classes at each session and serving the results of her cooking efforts to those in attendance.

Salads and salad dressing will form a part of the programs, meats cooked in many ways, vegetables in original and unique manners of preparation, dainty and inexpensive desserts, bread and rolls in a great variety will be all worked out for the benefit of the women of Bismarck at The Tribune.

There will be no charge of any nature to those who wish to enroll in the cooking classes, the school is intended as a compliment to the women readers of this paper and has been arranged only in the desire to be of actual assistance to the housewives by helping them to solve the perplexing problems which confront them in their daily duties in the home.

Watch the Tribune.

There is much yet to be told concerning this interesting, educational affair, and full-particulars will appear in The Tribune from day to day. The household show and "cooking school" will be held in the Commercial Club assembly hall.

WILSON FOR TRUST BILLS

Wants Legislation Passed Before Congress Adjourns.

Washington, May 23.—The president will be satisfied with nothing less than the passage through both houses of congress at the present session of the anti-trust legislation recently agreed upon. This was made clear by officials close to the administration.

Some believed there would be sufficient support to pass the anti-trust bills in the house and only in the senate if they agree on the time for the vote. Although the president realizes the desire of many members of congress to adjourn early, he believed the anti-trust legislation should be expedited in both houses.

Miss Clara Tatley Crowned Queen at Big Spring Pageant

CHARMING BISMARCK GIRL LEADS FESTIVAL AT NORTHWESTERN.

A VERY PICTURESQUE SCENE

Ceremony Performed On a Bluff Overlooking a Beautiful Lake.

Miss Clara Tatley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tatley of Bismarck, was today crowned queen at the annual spring pageant, given at Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill. She is one of the most beautiful and popular girls in the junior class, having won distinction in scholarship and in other college affairs.

An Elaborate Affair.

The pageant was an elaborate affair. A chorus of 32 picked voices added greatly to the beauty of the ceremony. The art department of the college worked weeks designing the color scheme and the gowns. Girls from the gymnasium classes, under their instructor, gave a series of interpretive dances.

Miss Tatley Crowned.

Miss Tatley was crowned queen by Ruth Sanders, queen of last year's pageant. The affair was given on the bluff overlooking the lake, just east of the college gymnasium. The throng of the Spring Queen stood at the end of a picturesque path.

Stirring Strains.

The pageant was opened by stirring strains from a violin, and the tempestuous "March Wind" entered and danced to them. She drove away the snows of winter and prepared the way for the coming of the spring. After she was gone girls' voices were heard in the distance, and the chorus came singing through the open doors, preceded by the Herald. The Queen of last year followed. When they were assembled around the throne and silent, the new Queen danced, surrounded by a bevy of tiny children.

She was crowned. Then the old Queen summoned forth her dancers, who interpreted the experience and learning, gained during her reign, for the benefit of the new Queen. First "Father Time" approached, carrying the world in his hand, and he called forth the Minutes, the Hours, the Days, the Weeks, and the Months, who each danced with the World in their turn.

Shows Phases of Time.

Their dance showed the different phases of time. When they were done Father Time turned to the Queen and commanded her to choose between a spiritual kingdom and the earthly one that she now enjoys. She at last relinquished her earthly power and went to receive the world of spirit she had chosen, from Father Time. She took it and left it in the arms of a little child who had come to take possession of her throne. With this symbol the pageant closed and the brilliant retinue followed the Queen and Father Time away.

HUNTER JURY HAS DISAGREED

Out Thirty Hours; Stood Five for Conviction and Seven for Acquittal.

Minneapolis, May 23.—The jury in the case of Dr. Charles H. Hunter, who has been on trial charged with manslaughter, following the death of Nina Pihl on an operating table in his office, Nov. 23, 1913, and having the case under consideration for 30 hours, came in and reported a disagreement. Seven jurors stood for acquittal and five for conviction.

Noted Case.

Dr. Hunter is one of the Minneapolis physicians that received considerable attention from the Jim Jam Jems, a publication from North Dakota.

To Be Tried Again.

The disagreement of the jury will send the case back to the trial court again. Several weeks probably will elapse before the matter comes up for a hearing. During this time both sides will be busy in securing new evidence and working out new lines of defense.

Was Well Known Man.

The deceased was a well known farmer in this section and has a daughter, Mrs. F. A. Graham, who lives here. He leaves surviving him a wife and several children.

Old, Low-railed Boat.

The boat in which Mr. Webber attempted to cross the river was one of the old low-sided boats that are common on the river, and it is believed when he struck the center current midway across the river his boat was swung from its course, and in trying to right the boat it was overturned.

Searching For Body.

Several people immediately rushed to the river as soon as the accident had been reported, and have been searching from boats for the body, in hopes that it may be recovered. All the sandbars and shallows are being scanned, in the hope that it may have floated onto one of them. Others are further down stream, keeping a lookout to see if it has floated down with the current.

THE WEATHER.

Interstate—Partly cloudy, probably showers Sunday and Monday.

PEACE AT ALL COSTS SAYS DIAZ

HE DECLARES THERE ARE HOPES OF SUCCESSFUL MEDIATION.

CARRANZA IS HESITATING

Refuses to Show Hand of Constitutionalists to A. E. C. Envoys.

Toronto, Ont., May 23.—General Felix Diaz, who is stopping here, said he heartily approved of the mediation proceedings at Niagara Falls. In the event that a new provisional government results from the conference, he said, he will be among the first to swear allegiance to it, for, he declared, the interest of peace in his country now, of all times, is required in subordination of personal desires to national welfare.

Propose a Meeting.

In a statement regarding the conference's possibilities, he said: "If Huerta is to go there ought to be a meeting of the leaders of all the political parties incorporated by law, which took part in the last presidential elections, in order that these parties may arrive at some agreement about designating the person to take the reins of government, the provisional government to call a general election and an entirely free. I suggest this only in the event the mediators and delegates agree to seek out a person fitted for provisional president."

Many Equity Meetings Billed

Biggest Meeting Will Be Held in Bismarck June 6, at Auditorium—Other Dates.

Several important meetings will be held next month under the auspices of the American Society of Equity and the Farmers' Equity co-operative Exchange in this section of the state. The big meeting will be held in Bismarck, June 6, when George S. Loftus will explain co-operative marketing on the terminal markets.

It is not decided whether the meeting will be held in the afternoon or in the morning. The meeting will be in the afternoon, at the Auditorium. Farmers throughout the section have shown their enthusiasm. This meeting will afford them an excellent opportunity to hear the discussion of the marketing issue from the co-operative standpoint whether they agree with the proposition or not.

A number of meetings have been arranged for LaMoure county, during the early part of June. E. J. Beal of Valley City will be the speaker at some of them and probably Mr. Loftus and other Equity workers will make them.

A DAY OF ACTIVITY.

Niagara Falls, May 23.—This proved a day of intense activity among those seeking a settlement of the Mexican problem by mediation. A sudden meeting this afternoon, called at the request of a Mexican delegate, resulted in rumors of wide range concerning the situation. After the meeting a statement was issued that the conference was held at the request of the Mexican representatives "for the purpose of informing the mediators and American representatives of the ideas of their government concerning several interesting points for the best solution of the present difficulty. It was decided to maintain secrecy in regard to these points until a concerted solution had been reached, to which end informal conversations continue. A favorable outlook is emphasized by the results of this afternoon's conference.

LIND CALLS ON BRYAN.

Washington, May 23.—John Lind and one of the legal advisers of the constitutionalists with whom the question of constitutionalist representation at the mediation conference at Niagara Falls was discussed, called on Secretary Bryan.

No definite developments on this subject, at least as far as were made public. While mediations, in the words of officials, are progressing smoothly, a new source of apprehension on the part of the foreign diplomats was found in the situation at Guadalajara, the second city in Mexico, where large numbers of foreign refugees were reported gathered.

PREACHER BOUND LEFT TO STARVE

Prohibition Advocate Is Kidnaped After Addressing a "Dry Meeting."

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—A man claiming to be Rev. Louis Patmont, a prohibition advocate, who has been missing since he addressed the "dry" meeting at Westville, Ill., March 31, was found in an abandoned farm house near Columbia, Ill., bound and gagged and so emaciated that he could scarcely talk. His weak cries uttered after shaving the gag loose brought farm hands to the house. They released him but he could not walk. When account of Patmont's disappearance was read here, he wept and said, "I am the man." When he became somewhat stronger he said he was kidnaped after the Westville meeting and remembered but little after being drugged and brought to the farm house, Friday in an automobile.
