

CLUB WORK IS TRUE RELIGION

STATEMENT MADE BEFORE FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUB; CHICAGO.

WANT IMPROVED CONDITIONS

Rural Betterment is Sought by Entire Body of Active Club Workers.

Chicago, June 15.—Declaring her belief that "club work is true religion," and proposing that the federation join in an earnest campaign for the betterment of rural life, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, today addressed the Biennial convention of the general federation.

Widen Scope of Work.

She asked that the federation work be widened by being presented before state federations and primarily by other organizations; by conferences individual effort.

"Let us call for volunteers," said Mrs. Pennybacker, "to carry the gospel of the general federation work to every individual club at least once a year. I would not hesitate to ask these women to offer their services in the highest missionary spirit, for verily the message they will bring is oftentimes of a religious nature."

"If you could hear as I have heard stories of how sick babies had been saved, of how women to whom every door of life was closed have had their lives made full of hope and courage, of how those hungering in spirit have been comforted and refreshed you would not feel that I have over-stated the matter when I claim that club work is true religion."

Three Things Desired.

"If we could bring about these three things during the next two years,—if we could deliver our message before every other state organization, if we could have a live general federation session at each state meeting, if we could secure fervid, consecrated women to carry a message to every individual club, we would find it easy to accomplish any reform we undertook."

Rural Betterment.

The rural betterment campaign proposed by Mrs. Pennybacker which she declared would be both inspirational and a concrete accomplishment, looked toward providing comfortable homes for country school teachers.

"As a country," said Mrs. Pennybacker, "we are almost united upon the fact that the great question facing us is the betterment of rural life. It is not enough that for our rural people to produce more in the fruits of the field, they must have opportunity to live more. If we, the million women in this federation, could concentrate for the next two years in an effort to bring about a model settlement, and especially to establish teachers' homes, or teacherages, as they are called, in connection with at least one school building in each county, we would be serving the entire nation."

A Poet Will Arise

"The day will come when a poet will arise to sing the virtues and unselfish service of the country teacher. If the school is to be a real center of the best social life in the community, it must be presided over by a teacher who has at least some degree of permanency. Nothing will sooner give this permanency than a comfortable house, with a plot of ground, where the teacher can have a settled feeling."

Homes for Teachers.

"By giving the teacher a home where he might become a dominant force in the community life, we would be giving every department in our federation a new avenue for reaching the people. Art, civics, conservation, civil service, reform, home economics, industrial and social condition, legislative, literature and library, music and public health, would be called upon to serve in such a community as this."

Way Will Open.

"There are today other forces thinking, planning and working along the line I have indicated, all stand ready to co-operate with us in this service. "If you ask me how shall we go to work to secure this, I would not dare answer. We must study before acting. But this I know full well, if we go at this conscientiously, thoughtfully, prayerfully, the way will open." "Are you willing to work for this concrete accomplishment and two years from now report what we have been able to help to bring to pass?"

Increase Reported.

The national president told of the increase in the ranks of the general federation since the last biennial convention, six hundred and seventy clubs having been admitted, leaving no state unrepresented on the federation roll. She spoke of the routine work attached to the presidential office and jokingly observed that it might be well to have three presidents, "one to stay at home, to think, to study and to plan; a second to travel and accept the host of invitations to speak, and a third, a social and eating president."

Mrs. Pennybacker touched feelings on the help she had received from former officers and from club women throughout the country. She suggested that the establishment of an efficiency commission to work out the problems of the federation would be a step forward.

Her closing words were: "Thankful for the past, hopeful for the future, let us gird on our armor and press forward."

ARE OPPOSED TO SUFFRAGE

Women From All Parts of the State Meet and Organize Against Suffrage.

Fargo, N. D., June 15.—The effect of the meeting which was recently held in this city in opposition to woman's suffrage has been state-wide and the headquarters are being flooded with letters endorsing the movement.

The delegates at that meeting were from all parts of the state, and all being of considerable prominence and influence, their labors promise to give the suffragists considerable to do. Following are the officers of the state organization:

President—Mrs. N. C. Young, Fargo.
Vice Presidents—
Mrs. C. N. Frick, Lakota.
Mrs. J. G. Gunderson, Aneta.
Mrs. H. C. Chaffee, Amentia.
Miss M. O. Moviis, Lidgerwood.
Mrs. T. L. Reischer, Pessenden.
Mrs. E. B. Goss, Bismarck.
Mrs. C. W. Plain, Milton.
Mrs. W. J. Reynolds, Westhope.
Mrs. R. H. Bosard, Minot.
Mrs. L. B. Dochterman, Williston.
Mrs. C. S. Wolfe, Wahpeton.
Executive Committee—Mrs. N. C. Young, Mrs. W. J. Howe, Mrs. D. E. Holt.

More than 100 women were enrolled at this first meeting and many more are enrolling each day.

The purpose of this organization is to show the voters of North Dakota that the women of the state are not generally in sympathy with the suffrage movement, that it is only a small minority of women who are asking for the ballot.

The great majority of North Dakota women believe that they suffer no injustice under the present electorate, and they feel that the duties which must ever revert to their sex are such that none but themselves can perform, and that political responsibilities imposed by the ballot could not be borne by them without the sacrifice of the highest interests of their families and of society.

A vigorous campaign is being prepared, and much interest will be centered on the contest.

PIONEER WOMAN PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Rebecca Craig Will Died Sunday Morning of Cancer.

Funeral Today, 2.30.

Mrs. Rebecca Craig Will, aged 78, one of the earliest pioneers of Bismarck, and a woman who has been prominent in church and lodge work, died Sunday, at her home on Ninth street, after an illness lasting nearly a year. The cause of her death was cancer. The funeral will take place this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 2.30, from the McCabe Memorial M. E. church, Rev. R. H. Craig preaching the sermon. Burial will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Rebecca Craig was born August 14, 1838, in Tuscarawas, Ohio, and spent her girlhood in that city. She was married to J. A. Will at Tuscarawas, Ohio, August 27, 1859, and of this union six children were born. All survive her. They are: Frank Will, Center; Charles Will, Bismarck; Mrs. J. W. Sawyer, Glendive, Mont.; Mrs. Alice Garner, California; Mrs. J. D. Artman, Oklahoma City, Okla.; and J. Andrew Will of Florida. Only the first three are present to attend the funeral.

Pioneers.

In 1868, Mrs. Will and her husband and their family came to this place, when it was only a small village. Here her children grew to manhood and womanhood. Sixteen years ago her consort died and was buried in the Catholic cemetery, and this afternoon her mortal remains will be laid beside him.

Was Interested in Church.

Mrs. Will was always an active member of the Methodist church and also of the Rebekahs. About a year ago she was compelled to give up much of the work and Friday she was stricken and shortly afterward became unconscious. She remained so until the end came.

CAME FROM DAV. SON.

Col. W. T. Tuttle of Dawson is among the prominent visitors in the city today. Col. Tuttle is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress on the Republican ticket at the coming primaries. He is making an extensive campaign of the district in the interests of his candidacy. The reports from various sections in the district would strongly indicate that he is far in the lead in the race with his opponent of Valley City.

Col. Tuttle impresses people wherever he goes that he is well qualified for the position he seeks. He is one of the largest land holders in the state of North Dakota and is thoroughly familiar with the wants of the agricultural interests.

FARMERS FAIL TO INTERPRET BILL

Which Permits the Extension of Payments on Land Purchased From United States.

Ryder, N. D., June 15.—Farmers on the reservation are somewhat confused over the workings of the new bill by congress which granted an extension of time for the payments on the lands purchased from the government. Some of them were so afraid they would lose their lands they have, since the bill was passed, mortgaged their land and borrowed money at 12 per cent interest to make payments. Another feature that has developed is that the settlers in reality have six payments instead of five, on the lands. They make the first payment on purchasing the land and the balance in five equal installments. Many of them were under the impression the balance had to be paid in four annual installments. This is making it easier for some of the settlers to meet their payments.

ADLAI EWING STEVENSON DIED SUNDAY

Former Vice-President Dies at His Illinois Home, Sunday Morning.

WAS UNDER PRES. CLEVELAND

Chicago, June 15.—Adlai Ewing Stevenson, ex-vice president of the United States, who has been very ill for some time, died at his home, Sunday morning. The following sketch of his life is given.

Adlai Ewing Stevenson, once vice president of the United States, had a long and honorable public career. He was vice president from 1893 to 1897 under president Grover Cleveland. In 1900 he again was nominated by the democratic party for vice president and ran with William J. Bryan, the party's candidate for president, but was defeated. He served as a member of the 44th and 45th congress. From 1885 to 1889 he served as first assistant postmaster general under president Cleveland.

His last appearance as a candidate for public office was in 1908 when he was nominated for governor of Illinois by the democratic party and was defeated by Chas. S. Deneen, republican.

He was born in Christian county, Kentucky, Oct. 23, 1835 of Scotch-Irish parentage. In 1853 his parents moved to Bloomington, Ill. He attended the public schools and the Illinois university.

In 1866 he graduated from Center college, Danville, Kentucky. There he was a classmate of Senator Jos. Blackburn and other Kentucky youths who later became prominent in public life. He signalled the close of his college career by marrying a daughter of Dr. Lewis W. Gren, president of the college.

After leaving college Stevenson returned to Bloomington, Ill., and read law. He was admitted to the bar in 1858 and began legal practice at Natamora, Ill., where he remained until 1868. During these ten years he held the office of master in chancery four years and district attorney for a similar period.

In 1868 he returned to Bloomington and formed a law partnership with his cousin, James S. Ewing and for many years the firm was one of the best known in Illinois legal circles. Stevenson's political career dated from 1864 when he was a presidential elector on the democratic ticket. He made a canvass of Illinois in behalf of the McCellan ticket and won a reputation as a political orator.

In 1874 Stevenson was nominated for congress by the greenback and anti-monopolist parties in the 13th Illinois district against Gen. John M. Nulta, republican. The democrats considered the case hopeless and did not hold even a convention. The ensuing campaign was exciting and Stevenson was elected by a majority over Gen. McNulta of 1,232 votes.

In 1876 he again was elected to congress for the same district on the greenback ticket although he was supported by the democrats was declined to put up a candidate.

In 1884 Stevenson led the Illinois delegation to the democratic national convention which nominated Grover Cleveland for president. In 1897 he was appointed a member of a commission which visited Europe in an effort to secure international bingalism.

ATTENDED SISTER'S WEDDING.

Dairy Commissioner Robert Flint has returned from Rice, Minn., where he attended the wedding of his youngest sister. There are ten children in the family and this was the first occasion in 16 years that they were all together. One sister came from Montana and one from Washington to attend the ceremony. It was a very pleasant reunion as well as celebration of a wedding in the family.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Keep Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mossy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because anybody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive, besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Adv.

HEN ADOPTED KITTENS.

Eowman, N. D., June 15.—On the Andrew Nelson farm in Goldfield township, near here, a hen that had been unsuccessful in two efforts to hatch out broods of chicks, developed the maternal instinct so strong, it adopted a litter of kittens. It forcibly carried away the kittens from its mother and hovers them for hours at a time. As soon as she starts out for something to eat the kittens return to their natural parent. While hovering the kittens the hen desperately fights the old cat or any other animal or person that attempts to approach her foundlings.
