HOME IS DAMAGED. Madran, N. D., July 7.—About $200 damage resulted Saturday from a fire at the home of Dr. B. D. Rowley. Dr. and Mrs. Rowley were at the ball game when smoke was seen issuing from their home on Fourth Ave. N. W.

The department was called out by neighbors. Dr. Rowley arrived just as the department got there and with the assistance of neighbor, J. G. Nead, pushed up stairs and carried out a feather bed and mattress which were burning. The house was filled with smoke and both had their hands badly burned, but it was not found necessary to turn on the water and the little fire left in the room was extinguished with a pail of water.

Delbert, four year old son of Dr. and Mrs. Rowley, who had been left in the maid's charge, had been put to sleep, and waking up had gotten hold of a box of safety matches which had been hidden in a drawer. He had lighted a candle and placed it under the bed.
