BISMARCK THEATRE

Coming Wednesday and Thursday THE SPOILERS Rex Beach's Wonderful story of the Alaskan Gold Fields

George Fortune, former chief of police of Bismarck, who, with W. S. Casselman, police magistrate, and Charles Mason, former special policeman, must sooner or later stand trial in Morton county.

Cases Long Drawn. The arrest of the three men last September followed an investigation as to the truth and veracity of one George Harrie, an Assyrian peddler, who claimed he was arrested in Bismarck on the charge of peddling without a license, later searched and relieved of a certain amount of money and goods he was offering for sale and taken to the Missouri river bridge and told to "beat it" and never show up again.

Late in January, or just before the criminal cases on the calendar for the December term of district court had been cleaned up with the exception of the Fortune, Casselman and Mason cases, State's Attorney Berndt asked for a change of venue in the three cases from Burlington to Morton county, filing affidavits of prejudice. The motion was granted by Judge Nessels and the defense appealed to the supreme court.

At the same time the state's attorney moved for the advancement of the cases on the calendar. The supreme court, in its decision, denied the motion for advancement at the same time stating the cases non-appealable from the order for their transfer to Morton county. As soon as State's Attorney Berndt could come into possession of the records on their return to Morton county, he hurried over to Mandan Wednesday but the jury panel had been dismissed that morning and the defense has undoubtedly secured the point it has fought for ever since Judge Nessels was sustained by the supreme court in his order for transfer—that of trying over the cases until the June term of court.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you may my permission to publish them."—MRS. SAGE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.
