

CROWD AT EXPO PACKS THEATRE AND AUTO SHOW

Interest in Big Exhibition Increases as End Draws Near.
MONSTER STREET PARADES TWICE ON CLOSING DAY
Automobile Exhibits Attract Many Buyers—Factory Representatives Here.

The theater at the Exposition was packed at both performances last night and this could almost be said of the automobile show room all the evening. The special attraction there was the giving away of 100 boxes of candy.

Instead of decreasing, the interest in the big exhibition is advancing every day and the management fully expects that it will continue to do so until the close. Friday and Saturday are certain to be two of the biggest days.

Saturday Red-Letter Day
The traveling men and the Elks are arousing much enthusiasm in their plans to make the closing day one that will be long remembered. The business men are responding liberally to their requests for floats and the leaders expect that those who have not already lined themselves up with the procession will do so today. Besides the afternoon parade there will be a unique evening procession led by the Dutch band through streets illuminated with colored lights.

Judging of the fancy work was completed yesterday, the awards will be announced Friday.

Automobile Show
A large number of school children again visited the Exposition as the guests of the association. Forty children from the first to eighth grades of the Indian schools were in charge of Grace A. Kimmy. They were each given an apple. Pupils of the fifth and sixth grades of St. Mary's school were in charge of Slaters Bozema and Norbertine.

The automobile show at the Exposition this year is arousing unusual interest. It is seldom that any show in connection with a fair or exposition reaches the high standard that this has. All of the exhibitors report sales.

Many Factory Men Here
That it has been considered of great importance is witnessed by the presence here of many representatives from the leading automobile factories.

The first exhibit on the right of the main entrance is that of the Corwin Motor company. It is showing the racy seven-passenger Mitchell Six which sells for $1285; the Saxon Four, two-passenger and selling at $395; the Saxon Six, with its yacht lines and popular price, $785; and the Buick Six, a duplicate of the car which won the road race Tuesday, negotiating the 19.4 miles in 26 minutes. It sells at $935.

Minneapolis Firm Exhibits
The Northwestern Auto Company of Minneapolis is showing the Chandler, one of the first light sixes to be put on the market. It is a seven-passenger car and sells at $1295. J. G. Fisher of Minneapolis is in charge. The Minneapolis company also handles the Saxon cars and Mr. Fisher is assisting the Corwin company in explaining to the many visitors the merits of these cars. Deals have been closed with three Saxons since the Exposition opened.

Oldsmobile Eight Not Here
The Chevrolet "Four Ninety" the machine that made the best time in the hill-climb of any four-cylinder car, is attracting considerable attention in the National Highway Motor company booth. It is a four and sells at $490, fully equipped save electric starter. The National people are also showing the $750 Baby Grand Chevrolet, a four cylinder five-passenger car. The company expected to have one of the new Oldsmobile Eights on display but it has not yet arrived. The Oldsmobile Four, selling at $1,095 and holding five passengers is one of the cars shown. F. W. Kent, factory representative for the Oldsmobile, was present the first week. R. L. English of the Minneapolis (Continued on Page Four.)

BISMARCK BOOSTERS

P. B. WEBB

P. B. Webb, senior member of the firm of Webb Brothers, is one of the city's successful and pioneer business men. It was in July, 1883, that Mr. Webb came to Bismarck from Scranton, Pa. The following spring he engaged in partnership with W. L. Smith in the furniture business. In September, 1884, when Mr. W. H. Webb, Jr., came to Bismarck, the firm of Webb Brothers was organized, now owners of one of the leading department stores in the state.

In 1884 and 1885, Mr. Webb was also associated with George F. Deibert in the general contracting business. He laid the first sidewalks from Main street to the Capitol building. For 32 years he has been contracting for a bigger and better Bismarck, and believes the city to have the brightest future in the state as a wholesale and retail distributing center.

Mr. Webb is a member of the Commercial club and a member of every organized movement that aims for the advancement of Bismarck's interests. He has invested his earnings in Bismarck and has shared the prosperity that is bound to result where sound business judgment and hard work are linked with opportunity.

Boston Captures World Series by Taking Last Game in Grand Finish

Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—After having two strikes called on him in the ninth inning, with one out, Hooper, the Red Sox right fielder, hit a grooved ball into the center field stand for a home run, and the score that gave the Boston Americans the world's championship of 1915.

The Phillies still were due a turn at bat when there was not a sole among the more than 20,000 crowded in the park who did not know the series was over and that the Boston Sox had won another championship of the world—four games to one. Philadelphia did not get a man to first in the ninth inning.

Was Fine Battle
This last game of the series was a battle, from the jump, with the issue ever in the balance. Twice it seemed that Philadelphia had a winning margin, but twice the Red Sox hammered their way to the front. Piling up three runs in the eighth and ninth inning they got the decision 5 to 4.

It was a batting bee in which the Phillies got an early start. Boston, however, soon found the ball and before the end of the game had placed three home runs in the center field stand. Hooper got two of the homers and Lewis the third. Luderus got the only home run for Philadelphia when in the fourth inning he sent a high one over the right field wall. This was the end of the scoring for the Phillies, for in the last five innings there was never a threat of Philadelphia talking.

Just Like Casey
The short fences of the Phillies' little park confidently looked forward to as benefit to the home players, proved in the end their undoing. Cravath, home runner monarch of the National League was expected to break up several games with smashers, but he got his long hits in Boston, where they were sheared for sensational outs and before the home crowd "Gravy" could only paw the air when the fans were frantic for a hit. He had an ideal chance today in the first when the bases were full and nobody out, but "Gravy" hit into a double play. His halo was decidedly lopsided at this time, but when fanned twice thereafter it was swept entirely away.

All through this series the Red Sox have been just good enough to win. They lost their first meeting with Alexander but thereafter were not to be denied. When the Philadelphia team fielded brilliantly, the Boston players showed with just that greater degree of radiance, which narrowly separates the winner from the loser.

Up to this time, the thousands of fans had been confident of victory. It was a cruel defense to the depths of despair for them when Lewis sent his homer into the stand and tied the score. This long hit made it possible for Hooper's homer to give the finish touch to the game and the series.

Foster Is Steady
George Foster, of Oklahoma, won his second game of the series. Smashed and hammered in the first and fourth, Foster was always fighting splendidly and was always a dangerous factor at the bat. He gave as game an exhibition of pitching as has ever been seen in any league.

The Phillies made nine hits off Foster for a total of thirteen bases. While the closing game of the series abounded in thrilling plays and kept the spectators on edge from the first to the final inning, it was a loosely played contest, in which the offensive strength of both teams overshadowed their defensive work.

Hooper the Hero
While Hooper was the hero of the game with his two home runs, the second in the ninth inning, breaking the tie and winning the championship, Lewis did deadly work with his bat during the series. In 13 times at bat, he made 8 hits. Foster, with four hits in 8 times at bat, secured a 500 average, while Luderus made 7 in 16 trips to the plate.

Speaker drove out 5 hits in 17 chances; Hoblitzel 5 in 16; Hooper 7 in 20; Bancroft 5, and Gardner 4 in 17 times at bat, and Paskert 3 in 19. Cravath, the home run king of the (Continued on page two.)

BIG INCREASE IN APPROPRIATION FOR DEFENSES

Four Hundred Millions Proposed As Initial Expenditure.

ARMY TO BE INCREASED OVER 120,000 MEN

Plans for Preparedness Are Still in Tentative Stage.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Four hundred million for national defense, an increase of $140,000,000 over last year, constitutes the amount which the president and his advisers at present estimate should be appropriated by the next congress for the army and navy.

As the date for completion of the annual estimates draws near, the president is giving preliminary consideration to the national defense question, out of which it is hoped to lay down a stronger naval program than the United States ever has authorized in its history and similarly a larger provision for the military establishment than has been customary in times of peace.

Details Not Revealed.
While the details have not been revealed, a substantial increase in the regular army probably from 87,000 to at least 120,000 men, and the creation of a reserve of perhaps 400,000 men, through short term enlistment service of citizens interested in military training, are said to be part of the plan.

As yet, the exact appropriation to be definitely recommended for the army and navy respectively has not been definitely fixed. Indications are that the army's budget of $100,000,000 last year will be increased by at least $50,000,000, while Secretary Daniels is figuring on obtaining $100,000,000 over the navy appropriation of $118,000,000 last year.

Prepared For Defense.
The president's determination to urge upon congress in his next message a navy program to cost about $400,000,000 has been emphasized in high official circles in the last few days, following Mr. Wilson's recent speech saying that the American people were not convinced that the nation should be prepared not for war, but for defense.

Chairman Hay, of the house military committee, will confer with the president tomorrow, and Monday Secretary Garrison is expected to return to Washington and begin a series of talks with the president on the defense program.

Mayor Bell Acquitted

Indianapolis, Oct. 13.—Mayor Joseph E. Bell, who has been on trial here for more than five weeks on the charge of election conspiracy, was acquitted by a jury this afternoon. Afterwards, Prosecutor Rucker said he had no disposition to make in regard to the disposition of the cases of more than 100 others, who were indicted with the mayor, who were indicted as Taggart, democratic national committeeman, and Samuel V. Perrott, chief of police.

CITED FOR CONTEMPT.
Chicago, Oct. 13.—At the request of State's Attorney Hoyle, Chief Justice Burke of the criminal court this afternoon issued a writ, requiring Albert Davis, district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Illinois, to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in trying to influence the action of the state grand jury.

BULGARIA IS TWELFTH NATION TO ENTER WAR

Formally Declared Hostilities Against Serbia Yesterday Status Now Fixed.

MOST POWERFUL OF BALKANS

In Time of War Can Put Three Hundred Thousand Men in Field.

London, Oct. 13.—Bulgaria has declared war on Serbia, says a Central News dispatch from Paris. The decision of Bulgaria, the twelfth nation to enter the war, to join the ranks of the belligerents on the side of Germany, Austria and Turkey, was reported only after a diplomatic duel waged for months between representatives of the Teutonic allies and the Quadruple Entente. Each side offered tempting inducements in an effort to gain another ally, but the Bulgarian government finally decided Germany and her friends had made the higher bid.

Bulgaria is rated as one of the most powerful of the Christian Balkan states. Her army, while considerably smaller than that of her neighbor, Roumania, is well drilled and equipped. Her military strength on a peace footing is only about 55,000 but in time of war she is able to put into the field something like 300,000 men.

Bulgaria Isolated.
Since the second Balkan war, in which Bulgaria fought Greece, Serbia and Montenegro, after the victory of all four nations against Turkey, Bulgaria has been isolated to a certain extent from the other Balkan states. The second war, which resulted from a dispute as to the division of territory won from Turkey, was not participated in by Roumania, which also kept out of the first Balkan conflict. Roumanian troops invaded Bulgaria, however, and forced the latter to make territorial concessions.

When peace was finally restored, Bulgaria was compelled to relinquish a large part of the territory she had gained in the first war. The ill-feeling thus engendered made it doubtful whether Bulgaria would consent to enter the present war on the side of Serbia and Montenegro. She steadfastly refused to abandon neutrality unless assured of territorial concessions which would enable her to realize her national aspirations. Chief of these was to regain those sections of Macedonia populated chiefly by Bulgars which now belong to Serbia and Greece. She also sought a section of Turkish territory.

The first important victory of German diplomacy was scored when Turkey was induced to cede Bulgaria territory along the line of the Dedegatch railway. In addition to this it had been reported that Bulgaria has been promised a regulation of the frontier north of Adrianople as far as the Black sea, whereby the district of Kirk Killissa would revert to her.

Macedonia the Prize.
She also is said to have been pledged efficient help in obtaining the whole of Macedonia, including the so-called disputed part of Usukob and the coast region along the Aegean sea to the Strumie, as well as part of Dobrudja.

Bulgaria ordered the mobilization of her army on September 21. On October 7 Bulgaria sent an ultimatum to Serbia, demanding that she break with the Central powers within 24 hours, but Russian demands were rejected and three days later diplomatic relations between Bulgaria and the powers arrayed with the Quadruple Entente were severed. The same day Bulgaria sent an ultimatum to Serbia regarding Macedonia, and on October 8 issued a manifesto announcing her decision to enter the war on the side of the Central powers. Bulgarian troops actually invaded Serbia about 24 hours before war was declared.

GREECE'S ATTITUDE.
"What will Greece do now?" is a question which is being asked on all sides here. Her treaty with Serbia expressly stipulates that if one of the contracting parties already engaged in war against a third power is attacked by Bulgaria as well, the allied general staffs of Greece and Serbia must consult with a view of immediate action.

GERMANS MAKE ANOTHER RAID OVER LONDON KILLING EIGHT; LITTLE CHANGE IN BALKANS

SERBIANS ALTHOUGH OUTNUMBERED ARE MAKING A VIGOROUS DEFENSE AGAINST AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES; BULGARIAN CAMPAIGN MOVES VERY SLOWLY.

Victory Reported for Slavs in Galicia on the Strippa River

London, Oct. 13.—Zeppelin airships have made another raid over London, dropping bombs. Eight persons are declared to have been killed and about 34 injured. The material damage done is said to have been small.

The Home Office shortly after midnight made the following report on the raid:

"A Zeppelin raid was made yesterday evening over a portion of the London area, when a certain number of incendiary explosive bombs were dropped.

"The material damage done was small. A few fires resulted, but they were quickly put out by the fire brigade. The admiralty will issue a statement today when particulars are available.

"At present it is only possible to say that no public buildings were injured, and that the casualties so far reported number two women and six men killed and about 34 injured. With the exception of a soldier killed, all these were civilians.

"These figures include all casualties reported at 11:45 Wednesday evening."

Carrington Chief Dead From Wound

Carl Nelson Passes in St. Paul Hospital as Result of Bullet Wound.

St. Paul, Oct. 13.—Carl Nelson, chief of police of Carrington, North Dakota, died today of a gunshot wound, received in a battle with four holdup men early Sunday morning at Carrington.

A special train brought Nelson to the hospital here from Carrington, following the fight and he was operated on as soon as he arrived.

Carrington Mourns
Carrington, N. D., Oct. 13.—All Carrington is in mourning today as a result of the death of Police Chief Nelson, who died at St. Paul this morning. He gave his life in the brave performance of his duty here last Sunday.

The chief was only 25 years old. He was married and had one child. That he was well liked in this community was plainly evidenced when the people of Carrington chartered a special train to rush him to a St. Paul hospital following the shooting affray.

The two bandits who got away during the gun fight with the posse are still at large, but the authorities of North Dakota, have joined in a statewide search to bring them to justice.

The theory has been advanced that the bandit who shot the chief was Frank Davis, the outlaw who was killed, although many are confident that it was the captured man, Leonard Swinger, or one of the other two desperadoes who escaped in a hail of lead.

It is pointed out that just as the chief fell after receiving the bullet, a shot was fired from one of the posse, killing Davis. Some believe that Davis was at the head of the bandits and consequently fired the shot that struck the chief, but others are of the opinion that his assailant fired and leaped to one side.

WIFE OF ABERDEEN BANKER PASSES
Aberdeen, S. D., Oct. 13.—Mrs. J. C. Bassett, wife of President Bassett, of the Aberdeen National Bank, and also a director in the Minneapolis Federal Bank, dropped dead suddenly in her home tonight, from an attack of heart failure.

CONDITION IMPROVED.
New York, Oct. 13.—Late tonight physicians said there was an improvement in the condition of George F. Stackpole, the river head lawyer, suffering from antrax. His temperature was 102, his pulse stronger, and his heart was responding to treatment given to offset the effect of poison in his system.

The Near East, the Austro-German and Bulgarian invasions in Serbia, the Anglo-French landing at Saloniki, the promised active intervention of Russia and the diplomatic possibilities in Greece and Roumania, continued to be the center of interest throughout the belligerent countries.

Put Up Sturdy Defense.
The Serbians, although greatly outnumbered by armies of superior equipment, are making a stubborn defense of their country and, while the Austro-German progress is steady, it is slow and probably will become slower still when the mountains which are strongly entrenched, are reached.

Of the Bulgarian campaign nothing new has been received since Nish reported the repulse of the invaders, while the movement of the Anglo-French and Russian forces have thus far been kept from the knowledge of the public.

The Russians have no easy task before them if they intend to land in Bulgaria. Bulgarian ports on the Black sea where a landing might be made have been strongly fortified in the direction of German soldiers and are protected by mine fields.

Disension in Bulgaria.
In the meantime the Allies are closely watching developments in the internal situation in the Bulgarian country, where so many of the people are adverse to fighting against the Allies, particularly Russia. It is reported from Paris tonight that General Savaoff, former Bulgarian minister of war and former commander-in-chief of the Bulgarian army, has resigned his command rather than fight against Russia. It is thought the landing of Russians in Bulgaria might result in a change in the policy of that country, even this late in the day.

Important Victory.
The Russians have won an important victory in Galicia, routing three German divisions on the Strippa river.

The activity of the British submarines in the Baltic continues and Germany is now conveying her steamers to and from Sweden.

French lines around Souchez and Vimy today. A violent bombardment preceded the infantry attack, which was renewed from time to time and desperately fought out. The Germans succeeded in penetrating some of the trenches, but, according to the French official statement received tonight, were repulsed everywhere with heavy losses.

ALMOST ANNIHILATED.
Paris, Oct. 13.—Private advices are to the effect that a Bulgarian division was almost annihilated in a fierce battle near Karaguyevatz, Serbia, says a dispatch to the Havas agency from Bucharest, dated Tuesday and delayed in transmission.

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT.
New Orleans, Oct. 13.—Revolution has broken out in Guatemala and fighting is in progress in the States of San Marcos, Huehuetenango and Peten, according to advices received here by the Guatemalan junta of the "revolutionary committee."

ATTACKS REAR GUARD.
El Paso, Texas, Oct. 13.—Official reports from Chihuahua received at Juarez relate that General Reyes, heading an expeditionary force of Villa troops, has attacked the rear guard of General Obregon and forced it back on Torreon. Fighting in the neighborhood of Tuluca was also reported.

DUMBA DID NOT LAND IN ENGLAND
Falmouth, October 13.—Dr. Constantin Dumba, the former Ambassador of Austria-Hungary to the United States, whose recall was requested by President Wilson, has arrived at this port, on board the steamer Nieuw Amsterdam. He did not come ashore.
