

OSTEOPATHY A BOON TO WOMEN

Osteopathy has brought aid to the physical weaknesses of women such as has yet been afforded by no other system.

Osteopathy cannot replace organs which have been removed by the knife of the surgeon, nor revive organs which have become completely diseased through abuse or neglect or poisoning.

But osteopathy can make the best possible use of whatever of the structures are left with any power of life lying within them; and the earlier the correction of the causes of disease begins, the more complete is the restoration to a healthy body.

If the truth were known concerning the numbers of unnecessary surgical operations, the unnecessary pain and suffering from cautery and knife, every man who holds mother, sister, wife or daughter in kindly affection would stand pale in helpless shame. If all the comfort, and freedom and strength which osteopathy has brought to womankind could be measured, then would every man with any kindly feeling for any woman devote his purse, his hands, and his almost endeavor to the up-building of that science.

Suffrage Meeting.

The Bismarck Suffrage association will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. H. Bodenstab at her home in Mandan avenue. A number of important matters will be discussed and members are asked to attend. The meeting will be called at 3 o'clock.

To Plan Reunion.

A meeting will be held Monday afternoon, at 2:30, in the Commercial Club rooms, to make arrangements for an "Old Settlers' Reunion," which will be held in the Commercial Club rooms Saturday evening, November 20. It is the plan of the committee in charge of the affair to perfect an organization to be known as "The Old Settlers' Association."

Dinner-Dance.

Ten couples, intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. L. Vesperman, tendered them a surprise during the week-end at their home in Avenue B. The surprise was in the form of a dinner-dance. Following the seven-course dinner dancing was enjoyed. Auction bridge also formed part of the amusement.

Date of Dance Changed.

Owing to another entertainment the night of Tuesday, November 23, the dance scheduled to be given that evening by the A. O. U. W. organization has been changed to the following evening. The committee on arrangements are making extensive plans for the dance, which will be one of the big affairs given by the organization this year.

Annual Church Supper.

The ladies of the Trinity Lutheran church have about completed arrangements for their annual benefit chicken dinner which they will serve in the church Thursday evening. A splendid menu has been arranged. The ladies of this church are noted for serving fine suppers and special preparations are being made for the supper Thursday evening.

For Son's Fiancee.

In honor of Miss Jessie Webb, fiancee of her son, S. W. Corwin, Mrs. M. H. Corwin entertained Friday evening at her home in Main street. The guests included thirty of the most intimate friends of the bride-elect. Six tables were in play for "Hearts" and music was also a feature. Miss Webb, whose marriage will be an event of the early winter, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webb and is very well known in social circles here.

Birthday Dinner.

In honor of the eleventh birthday anniversary of their son, Master Gordon C. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Harrison entertained yesterday afternoon at their home in Fourth street, at a charmingly appointed birthday dinner. A cluster of red carnations formed the centerpiece and the other appointments were carried out in a color scheme of red. The hours were from 2:30 o'clock to 5, and the guests included only five of Master Gordon's intimate friends. Covers were laid for Desmond Schutt, Paul Fenington, Robert Hanna, Tyler Klund, and Russel Call.

Another ideal week of threshing weather helps some.

Adam Berreth threshed 500 bushels of winter rye from 22 acres. He is convinced that this crop is the best adapted to sow on land at all tainted with alkali.

Wm. Hageman, the Linton lighting rod expert, is helping the farmers out this week.

Ducks are plentiful in the little lakes in this section and they seem to be in no hurry about emigrating and old timers predict a long fall in answer to their prayers.

The writer was given a drive to the county seat Sunday morning last behind Mr. Hageman's roadsters, staying over the day and night there. While our acquaintance is rather short to make suggestions to the citizens, if we dared make one it would be that street lights would add much to the attractiveness of their streets, especially on dark nights.

Thursday and Friday the candidates for pedagogical situations have an opportunity to air their knowledge of the Three R's, etc.

Miss Harmon and Mr. Miller In Thanksgiving Recital

MISS FLORA HARMON

convenes at the high school building in Linton for a week's session. Prof. Hally, the well-known educator, will be conductor. Supt. Briggs will have general supervision.

Nine farmers in this township have formed a company and have built and are operating a telephone line utilizing their wire fences where convenient for lines.

The people of this neighborhood would be very gratified if the powers that be would assist them in securing a rural delivery mail route. The arrival and departure of mail is as yet a matter of just as it happens.

Two Well Known Bismarck Artists Will Offer Interesting Recital Program.

The Thanksgiving recital to be given Thanksgiving night at the Grand theater by Flora Harmon, pianist, and W. L. Miller, tenor, is causing much comment about the city.

Miss Harmon, who has lived in Bismarck the greater part of her life, is very well known here by everyone, and her many appearances on programs both in Bismarck and vicinity will alone insure a large attendance. Mr. Miller, who has been in Bismarck only six months, although not as generally known as Miss Harmon, has gained popularity in this short time in musical circles, through his beautiful, well trained lyric tenor voice. Mr. Miller was not in Bismarck one week before he was secured for programs at different events, and has been tenor soloist at the Presbyterian church Sunday mornings since arriving in the city. Mr. Miller sings with great ease and artistic interpretation and the program he is selecting for the Thanksgiving recital will cover a wide range of songs, including dainty love songs, Thanksgiving songs and arias.

Miss Harmon, being so very well known in and about Bismarck, needs little introduction as to her work here. She is continually demanded on programs, because of her artistic playing, and pleasing manner of rendition.

Her work has not only been followed with great interest by local musical critics, but by great soloists and pianists who have appeared in Bismarck from time to time and have heard Miss Harmon play. A great future is in store for this talented young musician, and this recital, we hope, will not be her last appearance in recital here.

A number of persons from Wilton, Mandan, Steele and other nearby towns are arranging to attend the recital. Tickets are now on sale at Finney's, and Cowan's drug stores, the Tribune office and the Grand Pacific hotel. An admission fee of 50 cents will be charged.

The recital promises to be one of the most interesting musical events of the Thanksgiving season. Many of the most prominent women of Bismarck and Mandan will act as patronesses. The list follows:

- Mrs. L. B. Hanna, Mrs. C. J. Flisk, Mrs. C. B. Little, Mrs. I. P. Baker, Mrs. P. C. Remington, Mrs. F. S. Talcott, Mrs. E. G. Patterson, Mrs. P. E. Eyre, Mrs. C. L. Young, Mrs. F. A. Knowles, Mrs. V. J. LaRose, Mrs. W. E. Laub, Mrs. Mary Corwin, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. John Graham, Mrs. Walter Cushing, Mrs. Charles Wattam, of Bismarck; and Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Bingenheimer, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Sullivan, of Mandan.

Thanksgiving

ANNOUNCEMENT

Only nine more shopping days before Thanksgiving Day

Now, in making ready for this eventful day, let us begin with the dinner table. There will be many things to look after the last few days. So now, before all these things come at once, let us suggest that the linen be given the first consideration.

Our Table Linen department is extra well stocked at present and we are able to show you a large assortment of Table Damask with napkins to match; Table sets, consisting of table cloth and twelve napkins to match;

Lunch Clothes, Tray Clothes, and Luncheon Sets.

Prices of Table Linens have advanced at least one-third over former prices in the last few months. Owing to an early purchase we are still able to hold our stock at former prices.

After you have looked through your linens and find you need a number of pieces to fill your set, remember Ours is the same Pure Linen that it has had the reputation of being for the last thirty-one years.

Yours respectfully,

Abbott Bros
