Miss Lamb also favored with a piano solo. Mrs. Luehe was assisted in entertaining by Miss Lamb, Miss Andrew and Miss Peterson. Miss Still will go to Moorhead, Minn., to take a course of special study.

Johnson's for Ready-to-Wear.—Adv. 127 Emily St., Saginaw, Mich.—"Several months ago my face broke out with eczema. It got worse and worse. It was a sight, all red and bleeding. The eczema disfigured me for the time being. It caused much itching and of course I scratched my face and irritated it. "I took a treatment but it did not seem to help any. I used several kinds of salves and ointments and they did no good. My face began to get worse. My brother said to go to the drug store and get a cake of Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment which I did. I then washed my face with Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment and kept this treatment up for some time. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and the Cuticura Ointment my face was free from the eczema." (Signed) Ray L. O'Brien, June 18, '14. Sample Each Free by Mail With 32-p. Skin Book on request. LONDON SEES NEW STYLES IN PAJAMAS; ZEPPELIN SCARES ARE THE REASON

LONDON SEES MANY NEW STYLES IN NIGHTIES AND PAJAMAS NOW THAT THE ZEPPELIN ARE FREQUENT

The Zeppelin scares in London have produced new and interesting styles in slumber wear. Londoners, knowing that they may be called forth into the street at any time of night, are now going to bed properly prepared. Pajamas are having a greater vogue for both men and women, probably because the design of the garment permits a measure of modesty in rapid flight. The old-fashioned "nighty" has been almost altogether abandoned.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT

Save Your Hair! Make It Thick, Wavy Glossy and Beautiful at Once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—but really a new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance! An incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A 25-cent bottle will double the beauty of your hair.—Adv.

BAPTISTS PLAN GOSPEL SERVICE

Rev. E. A. Gilmore of Jamestown to Assist Rev. B. E. Jackson.

Beginning next Sunday, Nov. 21, the First Baptist church will hold a two-week series of Gospel services. The church has been making extensive preparation of these meetings through special services of prayer at the church and in the homes of the members. Rev. E. A. Gilmore, pastor of the First Baptist church of Jamestown, will be present and will preach at all the services after Wednesday, Nov. 24. Rev. Mr. Gilmore is a speaker of splendid ability and a pastor who has been exceedingly successful wherever he has worked. This past year he has led his people in Jamestown in the erection of a fine new modern church building. While not an evangelist in the professional sense, he has the truly evangelistic spirit and those who hear him during the next two weeks will be more than amply repaid for their attendance at the services. The pastor of the church, Rev. Bruce E. Jackson, will open the series of services with sermons Sunday morning and evening, Monday and Tuesday evenings. It is expected the Rev. Mr. Gilmore will be present for the service of Wednesday night. Music will be a feature of these services. Prof. J. E. Fuerbringer of St. Paul will be in charge of the music for the entire series. Prof. Fuerbringer is a musician of great ability and also possesses the rare gift of helping others to sing and to sing with expression. In the past few weeks he has been training a large chorus, which will render special musical numbers. There also will be other special musical attractions. Those who enjoy taking part in a rousing song service will have the opportunity every night. The church is very fortunate to have the services of Prof. Fuerbringer for this series of meetings. The aim of these meetings as stated by the pastor will be to present simply the beauty and power of the religion of Jesus Christ and the claims of God upon the human heart. There will be no use of clap-trap methods too often made use of by professional evangelists. Those who attend will not be placed at any time in an embarrassing position or over-urged to come to a decision. A number of cottage prayer services have already been held in preparation for these meetings. There will be a service every day this week, except Saturday. The services will be held at the following homes for the balance of this week: Today—N. J. Walper residence, 223 Fourth street. Wednesday—J. O. Varney residence, 408 Second street. Thursday—R. L. Best residence, 827 Fifth street. Friday—C. T. Staley residence, 705 Sixth street.

PRAYING TRIO CAUSED ALARM

Carrington, N. D., Nov. 15.—Three evangelists praying around a straw stack on a farm near here, were mistaken by farmers for bandits created a small sensation here yesterday. It was but a short time ago that bandits were encountered, taking the life of the Carrington chief of police. Farmers appealed to Sheriff Morgan who with deputies went to the straw stack, prepared to capture the characters. They found instead a trio of religious enthusiasts who had prayed a north gale with the temperature near zero to go into the country and pray for the salvation of Carrington. They were allowed to continue their prayer unmolested, the countryside being assured that no harm was plotted.

COMB SAGE TEA IN LIFELESS, GRAY HAIR

Look Young! Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with regular effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known down-town druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.—Adv.

MAKES BIG HIT IN MINNEAPOLIS

Seven Keys to Baldpate is Full of Fun Every Minute During Play.

The Minneapolis Daily News has this review of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," which appears at the Auditorium, tomorrow evening: Again the Metropolitan stage is occupied by that exceedingly clever stagecraftsman, Geo. M. Cohan, with his adaptation of Carl Derr Biggers' "Seven Keys to Baldpate." The cold summer inn on the top of a mountain becomes red hot on a winter's night as a professional writer of melodrama inhabits it for 24 hours. Mr. Cohan's special originality—if one may be allowed to give away the final ingenious joke of the mystery farce—is similar to the late "On Trial" in that the story being hustled out on a typewriter to win a bet within this 24 hours is also enacted in the deserted inn. Since it is melodrama the public want melodrama to the nth degree it shall have. So, after the old caretakers of the inn have the writer alone at his work, he is interrupted by six other possessors of keys to Baldpate. One is the right hand man of the traction magnate, sent with the $200,000 bribe for a franchise. Two more are a pretty newspaper reporter and charming widow, who are going to divert the money from its hiding in the safe to better uses. A ghostly hermit adds to the complication. There is, of course, the crooked mayor who is to sell the franchise and his double-crossing man "Friday" with his own pretty female blackmailer. With the passing of the money from one person to another, the entrance of the magnate himself, and the village chief of police, there is excitement galore. Revolvers threaten and shoot. Everybody incriminates everybody else as they sit in a long do-solite line for hours under the muzzle of a gun. A dash for liberty is made, the gun changes hands, and the tables are turned. Only when the money is thrown in the fire, and the owner of Baldpate appears, are the wigs and beards jerked off to disclose a theatrical company which has been hired to stage these interruptions to the story-writer.

This mighty clever burlesque on melodrama, which kept a great audience in constant roars of laughter last evening, centers about an excellent actor in Wm. Wagner. The caretaker and the hermit are especially good in Louis Egan and Jas. T. Ford, while
