

A NEW SHOW ROOM FILLED WITH NEW OVERLANDS

Our new offices and show rooms are finished—we're going to wash the windows this morning and if you will drop in we will be delighted to show you the new OVERLAND Models that have set all Motordom talking

MODEL 83-B (Previously $750.00) Now	$695.00 f. o. b. Factory	MODEL 84 (Willis-Knight Sleeve-Valve Motor)	$1095.00 f. o. b. Factory
MODEL 75 (The Newest Light Overland)	$615.00 f. o. b. Factory	MODEL 86 (The Biggest "Six" Value)	$1145.00 f. o. b. Factory

WE WOULD ALSO LIKE TO SHOW YOU SOMETHING BESIDE THESE NEW OVERLANDS—SOMETHING WE ARE JUST AS PROUD OF,—OUR BIG NEW PARTS ROOM IN WHICH WE WILL CARRY OVER $10,000 IN OVERLAND PARTS,—OUR SERVICE DEPARTMENT, LOCATED ON THE SECOND FLOOR, WITH ITS COMPLETE EQUIPMENT AND EXPERT WORKMEN (Where we dish out OVERLAND Service),—OUR NEW OFFICES WITH THE ADDITIONAL OFFICE FORCE (which means more prompt and better service in all departments),—OUR ACCESSORY DEPARTMENT, FULL OF STANDARD SUPPLIES AT REDUCED CASH PRICES,—ALL TO BETTER TAKE CARE OF OUR CUSTOMERS.

AND WHILE IN THE PAST WE HAVE ENDEAVORED TO GIVE GOOD SERVICE WE ARE NOW IN A POSITION TO GREATLY ECLIPSE OUR PAST EFFORTS.

AND WE ARE GOING TO CONTINUE OUR EFFORTS TO BETTER OUR SERVICE FOR

"Service Is Our Middle Name"

"Everything for the Automobile"

LAHR MOTOR SALES COMPANY

BISMARCK GLENDIVE

BRAUN THREATENED TO KILL HIS SON

Had Sent His Wife Away Son Testified in Court at Mandan Thursday. DEFENSE WOULD NOT LET WIFE TESTIFY Fate of Defendant Will Largely Depend Upon the testimony of Boy.

Mandan, Jan. 14.—Damaging testimony against John Braun, on trial in district court for attempted murder, was given late Thursday afternoon by his 14-year-old son, Nick, and while attorneys for the defense today attempted to pick flaws in his story, he reiterated all statements.

Nick Braun Witness. The jury in the action brought against the Richardson farmer by the Stark county authorities, was selected by 3:30 yesterday afternoon and examination of witnesses started. The prosecution called young Nick Braun to the stand.

The boy, frightened a little by the prominent position he had thrust on him, was sworn and when called upon to tell a straightforward story of the attempted on his life.

Sent Wife Away. Briefly he said that John Braun had sent his wife and Nick to New England to collect a note. This was on December 14, and they returned December 15, with a check in payment for the note. Braun became angry about this claiming the check no good. Mrs. Braun and the boy declared the check good said that if he doubted them he could go to Richardson and have it paid.

After this Nick and his brother, Frank, age 17 years, fed the horses and a short time afterward their mother came to the barn and talked with them.

Quarreled With Wife. In a short time John Braun came hurrying into the barn and started a quarrel with his wife and attempted to strike her. She ran around the horses and Frank Braun stepped between his mother and father holding the latter back saying, "You have abused mother long enough."

They released him and he got up and rushing to the house the witness testified, he saw something shining in his father's hand. He immediately believed it to be a gun, voiced his opinion to Frank and both started to run.

Witness then testified that Braun fired two shots after them, one of these bullets striking Nick in the hip. Daily Threatened to Kill. When questioned by the state's attorney as to whether or not the father had ever threatened to kill him or the family, he declared that this happened almost every day.

He asserted that the father frequently told them if they would not leave the place willingly he would kill them, as they were of no help to him.

About 6:30 o'clock the state turned the witness over to the defense for cross examination, but the boy stood by his first evidence and could in no way be shaken by the cross examination.

Permission Withheld. State's Attorney Burgess and Associate Attorney Burnett this morning attempted to place Mrs. Braun on the stand as a witness following the conclusion of the cross-examination of Nick Braun.

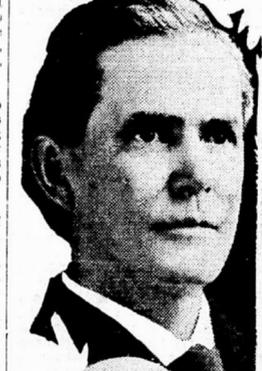

The defense objected on the ground that a wife cannot testify against her husband without the latter's permission. This Braun refused to give and the prosecution was denied use of the witness.

Other witnesses have been called during the day, but the whole story of the alleged shooting hinges on young Nick's testimony.

IS VICTIM OF STRANGE ACCIDENT. Wyndmore, N. D., Jan. 14.—A terrible accident befell Frank Chilson while at work on the John Gessel farm just north of town. In taking the endgate off a wagon he threw the rod to the ground where it stuck in the snow remaining in an upright position, and then jumped over the box backward directly over the rod.

It entered the pelvis about eight inches, piercing the intestines. He displayed remarkable grit in extracting the rod, and then catching a ride

TO ASK CONGRESS FOR LOT OF MONEY

Frank Clark (top) and Stephen Sparkman.

Chairman Frank Clark says the public buildings committee of the lower house is planning to bring out a bill asking for a large appropriation, and Chairman Sparkman of the rivers and harbors committee is apparently determined to make an attempt to put through a rivers and harbors bill without having it reduced by one-half, as were the last two measures.

to town for medical attendance. The victim has been lying at point of death since that time and word from the attending physician, Dr. Wilder, is to the effect that his life hangs on a thread. He was practically at the time, the only other person on the farm being one of the Gessel children. At the time of going to press his condition had not improved.

EDITH PENNO WON IN PORK PRODUCTION

Sister Was Third in the Same Contest and Both are Delighted With Result.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 14.—While North Dakota boys were engaged in raising record yields of corn in the boys' acre yield contest, last season, both boys and girls were busy growing litters of pigs in the big annual pork production contest and it took a girl, Edith Penno of Grafton, 14 years old, to carry off the first prize of $100, given by the department of agricultural extension of the Agricultural college, and a registered Yorkshire sow, given by Thomas Canfield of Lake Park, Minn.

The results of the 1915 pork production contest have just been announced by the extension department of the college. There were 24 premiums offered by the department in the contest, and of this number 11 were carried off by girls—another evidence of the interest that the young women of the state are taking in farming.

Three Girls Among First Five. Of the five highest premiums offered in the contest three were taken by girls. The second prize was taken by Kenneth Wood of Arvilla, the third by Martha Penno, sister of the winner of the first premium; the fourth was taken by Mildred Pierce of Ellendale, while her brother, Milton Pierce, took fifth place in the contest.

This is the third annual pork production contest in the state and was instituted to demonstrate the possibilities of this enterprise under North Dakota conditions. The contest was open to boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 18 years.

Winner's Success Unusual. The work of Edith Penno will be of especial interest, as her success was phenomenal. She won the first place in the contest with a litter of 12 Yorkshire pigs, which, at an age of 195 days weighed a total of 2,593 pounds, an average of 215 pounds each. The total value of these pigs was $155.58, at the fixed price of 6 cents, which was used as the basis of computing the value of the litters of all the contestants. In bringing these 12 pigs to the weight of 2,593 pounds she used $50.90 worth of feed. The detailed record shows that the litter made an average daily gain of 13 1/2 pounds, the average daily return, above the cost of feed being 54 1/4 cents.

Edith Penno won third place in the 1914 contest, in which one of the premiums she won was a pure-bred Yorkshire boar.

Kenneth Wood, who took second place in the contest, won with a litter of 13 Berkshires.

This is the second year that a girl has captured the first place in the contest, the 1914 contest being won by Anna Barrett of Larimore. Chas. Russell of Bottineau took first place in the 1913 contest.

SOLVES MASHER PROBLEM.

Grand Forks, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Pearl Blough, the Grand Forks police matron, practices a successful scheme for handling would-be "mashers." When a local telephone operator reported a letter she had received from a romantic stranger who had attempted to make a date with her, Mrs. Blough answered the date, fixing the meeting place. When the masher appeared, Mrs. Blough suggested a walk. They hadn't walked far, however, before a patrolman appeared, arresting them. At the police station both were roundly scolded. When left alone for a moment the masher told Mrs. Blough to "sit tight," for all the police wanted was a "piece of coin." Then the police matron flashed her star, and the young man was given another roasting.

Buckwheat Cakes

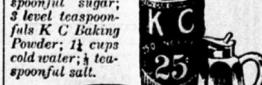

Rained without Yeast. When they are just right, the old-fashioned yeast-raised buckwheat cakes are just fine. But it takes a skillful hand to get them "just right" and many housewives do not want to be bothered with a bowl of batter standing around all the time. Made after this recipe, buckwheat cakes are as good as any you ever ate and much superior to those made with self-raising flour.

Made with K C double raise baking powder, the last of the batter will make just as light cakes as the first.

K. C. Buckwheat Cakes

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

1 cup buckwheat flour; 1 tablespoonful sugar; 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/4 cups cold water; 1 teaspoonful salt.

Sift together, three times, the flour, sugar, salt and baking powder; stir the water in all at once and bake on a hot, well oiled griddle. Buckwheat flour calls for a generous measure of baking powder. Part milk may be used to mix the cakes but water gives suite as good results.

A delicious "spread" for griddle cakes is made by creaming together about twice as much honey (either comb or strained) as butter. Work it up with a fork to about the consistency of hard sauce.

Readers of this paper may obtain "The Cook's Book" containing this and 89 other delicious recipes free by sending the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the James Mfg. Co., Chicago. Send for "The Cook's Book" today.

A. M. KNIGHT WAS ARRESTED IN R. I.

Wanted in Fargo and Louisville on Charges Alleging Embezzlement. ALSO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGES

Has Been Sought and Found and Lost Again. Now in Toils Once More.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 14.—Arthur M. Knight, a former broker of Fargo, N. D., who is alleged to have embezzled $525.72 from Dakota Tribe No. 1 of the Redmen in Fargo, deserted his wife, formerly Miss Daisy K. Collis, and came to Louisville, where for years he lived under the name of Fred G. Thomas, was arrested last night at Providence, R. I., just one year from the day when he was first taken into custody here.

Admits Identity. Knight admitted his identity and will come here, waiving extradition. Louisville detectives, who trailed him all over the country, after he had jumped $1,000 bond here, have been sent for him. He will be tried here, first, on charges of jumping his bond and embezzling $300 belonging to the insurance company for whom he worked.

Jumped Bail. Knight, after being arrested here on charges of embezzlement and bigamy preferred by North Dakota officials, jumped his bond. Sheriff J. Ross and States Attorney A. W. Fowler of Fargo were at that time patiently awaiting their man, whom they hoped to take back with them.

He secured a low bond when church people went to Police Judge Boldrich and Governor McCreary and told them how pious "Thomas" was and how he was a victim of mistaken identity. When he jumped his bond he left behind him here another wife, whom he married in Asheville, N. C., two years ago, and who was in ill-health when he was arrested.

Made Long Tour. Louisville detectives traced Knight from here to Horse Cave, Ky., Omaha, Neb., Asheville, N. C., New York City, Galveston, Texas, and then to Providence, where officers recognized him from his photograph.

He broke down and confessed at police headquarters. It was just one year ago yesterday that the first news of the arrest of A. M. Knight at Louisville, Ky., reached North Dakota. Knight absconded from Fargo in May, 1912, and from that date until a year ago yesterday his whereabouts were a complete mystery.

Arrested at Louisville. Knight was arrested in Louisville by detectives who had been put on his trail by Sheriff Ross and States Attorney Fowler of Fargo. During the short time he was in Louisville he wormed his way into the confidences of the people there and when he was arrested they would not believe he was guilty. He had joined a Methodist church and was the teacher of one of the most successful Sunday school classes in Louisville. In less than a year the attendance of his class increased from 50 to 250 under his leadership.

On January 14, the story of his arrest was reported. On January 16 Sheriff Ross left for the southern city to identify him. When he got there he found that it was his word against that of Knight and the people who knew Knight were inclined to put his word before that of the sheriff, and on January 18 States Attorney Fowler and Henry Kusch left for Louisville to corroborate the word of Sheriff Ross.

Would Fight Extradition. On January 19 it was announced that Knight would fight extradition. Despite the pleadings of Sheriff Ross, the Kentucky judge placed Knight's bond at $1,000 and the absconder was given his liberty. His hearing was set for January 20.

But Knight did not have a hearing on January 20. On that date he was gone once more, having made a clean getaway, and with him went $300 which he was "short" with the insurance company for which he was working in Louisville.

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS. Jamestown, Jan. 14.—The annual meeting of the Jamestown Commercial club was held last evening in the Elks' hall with a good attendance. The following officers were elected —most of them re-elected—for the ensuing year: President, H. C. Flint; vice-president, Geo. W. Kurtz; secretary, Andrew Haas; treasurer, C. R. Hodge; member-at-large, Dr. Gerrish; national councilman, J. J. Nerling. Besides the election, the annual reports of officers were had and in addition an address by John J. Ryan of St. Paul, national secretary of the Retail Grocers' association. The meeting was followed by a supper.

MENAGE EDITORS ARE NOT GUILTY

Of Sending Obscene Literature Through the United States Mail.

Flash, Joplin, Mo., Jan. 14.—At 4:45 o'clock Friday afternoon the jury in the case of the United States vs. four publishers of the anti-Catholic newspaper The Menace, were acquitted on the charge of sending obscene matter through the mail.

Ambitious Bismarck Women never let a morning pass without a careful reading of THE TRIBUNE. They know they can't afford to.

Dealers Handling

El Laudo and Imperial Club Cigars

Bismarck— "Billie" Wise Fifth Street Stationery R. Boletino Wallace Bros. Capitol Bowling Alleys Dad's Lunch Cowan's Drug Store H. W. Richholt Dakotah Hotel—Wilton W. I. Hubbard—Tuttle Grand Hotel—Tuttle Nobels and Sorrenson—Underwood Wilsey Hotel—Wing

THE BIRTH OF A NATION

AUDITORIUM
This Afternoon and Night

SHOW STARTS
Matinee 2:15
Night 8:00

PRICES—Matinee and Night:
Boxes $2.00
Orchestra 1.50
First two rows, balcony 1.50
Balance 1.00
Gallery50

Buckwheat Cakes
Rained without Yeast

When they are just right, the old-fashioned yeast-raised buckwheat cakes are just fine. But it takes a skillful hand to get them "just right" and many housewives do not want to be bothered with a bowl of batter standing around all the time. Made after this recipe, buckwheat cakes are as good as any you ever ate and much superior to those made with self-raising flour.

Made with K C double raise baking powder, the last of the batter will make just as light cakes as the first.

K. C. Buckwheat Cakes
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

1 cup buckwheat flour; 1 tablespoonful sugar; 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/4 cups cold water; 1 teaspoonful salt.

Sift together, three times, the flour, sugar, salt and baking powder; stir the water in all at once and bake on a hot, well oiled griddle. Buckwheat flour calls for a generous measure of baking powder. Part milk may be used to mix the cakes but water gives suite as good results.

A delicious "spread" for griddle cakes is made by creaming together about twice as much honey (either comb or strained) as butter. Work it up with a fork to about the consistency of hard sauce.

Readers of this paper may obtain "The Cook's Book" containing this and 89 other delicious recipes free by sending the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the James Mfg. Co., Chicago. Send for "The Cook's Book" today.

New Spring Hosiery

Our Great

New Spring Underwear

January Sale

Now in Full Swing

New Wash CREPE KIMONAS Of All Kinds

Johnson's
POPULAR PRICED STORE

New SPRING SUITS Of All Kinds