From Year to Year.

Let me but live my life from year to year
With forward face and unreluctant soul
Not hastening to nor turning from the goal;
Not mourning for the things that disappear
In the dim past, nor held back in fear
From what the future veils, but with a whole
And happy heart that pays its toll
To youth and age and travels on with cheer.
So let the way wind up the hill and down,
Though rough or smooth, the journey will be joy;
Still seeking what I sought but when a boy,
New friendships, high adventure, and a crown,
I shall grow old, but never lose life's zest,
Because the road's last turn will be the best.
Henry Van Dyke.

Lady Baltimore Cake

The Most Popular Cake This Season
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

This is considered by many cooking authorities the finest cake that can be made, though in reality it is not at all difficult.

K C Lady Baltimore Cake

One cup butter; 2 cups granulated sugar; 1 cup milk; 1 teaspoonful rose water; 3/4 cup flour; 3 level teaspoonsfuls K C Baking Powder; whites of 6 eggs, beaten dry.

Cream the butter and beat in the sugar gradually. Sift together, three times, the flour and baking powder, and add to the butter and sugar, alternately with the milk and rose water. Lastly, add the egg whites. Bake in three-layer cake pans. Put the layers together with the following frosting.

NOTE—The cake is a large one and sells at Women's Exchanges for $1.20.

Frosting for Lady Baltimore Cake

Three cups granulated sugar; 1 cup boiling water; whites of 3 eggs; 1 cup chopped raisins; 1 cup chopped nut-meats; 5 figs cut in thin slices.

Sift the sugar and water until the sugar is dissolved, then let boil without stirring until the syrup from a spoon will spin a long thread; pour over the whites of the eggs, beaten dry, beating constantly meanwhile. Continue the beating until the frosting is cold; add the fruit and spread upon the cake.

The K C Cook's Book contains ninety just such delicious recipes—bread, muffins, cakes and pastry. You can secure a copy free by sending the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the Jacobs Mfg. Co., Chicago. Small cans do not contain Cook's book certificates.

Burbage-Fitzgerald
Nuptials Solemnized
Wednesday Morning

The marriage of Miss Clara Louise Burbage, daughter of John Burbage of Main street, city, and Robert James Fitzgerald of Garrison, was solemnized Wednesday morning in St. Mary's cathedral. Rev. Father Hiltner read the service at 6 o'clock. The bride wore a traveling gown of blue with hat to match. She was attended by Miss Catherine Fitzgerald of Garrison, sister of the groom, and Fred Burbage, brother of the bride, was best man. A wedding breakfast supplemented the church service at the St. Mary's convent. Mr. Fitzgerald and his bride departed yesterday morning over the north Soo line for points north. They will be at home to their friends in Garrison after March 15.

Dime Social Today.

Burke and a number of assistants. A cordial invitation is extended by the society to the stranger attending the church to attend.

Ladies' Aid Meeting.

An interesting event in church circles is the joint meeting of the four districts of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church which will be held this afternoon in the church parlors. An interesting program has been arranged and arrangements will be made at this time for the serving of a banquet to the congregation the following week.

A Musical Event.

The next number on the Lyceum course will be the Kuehn Concert company. The management of the course announces this a star number. The members of the company are musicians of international reputation. There is nothing amateurish about their performances. Mr. Kuehn, the manager, was for a long time a first violinist in the Theo. Thomas orchestra. His education was completed in his native Germany. He is a superb violinist. After the violin, (some would say before) the greatest musical instrument is the violoncello. Nicolai Zedeler is the cellist, formerly with the Metropolitan Grand Opera. He fairly makes his instrument sing. The third member of this remarkable trio is Hazel Folsom-Daggey, coloratura soprano. There is no sweeter voice on the American platform today. Lyric and tragic with depth of purest and most sympathetic emotion she plays upon the heart as Welsh A. Thomas played upon the harp. So writes Opie Reade, one of her many enthusiastic admirers. The accompanist is Mrs. Kuehn, a very brilliant musician.

Don't forget the basket social tonight in the Commercial club hall.

Washington City Notes.

Washington correspondence in the Minneapolis Journal: The Congressional club on Friday afternoon entertained for Mrs. Thomas Marshall, Mrs. Robert Lansing and Mrs. William Hamilton Bayly. Mrs. Allee Pomerene, wife of Congressman Pomerene of Ohio, had charge of the arrangements for the reception and was assisted by Mrs. Asie J. Gronna of Lakota, N. D., wife of Senator Gronna; Mrs. Royal C. Johnson of Aberdeen, S. D., wife of Congressman Johnson; Mrs. Albor Cummins, Mrs. J. P. Glynn, Mrs. E. J. King, Mrs. J. A. Logan and Miss Frances Lippitt, daughter of Senator Lippitt of Connecticut.

Pink carnations and roses formed the centerpiece on the tea table. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Asie J. Gronna was "at home" to her many friends in the congressional set at her residence, 2219 California street. During the afternoon hours Mrs. Thomas Marshall, as well as many other women prominent in official Washington, called. Pink and white roses formed the decoration and those assisting Mrs. Gronna were: Her daughter, Miss Amy Gronna,

AN INNOVATION IN BATHING HOSIERY

Miss Rosamond Lancaster and her bandage stockings.

Every fair bather at Palm Beach seems to have an original creation in stockings. The attractive striped stockings worn by Miss Rosamond Lancaster of Boston, Mass., are among the most attractive seen. With the stockings she wore, when this plate was made, a very charming bathing dress of blue. The collar and cuffs were trimmed with white flannel.

D., daughter of Senator McComber and one of the most popular girls in the younger set of social Washington, together with Miss Helen Blodgett, Miss Mary Cleaves Daniels and Miss Evelyn Jackson, were in a party which went to Annapolis Friday morning to attend the Midshipman's ball. ### LIFE'S MORNING.

As we journey o'er the pathway
In life's morning bright and fair,
While of pleasures we are dreaming
In the balmy summer air.

When the heart is quite contented
Just to live from day to day,
And to pluck the fairest flowers
That are blooming by the way;

Just to listen to the song bird
As he sings his evening lay,
Or to wander by the brook-side
Where the bubbling waters play;

Just to revel in earth's beauties
As we gaily pass along,
Weaving dreams in love's bright morning
Of a home of joy and song.

And to watch the radiant sunset
Going down in yonder skies,
Or the midnight's starry splendor
Where the moon in beauty lies.

When the world seems hushed in slumber,
Flitting shadows come and go,
'Tis perhaps the guarding angels
E'er passing to and fro.

Oh, the Master Hand, who painted
All the changing scenes we view,
Left a task for us to finish
As our journey we pursue.

Shall we then sit idly dreaming?
There's so much we all may do,
While the hours are swiftly fleeting,
Lo, the Master calls for you.

—MRS. J. R. HUGHES.
