WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Eight hundred high school girls in Baltimore have taken a pledge never again to wear feathers in their hats.

Mrs. John H. Ash of Oliver, Ga., has a collection of stuffed birds which, it is claimed, is not equaled in the United States.

Miss Nora Norton has the distinction of being the only woman frame maker in the country who has taught herself the business and converts her own moldings into frames.

Women are in a majority in nine occupations—musicians or teachers of music, school teachers, boarding-house keepers, housekeepers, laundresses, nurses, servants, stenographers, and typists.

Alexandra Kollontay, the Russian authority on feminism, is of the opinion that motherhood is not only a private privilege, but a social duty, which the state should insure, and the time will come, she thinks, when it will be regarded so in all civilized countries.

RESOLUTIONS COMMEND WORK OF DR. HARRIS

The following resolutions of regret at the departure of Dr. C. W. Harris, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Harris were adopted by a members' committee at a recent meeting:

Whereas: At the earnest request of Rev. Chas. W. Harris, D. D., the pastoral relations existing with the First Presbyterian Church of Bismarck, N. D., have been dissolved, that he might accept a call to the First Presbyterian Church of Eze-man, Mont., and

Whereas: Dr. Harris has, for more than ten years past, faithfully and acceptably served as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Bismarck, N. D.; meeting every test of efficiency, as a virile preacher of the Word and loyal ambassador of Christ; ministering to his people in their joys and in their sorrows, proving himself a true shepherd of his flock; endearing himself, as a wise counselor and faithful friend, to the members of his own congregation, and, regardless of denominational lines, to a large portion of the community;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Bismarck face the resignation and removal of Dr. Harris to a new field of usefulness, with great reluctance and deep sorrow; that we wish to record our heartfelt appreciation of his splendid work in this church during the past decade; for his untiring efforts in our city to further good citizenship and the cause of Jesus Christ; that we rejoice in the high standard of Christian living, ever exemplified through his personal life and influence, which shall continue as an inspiration to members of Bismarck presbytery and the Synod of North Dakota, as well as "a sweet savor" to a blessed memory, held by former parishioners.

Furthermore, We send greetings to the Session of the First Presbyterian Church of Bozeman, Mont., and especially commend Dr. and Mrs. Harris to the Christian love and fellowship of the members and congregation of that Church and ask that they be extended every confidence and love, which they so richly deserve.

AGAIN, We wish Dr. Harris and his estimable wife and coadjutor a hearty Godspeed, praying that they may ever be Divinely directed, sustained and blessed in their future labors; That these resolutions be spread on the records of this Session; a copy be sent to Dr. Harris; also, one to the Session of the First Church of Bozeman; and that they be published in the Bismarck Daily Tribune.

G. J. JOHNSON,
WM. F. JONES,
N. J. FUCH,
Committee.

Praises Miss Sharlow

Mrs. Bradley C. Marks of Fourth street is in receipt of a communication from R. L. Best of Boston, Mass., stating that his nephew and wife, Attorney and Mrs. W. H. Best, attended the grand opera production in Boston, when Myrna Sharlow substituted for Melba and said that her work was exceptional. Miss Sharlow appears in concert in the capital city Friday evening at the Auditorium.

GRANDMOTHER'S MEDICINES.

Our grandmothers were wise in the virtues of the herbs of the field. They used to gather and store roots and herbs and use them to cure the ailments of their families—wormwood, thoroughwort, sage, rue, camomile—the list might go on and on of the healing plants with which they made us familiar. Now their granddaughters get the extracts from just such good old roots and herbs, from the nearest druggist, ready prepared for use. One such medicine, which women find best for their own ailments, is the well known Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"TWELVE GOLDEN RULES" FOR GIRLS

COOK WITH GAS It is Better and Cheaper

Beef Roll, K C Style

Three cups flour, 1 teaspoonful salt, 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 egg well beaten, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup cold water, 1/2 cup onion, 1/2 cup mustard, 2 beaten eggs, 1/2 cup onion, 1/2 cup salt and pepper, 1/2 cup water.

Make a biscuit dough of the flour, salt, K C baking powder, shortening and milk, and roll into a sheet half an inch thick, having the ends even. Mix the other ingredients by themselves, using liquid as needed to make a paste. Spread the paste over the dough and roll like a jelly roll. Bake in a buttered pan about forty minutes. Brush over the outside with a little beaten egg left for the purpose and return to the oven to brown. Serve hot with a rich brown sauce. Other meats, such as chicken or veal, alone, or in combination, may be used. The onion and mustard may be omitted.

Ninety recipes—just think of it—by the famous cooking authority, Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, sent free upon receipt of the colored certificate packed in 25-cent cans of K C Baking Powder. Send for the handsome Cook's Book today to the JAMES MUIR CO., Chicago.
