

BRIEF NOTES EXCHANGED

Two Conventions Exchange Letters to Arrange Peace Conference.

Chicago, June 8.—The letter written by Secretary O. K. Davis of the Progressive convention to Chairman Warren G. Harding of the Republican convention, submitting the peace conference resolutions, was as follows:

"By direction of the Progressive national convention, I transmit for a consideration of the Republican national convention duly adopted by the Progressive national convention at its afternoon session, June 8, 1916.

The resolution reads:

"In the spirit of the statements approved at the meeting of its national committee held on January 11 last, the national convention of the Progressive party invites and requests the national convention of the Republican party to appoint a committee of conference to meet and confer with a similar committee from this body."

Chairman Harding replied:

"Upon receipt of your communication of today, conveying the resolution passed by the Progressive national convention, I read the same to the Republican national convention, and beg to reply that the convention directed me to appoint a committee of five to confer with the committee of five appointed by the Progressive national convention.

"That committee consists of Senator Smoot, ex-senator Crane of Massachusetts; Senator Borah, of Idaho; Nicholas Butler, of New York, and ex-Congressman A. R. Johnson, of Ohio, who will be pleased to meet with the members of your committee."

MOOSERS DETERMINED TO HAVE ROOSEVELT

The immediate nomination of Colonel Roosevelt.

In the words of Chairman Robbins, "Tomorrow probably will be a big day."

Only by the many promises to place no obstruction in the way of the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt were the delegates content to adjourn and await the results from the conference committee. The convention spent about four hours in session with a perfunctory night gathering, which resulted mostly in singing and cheering. During the day, the temporary organization was made permanent and the platform of the resolutions committee was received, read, and made the unfinished business.

REPUBLICANS SIDE STEP ON SUFFRAGE ISSUE

of absentees had been called and seven committeemen were hastening to the committee room that the favorable action might be reconsidered.

Were Bombarded.

Friends of suffrage on the committee were bombarded with entreaties to stand firm, as one after another the absentees took their places. There were repeated parleys, a recess for luncheon, and finally reconsideration was agreed to, and it emerged as the last plank of the Republican convention, with the principle of woman's suffrage unconditionally favored, but with the modification that "the party recognizes the right of each state to settle the question for itself."

The final vote in the committee on the declaration agreed upon was 35 for and 11 against.

After the Battle.

More than a wagon load of umbrellas, hair pins, ribbons of all shades and lengths, remnants of sashes bearing "votes for women" were picked up today along Michigan boulevard and other streets paraded on yesterday.

DEATH FOLLOWS "COME ON KID"

Wichita, Kan., June 8.—A highwayman held up a party of 12 sight-seers in the oil fields west of Wichita, shot to death Miss Ellen Miller, and dangerously wounded Dorothy Snyder. Miss Miller thought the bandits joking, and shouted:

"Come on kid," and she walked toward him. With his gun pressed against her breast, he fired, the bullet entering her heart. Miss Snyder came up to the party as the robber was leaving. He backed into her and turning shot her in the hip.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR BURDICK BOOSTERS

Williston, N. D., June 8.—A great demonstration for Usher L. Burdick, more than twice as big and enthusiastic as closed the primary campaign for him two years ago, will wind up the contest the third week in June, when a special train, carrying Burdick boosters from this section leaves June 19, on a swing around the state, touring the Great Northern main line to Grand Forks, thence to Fargo and thence on the Northern Pacific to Beach, and return the same route, consuming the entire week.

Burdick supporters who desire to make the trip will be picked up all along the line, each man providing

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW AND WIFE SNAPPED IN CONVENTION CROWD

The former New York senator and Mrs. Depew are in Chicago for the republican convention. The senator is a prominent figure in the committee-rooms and his advice is eagerly sought by the political steers.

Two Platforms Compared

Republican

Chicago, June 8.—The Republican platform, with its principal platform devoted to an exposition of Americanism, preparedness, and protection, was laid before the convention today. It was received with enthusiasm and adopted.

Some of the planks:

Military and industrial preparedness demanded.

Navy large enough to protect the Americans everywhere.

Army sufficiently large to protect country's borders and form a strong nucleus for national defense in case of war.

Universal military service favored. State militias to be encouraged.

"One flag and one faith in America."

Administration policy toward Mexico declared "weak and wobbling."

Tariff duties sufficient to equalize wages at home and abroad urged.

Underwood tariff denounced and its repeal demanded.

Compensation to mail carrying ships to be requisitioned in case of war, but no government ownership of vessels.

Literacy test for all immigrants.

Honest neutrality between warring nations of Europe.

Child labor and other social justice planks included but not included, referendum and recall.

Progressive

Chicago, June 8.—On Preparedness, the Progressive platform is as positive as the republican. Full suffrage for women is approved. The platform affirms declaration of faith adopted in 1912. Some of the planks are:

Adequate provision for common defense as the foremost national concern.

Navy more second in battle efficiency.

Regular army of 250,000 men as the first line of land defense.

Military training adequate to organize promptly a citizen soldiery controlled by the national government.

Full suffrage for women.

Reaffirms declarations of 1912 platform.

Conservation and development of national resources.

Protective system essential to prosperity.

Permanent expert tariff commission proposed.

Deep loyalty and undivided allegiance to America.

Performances of principles enunciated.

Pledge to work "with any man or party who sees a nation's need and puts forth a leader fit to meet it."

his own transportation. An immense delegation from Williston alone, more than guarantees the success of the undertaking.

Stops will be made at every station on the main line of the two railways and short speeches made from the rear platform of the observation car by Burdick and other prominent progressive republicans of the state.

The final boom for Burdick is looked upon as the biggest undertaking of the kind ever attempted in North Dakota politics, since the days when such an undertaking was "put over" by the wholesale use of passes. A schedule of the trip will be issued in a short time, making it possible for local points to arrange for gatherings to greet the special, which promises to prove the liveliest affair of the campaign, shooting the last great gun for the Williston progressive in his fight for the republican nomination for governor of North Dakota.

U. C. T. DELEGATES GATHER AT MINOT

Minot, N. D., June 8.—About 100 delegates gathered at the Sons of Norway hall today at the opening of the convention of the Grand Council U. C. T. of Minnesota and North Dakota.

A report was read by Secretary J. W. Dresser of Minneapolis, showing the association to be in splendid condition. The committee on credentials seated all the delegates. The business session was being conducted this afternoon and also tonight. A jollification reception will be held in the theatre tonight.

PROGRESSIVES AND REPUBLICANS IN ALL NIGHT CONFERENCE

a national dry plank in the platform and the latter to secure a declaration for federal constitutional amendment giving to woman the ballot. Some of the suffrage advocates were not satisfied with the committee's suffrage declaration, which endorsed equal political privilege without referring to federal action.

Republican convention today accepted the invitation of the Progressives to unite for harmony. Proposals to that end adopted first in the Progressive convention were received in the Republican convention and with a few scattering "noes," and virtually no demonstration.

Senator Reed Smoot, Utah, Senator William E. Borah, Idaho; former Senator W. Murray Crane, Massachusetts; Nicholas Murray Butler, a New York delegate, and former Representative A. R. Johnson of Ironton, Ohio, were appointed as the Republican conference committee. They began arrangements for meeting Progressives.

The completion of the committee was generally regarded as one that would not accept Colonel Roosevelt for the presidential nomination, but on the other hand would not insist upon an agreement on Justice Hughes.

Uncertainty of Report.

The whole effect of the development was to throw the Republican nomination to the uncertainty of a conference committee report. Other principal developments in the Republican convention were the adoption of the platform as reported by the resolution committee, headed by Senator Lodge. A demonstration for Colonel Roosevelt ensued when his name was mentioned for the first time in the convention. With the perfection of permanent organization, adjournment until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning was effected.

Mentions Roosevelt.

Senator Lodge mentioned Colonel Roosevelt's name in reading the Phil ippine plank, which declares the policy inaugurated by McKinley and continued by Roosevelt. The demonstration that followed was principally in the gallery, although it was joined by some of the delegates on the floor.

Senator Lodge, well identified as a personal friend of the colonel, smiled and waited and it subsided in less than a minute.

Outstanding Incidents.

Outstanding incidents of the day came with Senator Lodge's announcement of the woman suffrage plank. The Republican party, reaffirming its faith in government of the people, by the people, and for the people, as a measure of justice to half of the adult people of this country, favors the extension of suffrage to women, read the senator, and there he paused while the suffragists began their demonstration. "But," continued Senator Lodge when the noise subsided, "it stands for each state to ballot this question for itself. There were roars of laughter at the phrase that suffragists had celebrated as a clear victory."

To Rush Matters.

Chairman Harding of the Republican convention said tonight that unless he is overruled, he will ask the convention to go straight through with the nominating speeches as soon as the convention convenes tomorrow morning and that all seconding speeches be made after nominating addresses have been concluded, and then only by arrangement with the chairman. About the only thing that can interfere with this program, he said, would be a report from the peace conference committee. According to present plans, there will be no time limit placed on nominating speeches. Seconding speeches will be limited to five minutes each.

Platforms Harmonize.

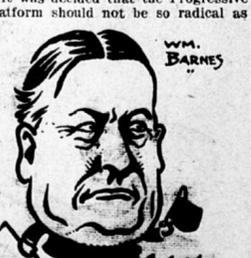

Even though the Republican and Progressive parties reach a deadlock on the presidential nominee, substantial tial harmony in the platform declarations was assured today. Leaders of the resolutions committees of both parties today co-operated to frame documents in parallel vein on practically all political issues, including Americanism and preparedness.

The purpose of the co-operation between the resolutions committees of the two conventions was to work out their defects so that no hitch in a possible union would come on that score.

It was decided that the Progressive platform should not be so radical as to preclude acceptance by the Republican nominee of the Republican platform so conservative that Progressives could not accept it in case of a joint nomination.

The Progressive platform, with its principal planks devoted to an exposition of Americanism, preparedness, protection and woman suffrage, which

JUSTICE HUGHES CHATS WITH WICKERSHAM

Washington, June 8.—Justice Hughes remained in his study nearly all day continuing work on court opinions to be handed down Monday, but talked for half an hour late in the afternoon with George W. Wickersham of New York, who said he went to the Hughes home merely for a social call, "and carefully avoided mentioning politics."

DEMOCRAT AFRAID OF JUSTICE HUGHES

Washington, June 8.—Representative Murray of Oklahoma, democrat, made a speech in the house today, depicting the movement to nominate Justice Hughes for the presidency, and quoting Viscount Bryce's prediction that some day the federal court would destroy the republic. It drew no reply from the republicans.

YOUNG GIRL TAKES THE STAND AGAINST BRAGDON

Minneapolis, June 8.—The complaining witness in the trial of Joseph W. Bragdon, on charges brought by school girls, told her story in the Hennepin county district court today and was being cross-examined when noon adjournment was taken. Her testimony followed closely that given in Bragdon's second trial. Judge Daniel Fish ordered the jury kept in custody until the end of the trial.

Chicago, June 8.—Mrs. Leola Maverick Lloyd, wife of William Brock Lloyd, millionaire socialist, was granted a divorce today. She was a member of the Ford peace expedition to Europe. The decree gave her the custody of their five children and $10,000 a year. Mr. Lloyd did not contest the action.

IRON MINERS ON STRIKE IN MINN.

Aurora, Minn., June 8.—Strike in 600 and 700 miners are on strike in this district of the Minnesota Iron Range. The strike continues to spread. The men continue to form locals, which are affiliating with the Industrial Workers of the World. Sa-loons remained closed here.

Conference between strike leaders, business men and mine operators have failed to settle the strike, which grew out of a demand for an eight-hour day, $3.00 flat pay per day, and recognition of the I. W. W. Company officials point to May as a representative month in which they claim the men received $2.90 on an average per day.

Another conference will be held tonight.

One shipment continues from stock piles.

GRAND JURY PROBE IN COLLISION CASE

Investigation Being Made in Disastrous Crash Between Two Elevated Trains.

New York, June 8.—A grand jury investigation was begun tonight into a rear end collision today between two elevated trains. Edward Grove, the trolleyman on duty at the scene of the crash, was arrested on a charge of homicide, after a coroner's inquest. Coroner Flynn announced that Grove admitted the signals were clear for the trolleyman of the rear train to proceed, thus permitting it to crash into the rear of a stalled express train on the Third Avenue "L," at 149th street.

"All the injured were passengers in the first car of the local train, southbound, and it was in this car that the trolleyman, Frank K. Carrigan, suffered injuries from which he died in a hospital. The express train, which also was bound down town, carried no passengers.

Flames, which spread almost immediately from the wreckage, did not gain much headway on account of the presence of firemen, who extinguished a half dozen or more fires which broke out. The smoke added to the panic within the train, and made the rescue work difficult. The third rail also handicapped the rescuers. The injured were taken down ladders and rushed to nearby hospitals.

ANTI-AMERICAN DEMONSTRATION IN CHIHUAHUA

radical paper, according to persons arriving from Chihuahua City today.

P. Stanley Twells, an oil operator, said that the feeling in the city has been more tense in the last few days than at any time since the American troops crossed the border.

Mr. Twells also said before leaving Chihuahua City yesterday that he was told that an American resident of the city had shot three Mexicans who attacked his home.

Fears were expressed for the safety of the Americans in the state of Chihuahua, of whom about 30 are in Chihuahua City and a dozen in Parral.

Indians Raiding Ranches.

Reports that Yaqui Indians have been raiding ranches and small towns in the southern part of the Arripe district of Sonora were officially confirmed today by Ives G. Leveire, de facto Mexican consul. While the consul has received no list of those killed by the Indians, he said that official reports received in Agua Prieta state that casualties have been numerous. The Indians are making their headquarters in Sierra de Conchi, a range of mountains near the Sonora river, and are raiding the surrounding country for food and clothing.

Ready to Cross Border.

Americans arriving today from Campas, Sonora, said that while depredations had been reported from the section described by the consul, it was stated that the Yaquis are accompanied by their families. This lends color to the belief that they are waiting a favorable time to leave Mexico and follow hundreds of their tribe, who have crossed recently into Arizona. After crossing the border they are transformed into peaceful workmen.

TWO KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Council Bluffs, Ia., June 8.—Mrs. Arthur Storz and Mrs. Edith Bartlett of Omaha were killed, and Mrs. Nellie Hart and Miss Lillian Jensen, the latter of Iowa, probably were fatally injured, as a baby in the arms of Mrs. Bartlett was seriously injured, when a Rock Island passenger train struck an automobile driven by Mrs. Storz at a grade crossing near here.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids—Splendid For System.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.
