

JUSTICE HUGHES NOMINATED BY THE REPUBLICANS

make no new announcement of his position on issues and to say nothing which might be construed as becoming a candidate while he wore the robe of a justice in the world's greatest court.

Presented Hughes' Name.
Before the ballot was taken today, Senator Smoot of Utah announced the report of the latest meeting of the Progressive convention, disclosing that Republicans had presented the name of Mr. Hughes for their consideration as a candidate on which both conventions could unite. He also read the reply of the Progressive conferees which merely was an acknowledgment of receipt of the proposal. Then he read Colonel Roosevelt's telegram to the Progressive convention, which had been brought to the Coliseum by John McGrath, the colonel's secretary, suggesting Senator Lodge. Before he had finished reading, ward came and was announced in the coliseum that the Progressive convention itself had not only tabled the Republican proposal of Mr. Hughes, but had tabled Colonel Roosevelt's own proposal of Senator Lodge as well.

Fairbanks Wires His Acceptance.
With the end of the balloting for the presidential nomination and the official announcement by Chairman Harding, the balloting for vice president began. The roll call proceeded and whole blocks of votes piled in for Fairbanks, and his nomination was such a foregone conclusion among delegates that they began leaving the hall and causing such confusion that the balloting was heard with difficulty.

Notable Convention.
The convention was a notable one in political history for many things. A man who steadfastly had refused to seek the nomination had been chosen. It left a new milestone in the paths of both Republican and Progressive parties. It was the first Republican convention since 1888 which had been forced to take more than one ballot to agree upon a candidate, and it has been marked by lack of riotous demonstration and nervous enthusiasm which hitherto has been a feature of such gatherings.

Will Consult Hughes.
Chicago, June 10.—The new Republican national committee held its first meeting immediately after the adjournment of the convention today, and authorized the appointment of the sub-committee to confer with Charles E. Hughes, the nominee, about the election of officers and the executive committee.

Former Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts Presided.
The following sub-committee was appointed:
W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts; Ralph E. Williams, of Oregon; Alvin H. Martin, of Virginia; Charles B. Warren, of Michigan; John T. Adams, of Iowa; Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah; Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and James A. Hemenway, of Indiana.

Under the rules, the executive committee will consist of 12 members. The plan is for the sub-committee to confer with Mr. Hughes as soon as convenient and then name the new executive committee. Later the executive committee will select a chairman, secretary and treasurer, and sergeant at arms. At today's session, no names for chairman of the national committee were mentioned.

FAIRBANKS WIRES HIS ACCEPTANCE

Charles W. Fairbanks, in a statement given out here tonight, accepted the nomination for vice president made at the National Republican convention in Chicago today. His statement follows:

"I was not a candidate for the vice presidential nomination and requested the chairman of the Indiana delegation to withdraw my name if presented. The nomination was made and the convention adjourned before my dispatch was received. I feel it my duty under such circumstances to accept the commission, which the party has so generously and unanimously placed in my hands."

READING OF REPORTS INTERRUPTS HOUSE

Washington, June 10.—Announcement at the capitol today of the nominations at Chicago upset for a time the work of the house and provoked lively banter between Republicans and Democrats over the prospects for victory in the campaign. The senate was not in session when the announcement came. Republican leaders here without exception appeared pleased at the nomination of Hughes and did not conceal their hope that Roosevelt's tentative declination of the nomination might mean that the party could unite on the Republican nominee, Mr. Hughes' associates on the supreme court bench have watched the work of the convention closely.

Republican Leader Mann announced the Hughes nomination in the house. "There has been a rumor," he said, "that the next president of the United States has just been nominated at Chicago in the person of Mr. Justice Charles E. Hughes."
When applause from the Republican side had subsided, Representative

The Chandler Leads in Price and Style and Certainty of Service

NEVER before has the Chandler leadership been so obvious to so many people as it is now, at the height of the 1916 season.

At a time when so many cars are "marked up" a hundred dollars or more, the Chandler leads with the same low price established eighteen months ago.

In the midst of a horde of new types and styles of engines, "The Marvelous Motor" leads in certainty of service. Built in the Chandler factory ever since the first Chandler car was marketed this famous motor,—refined, more powerful, more flexible,—still leads most distinctly because free from any hint of experimentation or uncertain theory.

And Chandler leads quite as clearly in beauty of body design, refinement of finish in every detail and luxury of upholstery.

It is not surprising that many thousands of new owners have joined the Chandler ranks this year.

You will be delighted with your Chandler.

ELIHU ROOT APPROVES MR. HUGHES' NOMINATION

Utica, N. Y., June 10.—Elihu Root, commenting on Mr. Hughes' nomination, tonight, said:
"It is claimed that Mr. Hughes has been nominated because the great mass of the rank and file of the Republican party—the constituents of the delegates—considered him the best man. He is able, experienced, courageous, high minded, and American to the core. He will be loyal to the platform on which he has been nominated, and to which I feel sure he agrees. I am confident that he will be elected, and will be a president of high quality and able to deal with the conditions confronting our country."

SENATOR T. Y. SHERMAN ADDS HIS ENDORSEMENT

Springfield, Ill., June 10.—United States Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, who instructed his delegates to vote for Hughes in the Republican national committee, in a statement tonight predicts victory for the Republican party in November. Discussing the situation, Mr. Sherman said:
"I joined the movement in the belief of the fitness of Mr. Hughes and asked my friends of the Illinois delegation and others to give their united vote to Mr. Hughes. I wish to express my profound gratitude for the support of the Illinois Republicans and those elsewhere who have so signally honored me with their confidence."
"Let us now turn to the coming duty of the campaign, to redeem the country from Democratic misrule, and restore the wholesome administration of a people's government by a sweeping Republican victory."

TAFT CONGRATULATES PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE

Philadelphia, Pa., June 10.—Former President Taft, who was the principal orator at the commencement exercises of Temple university here, tonight issued a statement endorsing former Justice Hughes and Charles W. Fairbanks and expressed the hope that Col. Roosevelt and the progressives would support them.
Mr. Taft intimated he would take the stump in the interest of the republican nominees if invited to do so. He sent a telegram to the former supreme court justice, congratulating him on his nomination and expressing confidence that the people's verdict at the polls would return him victor.
In his address at the commencement exercises, Mr. Taft advocated a course of one year's military training for citizens.
