Little-Bradley Nuptials Solemnized at High Noon

A wedding of interest to Capital City people was solemnized at high noon Saturday in the summer home of Col. and Mrs. C. B. Little of Avenue A, in Pembroke, N. H., when their only daughter, Miss Viroque M. Little, became the bride of Hon. H. C. Bradley, judge of the local probate court. Rev. Mr. Harwood, pastor of the Pembroke Congregational church, read the service.

Miss Lucy Salt of New York City and Mrs. Charles G. Greene of Clifton, Mass., cousins, were the bride's attendants. Following the wedding, Mr. Bradley and his bride departed on an extended trip, to include points of interest in the east.

A Special

GOSSARD CORSET for MOTORING

SINCE every woman rides in an auto sometime or other, this new Summer Gossard model is almost a necessity. It was designed to give you comfort on the longest auto ride you might ever take. It will not slip up on the body, because it has just enough waist line to keep it where it belongs. The skirt is not long—the elastics (there are six of them) are stout and filled with fine rubber.

The top of the corset lets the flesh above the waist line rest in the corset—the bust line is rather low. Only a long ride in an auto can make you fully appreciate the comfort and coolness of this special. You would never know you had a corset on if your figure did not appear so graceful and well-proportioned.

This model is here in all sizes and we can send yours to you at once, or you may be fitted, if you like, at $3.00

FROCK FOR COOL DAYS IN THE SUMMER

BY BETTY BROWN

Even on a rare day in June the serge dress has its usefulness. Especially suitable for the cool days that so often overtake us in midsummer is this model designed by Mme. Allie Bailey of the Fashion Art League of America.

It's navy blue brightened with an elaborate trimming of the new shiny black braid which is so popular this summer. The braid forms a yoke for the skirt and a little vest of it is set in the bodice. The side pockets are really draperies—and take note of the buttons—should you ask any modiste "where's the button" she'll tell you dozens of it are on the newest summer frocks.

Here From Wilton.
Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Macomber of Wilton were visitors in the city Saturday.

Fargo Visitor Here.
Mrs. Roy Cook of Fargo arrived in the city yesterday and will visit her cousin Miss Catherine Gabert of this place.

For Mrs. Owens.
Mrs. D. T. Owens entertained informally yesterday afternoon at her home in Fifth street, in honor of Mrs. Price Owens of the city. Fancy work was the diversion.

Ministerial Meeting.
The ministerial meeting, in which the ministers of the Bismarck district will take part, will convene in the First M. E. church at Jamestown, Tuesday next.

Returns From School.
Miss Verna Wright, who has been attending Jamestown college, has arrived in the city and will spend the summer vacation with her mother, Mrs. R. E. Wright of Third street.

Sunday School Picnic.
The Sunday school of the McCabe Methodist Episcopal church will go to Fort Lincoln Tuesday, where they will hold a picnic. An interesting program of sports and other amusements have been arranged and a large picnic supper will feature.

To Visit Here.
Miss Dorothy Bergeson of Seattle, Wash., will arrive in the city Monday and will be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bergeson, of Avenue A. Later she will make an extended trip before returning home.

Motor Party.
A party of Capital City people, composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Burleson, Mr. and Mrs. Kjelson, Miss Eva Bond, Miss Anna Vigness, Miss Dorothy Schaecker, Mr. Rienghine, Chris Legen, George Short, Fred Schaecker and Mr. Vandewater, will motor today to the banks of the Little Heart river, where they will spend the day.

Monthly Social.
The Standard Bearers of the McCabe Methodist Episcopal church moved to the country home of Miss Myrtle Paris near the city, yesterday afternoon, where they held the regular monthly social. In behalf of the organization, Miss Hazel Miller, who leaves Bismarck shortly, was present with a manicule set. The afternoon was spent in social pastimes. The trip was made in automobiles.

To Attend Services.
Mrs. J. A. Coughlin, daughter, Miss Helen, and son, William, Edward Coughlin, Miss Mary Harroune, Kathryn Coughlin of Minneapolis arrived in the city Saturday and will be the guests of Mrs. M. J. Halloran of First street. While here they will attend the first mass said by Father Halloran, who was ordained last Sunday as priest. Walter Clemens of Fargo is also expected to attend the services today. Mrs. Coughlin and party will leave shortly for Spokane, Wash., and will later go to Honolulu for a visit before returning home.

Interesting Engagement Announced.
Mrs. Paul C. Remington was hostess Saturday afternoon at her home in Seventh street, at a handsomely appointed luncheon, bridge, to announce the engagement of her daughter, Elizabeth, to Dr. Lloyd Albert Schipfer of the city. Cards with the names of Miss Remington and her fiancé, concealed in corsage bouquets of Killarney roses, showered with sweet peas and forget-me-nots, was the way the hostess took to announce the interesting news. The table held a huge bowl filled with Killarney roses, showered with the same flowers as used in the bouquets, and covers were laid for 15. The guests included a limited number of the bride-elect's intimate friends of the younger social set. Bridge followed the luncheon and three tables were in play for the game. The honor was awarded to Mrs. Walter Graham of Regan. Mrs. Edward G. Clapp of Fargo, who is the guest of her parents, Governor and Mrs. L. E. Hanna, was the other out of town guest. No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect is well known in society circles of the Capital City. Dr. Schipfer has made Bismarck his home for the last six years.
