SURVIVORS OF MOST CRITICAL SITUATION IN MEXICAN CRISIS ARE RETURNED TO THE BORDER

Troopers of Tenth Cavalry are Brought Safely From Chihuahua City by Special Train

TELL VARIED STORIES OF THEIR EXPLOITS ON MEXICAN SOIL

Private Gibson Tells of Mexicans Killing Wounded Americans After the Battle

El Paso, June 29.—The twenty-three negro troopers of the 10th cavalry, who at Carrizal, Villa Ahumada, Chihuahua, and Juarez, have been central figures in the most striking and potential chapters of the Mexican situation, are once more safely out of Mexico.

Survivors of a bloody fight, with a vastly superior force, victims twice of mobs that stoned them, more than once ripped with the fear of execution for their part in the Boyd expedition, and lastly objects of interception by the U. S., they were brought to the border from Chihuahua City on a special train today and turned over to General George Bell, Jr., Commander of the El Paso base. With them came Lem H. Spillsbury, the Mormon scout, who guided Captain Charles T. Boyd, and his little command over the trail that led to the Carrizal encounter. Spillsbury spent the night at the home of his brother here. The troopers were quartered at Ft. Bliss, awaiting orders from General Funston at San Antonio. Two stories widely diverging of their captivity were brought back by the prisoners, one told by Spillsbury, himself.

The other story narrated by fighting men of the Tenth declares the Mexicans to have been the aggressors, and blames them for the ensuing slaughter. The latter account is filled with charges that have not hitherto been brought to light.

Exposes Mexican Cruelty.

Private Wm. D. Gibson declared that he was certain that after the Carrizal battle, the Mexicans went over it and killed several Americans who were wounded but still alive.

Gibson's assertion was corroborated by Private Archie Jones and Luther Alexander. Numerous others claimed they had been robbed of valuables following their capture.

In Juarez a big crowd at the Mexican Central Railway company viewed the disembarment of the prisoners with curiosity, but gave no outward evidence of enmity. In the main, however, the Mexican populace acted with reserve. Once the crowd in Juarez acted in genuine humor. That was when the troops were entrained. Stripped of their uniforms after the battle of Carrizal, and with restoration only partly made, the dusky soldiers were greeted by a vast roar of cheering from the thousands gathered there. One of the features of the day's development was the arrival of Captain Morey for treatment at the Ft. Bliss hospital for wounds he received at the battle of Carrizal.

Captain Morey's coming was almost lost sight of in the other events. Tonight he arranged to view the dusky soldiers at Ft. Bliss. Fifteen of them, the men of Troop K, are under his command.

Scheduled to arrive in Juarez early this morning, the special train departed by General Trevino at Chihuahua City to carry the 24 prisoners to the border, in response to President Wilson's pre-emptory, did not pull in to Juarez until noon. The soldiers were slow in getting out. Their guards issued first.

After the Carranza soldiers had forced an avenue along the outer edge of the platform, General Gonzales entered the car. He returned shortly with the officer of the guard and joined Consul Garcia and Mayor Prieto of Juarez on the platform.

Crowd Jears Negroes. They started ahead and the first negro appeared in the door. A chorus of derisive whistling rose from the crowd as he and his comrades filed down the car steps.

Though the faces of most of them looked lean and drawn, and wore an expression of anxiety, the negroes presented a ludicrous appearance.

Sandals and shoes not of army pattern.

OFFICERS AND MEN OVER-TAXED WITH DETAILS

General Routine Orders Invade Post Headquarters at Fort Lincoln

COMMANDERS UNDERGO PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Boys are Enjoying Camp Life—Other News From the Fort

"All's Well!" The cry of the sentries on duty at the various guard posts can well be applied, as Col. Fraire and his subordinate officers all reported that things are moving along smoothly at Ft. Lincoln, and they expect that in a short time they can announce that everything is in readiness for their expected trip to the border.

Officers at post headquarters, and also their clerks, are working night and day on the large quantity of detail work that goes with the monstrous undertaking of mobilizing the troops of an entire state under conditions that are not of the best. General routine work was the schedule at the fort yesterday and a deal of business was cleared up by the many men working in this department alone.

It is expected that the next few days will be occupied in like manner and until everything on this order is wiped from the slate, those in charge will be unable to rest easy on their "feather beds."

Major Patterson, Capt. McLachlin and Dr. Strauss were busy all yesterday afternoon giving the various officers a thorough physical examination. This evening and today the physicians will commence examination of the enlisted men. This will of course occupy considerable period of time as there are now over 1,100 enlisted men and officers camped at Ft. Lincoln. Immediately on completion of the physical examination the troops will be mustered in and will then be full fledged soldiers of the United States and ready to report for duty at the border.

It is expected that the federal physical examination will be conducted after the men have been mustered in and perhaps after they have been rushed to the Mexican frontier. This work will be under the direction of members of the medical staff of the regular army.

Telegraph Instrument Installed.

A telegraph instrument was installed at post headquarters Wednesday afternoon and since that time has been in constant use. Wire trouble has been experienced to date, but will undoubtedly be cleared up today.

Private V. B. Zaecher, Company H, Jamestown, has been detailed as special regimental telegraphic operator. He is an experienced operator, having handled a wire job at Jamestown before being called here, and will be a valuable man on the job.

Col. Allen Busy.

Col. F. H. Allen of Lisbon, at the head of the supply department, was a busy man yesterday afternoon. In private life Col. Allen is accorded as judge, as he is head of the judicial department of the Third district. He was a candidate for re-election at the primaries Wednesday and when interviewed.

LEAGUE HAS CONTROL OVER LOWER BODY

Meagre Returns Indicate a Non-Partisan House About Two to One

FARMERS GAIN SEVERAL MEMBERS IN SENATE

Some Very Close Contests Noted in the Legislative Districts

Meagre returns indicate that the Non-partisan league has captured the lower body of the house by a substantial margin and has won a number of the members in the senate.

From the very few returns that were available today, owing to the unusual wire trouble it is evident that the next legislature will be completely under the domination of the Non-partisan league.

NON-PARTISANS ALL WIN OUT IN BURLEIGH

Complete Legislative and Nearly All State Ticket Carries County

PENWARDEN LEADS FOR COUNTY TREASURER

McCurdy and B. O. Ward Win Out Over Berndt and Louis Larson

Burleigh county followed the Non-partisan landslide at the primaries with but few exceptions. Carroll D. King of Menoken is nominated state senator on the republican ticket. Returns from 49 of 54 precincts give him 1,018 to 950 for C. B. Little. He heads an entire Non-partisan legislative ticket.

Prater, Varnum and Bailey are the house members, leaving the City of Bismarck without representation on the delegation, the first time since statehood. Penwarden leads Yegen for state treasurer; Ward leads Larson, and McCurdy has won the nomination for state's attorney. The vote on the state and county ticket in brief is as follows:

United States Senator—Republican: Hanna 533, McCumber 934, Nestos 311, Midtbo 127; democratic: Hellstrom 53, Burke 128.

Governor—Republican: Fraire 402, Burdick 534, Frazier 1,905, Smith 88; democratic: Halvorson 49.

Lieutenant Governor—Kraabel 1,258, Sorlie 619.

Legislative Ticket. Senator—Carroll D. King 1,018, C. B. Little 950.

MCCUMBER AND FRAZIER CONTINUE TO PILE UP SAFE MARGINS OVER THEIR NEAREST COMPETITORS. FORMER CHIEF JUSTICE SPALDING IS CROWDING GOSS OUT FOR SIXTH PLACE ON JUDICIARY TICKET BY A SLIGHT PLURALITY. NONE OF THE PRESENT REPUBLICAN INCUMBENTS NOT ENDORSED BY ORGANIZATION IS NOMINATED.

JORGENSEN FAILS TO RALLY VOTES TO DOWN KOSITZKY

With McCumber and Frazier nominated on the Republican ticket by a large margin, interest centers upon the judiciary contest in which former Chief Justice Spalding and Justice Goss are running neck and neck for sixth and last place on the ballot. Six out of the eight candidates at the primary will go upon the ballot in November.

Second in interest is the complete landslide of all Non-Partisan league candidates on the state ticket. With the exception of State Treasurer John Steen, who is unopposed in the Republican primary, none of the present Republican incumbents is re-nominated but Thomas Hall, Secretary of State.

Jorgenson, State Auditor; Flint, Commissioner of Agriculture; Walter Taylor, Insurance Commissioner; Linde, Attorney General and Railroad Commissioners, Mann, Stutsman and others have all been retired by resounding majorities or pluralities. The adjoining column is the complete state ticket nominated.

McCumber by Wide Margin.

Senator McCumber probably will outrun his nearest competitor by between 9,000 and 10,000 plurality. In 1,216 precincts out of 1,800 McCumber has 19,787; Hanna 11,885; Nestos 11,552, and Midtbo 1,911. There is a close race between Nestos and Hanna for second place. The race in detail is shown in another column.

Robinson Leads.

Robinson of Fargo is leading the judiciary ticket with 10,894. The others follow in order, Burke 10,625; Fisk 10,295; Birdzell 10,172; Grace 9,784; Spalding 8,413; Goss 7,888; Adams 4,807. These returns are from 558 precincts out of 1,900. Much of the rural precincts have not been heard from. These will increase the margins probably of Grace, Robinson and Birdzell. The real contest for sixth place is between Goss and Spalding.

Cohesion of Vote.

The vote on Frazier showed the cohesion of the Non-partisan support. The farmers marched up to the polls in solid phalanx and hardly a candidate was scratched. In some of the rural precincts, the farmers voted as a unit, either candidates not receiving a vote.

North Dakota has never seen a movement that moved with such machine line precision to accomplish its ends. The farmers of North Dakota stuck with a vengeance and emphatically registered their demands. No state in the union furnishes a parallel instance. The driving power of the organization perfected is written in the rural precinct vote which will be a fine study in political organization.

Frazier Leads Ticket.

Frazier is leading the Republican ticket. He will poll more votes than McCumber. In 1,248 precincts heard from out of 1,800, Frazier has 24,193 to Burdick's 17,264 and Fraire's 7,357.

With nearly 600 precincts to be heard from, the total vote on governor is 50,408 against a total vote two years ago for Republican nominees for governor of some 61,000. Smith only polled 1,594 votes. Frazier already has a lead of nearly 7,000 votes over Fraire and it promises to reach, if not pass, the 10,000 mark. Frazier's gallop is told in an adjoining column by laps.

An analysis of the vote shows that Frazier would have won against either Burdick or Fraire and that the presence of these two candidates did not materially affect the general result.

Other Results.

The story on the rest of the Non-partisan landslide is told in the following summary:
