Mr. Fairbanks will arrive in Mandan on No. 4 at 9:40 Bismarck time. He will be met there by the Morton County Republican Central committee and by Chairman Prater of the Burleigh County Republican Central committee and a local delegation and press representatives. After making an address in Mandan, Mr. Fairbanks will proceed by automobile to Bismarck, arriving here about noon. After luncheon at the Grand Pacific, an informal reception will be held in the hotel lobby. There will be an hour's band concert beginning at 2:30 and at 3:30 the former vice president will speak from the hotel balcony on Fourth street.

Large Crowd Anticipated. It is anticipated that a very large crowd will greet Fairbanks, who favors Bismarck today with one of the two visits which he makes in North Dakota during the present campaign. Hundreds are planning to drive in from the country, taking advantage of good roads and good weather.

Mr. Fairbanks will spend the entire afternoon in Bismarck, visiting the capitol and various other interesting places, and will leave for the east this evening on No. 2.

Parson Can't Desert Race Handed Him

Some folks are born to politics, others acquire politics and still others just naturally have it wished on them.

In the third category stands Rev. Bruce E. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist church, whose name will go on the official ballot in the 27th district as a candidate for senator on the Democratic ticket. Very much against his will, Mr. Jackson is pitted against Carrol D. King of Menoken, candidate for the senate on the Republican ticket, and the Non-partisan league's choice for the job.

Rev. Jackson was not a candidate for the Democratic nomination last June. In spite of that fact, he polled 14 votes, four more than received by King on the Democratic ticket. This made Jackson the nominee, and he was so certified to the secretary of state. The divine learned casually of his preferment at the time, but gave the matter little attention, intending to resign. Then he forgot all about it, and last Saturday at midnight there passed the final hour for the filing of withdrawals.

Yesterday the secretary of state certified to the county auditor of Burleigh the name of Rev. Bruce E. Jackson as candidate for the senate. Dr. Jackson was interviewed regarding his candidacy last evening, and he declared positively that he was not a politician, not a candidate, and would not make the race. The secretary of state's office, however, regards Mr. Jackson as a candidate, and cannot quite see how the clergyman is to pry his name from the official ballot which will go to the voters November 7.

Rev. Jackson will not run, but he cannot avoid making the race—it has been wished on him.

MILLION-DOLLAR CORPORATION TO FINANCE LEAGUE

Benefits of Tariff Told By Fairbanks

Billings, Mont., Oct. 12.—The need of the Republican tariff policy to protect Montana's great and growing beet sugar industry was pointed out by Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice president, in an address here today.

Mr. Fairbanks declared that the election of Charles E. Hughes means the protection of American rights from every standpoint, both at home and abroad.

He left Billings at 7:20 p. m. for Bismarck, N. D.

M'LEAN REMAINS DEMOCRATIC HEAD IN NORTH DAKOTA

Petition of D. H. McArthur for Removal of State Chairman Denied.

ELECTION HELD TO HAVE BEEN CONDUCTED LEGALLY

Fred McLean remains chairman of the Democratic State Central committee. The petition of D. H. McArthur for an ouster on the grounds of irregularities connected with his election by the state central committee was denied in a decision handed down by the supreme court at 5:30 last evening.

The opinion, written by Judge A. A. Bruce, is one of the most voluminous that has issued from the supreme court in some time. It holds in brief that the question of the committee's method of naming a chairman is one for political rather than judicial consideration; that the majority of the members of a political state central committee has the inherent power to deposit or elect a chairman at any time, and that the supreme court will not issue its high prerogative writs in order to bring about that which voluntary political action can perform. Section 890 of the compiled laws of 1913 is held not to make membership in the state central committee prerequisite to its chairmanship.

Englund, Holt and Frame of Fargo represented McArthur, and Bangs, Hamilton & Bangs of Grand Forks the defendants.

Question of Proxies. McArthur in his petition which embraced Joseph M. Kelley, treasurer, as well as McLean, set forth that at the meeting of the Democratic State Central committee in Bismarck on September 6 there were present 21 members and twelve proxies, which proxies were counted in order to constitute a majority for McLean and Kelly, neither of whom, he alleged, were members of the state central committee. The question hinged entirely on the right of proxies to vote as members and the right of the members to name officers from outside the committee.

Not Public Office. In denying the writ the court held that the state chairmanship is not a public office; that the members of the state committee assembled in due form and that all members who so desired were present; that no protest has been received from any member of the committee, but from an outsider, who, though he may be deeply concerned, had no voice or vote; that if the results of the meeting were not satisfactory to a majority, another meeting could have been held, and the mistake rectified; that the court should not be called upon to do what the majority of the committee still have power to do.

Membership Unnecessary. "We are satisfied," says the court, "that membership in the central committee is not necessary to its chairmanship; the act of legislature does not make it necessary." There is cited the fact that it has been the almost uniform ruling in the case of private corporations that the president, secretary and treasurer, even the directors, may be chosen from persons who are not even stockholders.

Proxies Generally Used. "The use of proxies, in political bodies, has throughout the history of the state almost universally prevailed, and was recognized by the legislatures of 1890 and 1895 by regulating but not prohibiting the same. We must assume therefore that the right still prevails," says the court.

F. B. Wood and Others Procure Articles for Non-Partisan Holding Company

EXPECTS TO DO GENERAL COMMISSION BUSINESS

Will Handle Lands, Loans, Mercantile Transactions, Publishing.

The League Exchange was incorporated under the laws of North Dakota yesterday with a capital stock of $1,000,000, paying to the secretary of state's office $533, one of the largest fees received by the corporation department in some time. The exchange is chartered to handle lands, loans, real estate, commissions and a general brokerage business, the scope of its operations being practically unlimited. Back of the exchange stands the Non-Partisan league of North Dakota.

The board of directors consists of F. B. Wood, Fargo; C. O. Swenson, Northwood; P. A. Suhumski, Lisbon; William Olson, Valley City; William Maxwell, Conway; George White, Kramer; C. A. Swanson, Driscoll; A. C. Townley, Fargo; S. S. Semington, Crosby. The incorporators are F. B. Wood, manager of the Equity Life Stock exchange at St. Paul; L. L. Griffith of Fargo, William Olson and C. O. Swenson.

"The purpose of the exchange," stated Mr. Wood, who filed the articles late yesterday afternoon, "is to finance the various projects of the Non-Partisan league. The new corporation has no special connection with the league's publishing business, although this will be considered as well as other interests. We intend to engage in a general loan and real estate business. A large amount of capital already has been subscribed, and we are preparing to open home offices in Fargo. Our operations will cover the entire state."

KINGSTONIAN IS SAFE IN PORT

Boston, Oct. 12.—The British steamer, Kingstonian, reported as among those torpedoed by a German submarine last Sunday, is safe in port, according to word received today by John K. Thomas, local manager of the Leyland Line, which owns the steamer. Mr. Thomas said that the Kingstonian was thousands of miles from Nantucket last Sunday.

HACK SAW—LIVE WIRE; DEAD MAN, FOR MINUTE

The combination of hack saw, 2,300 volts of electricity, and a live wire, very nearly resulted in a dead man at the sewer booster pump on Broadway yesterday, when a workman employed in the new sewer construction attempted to sever an active wire.

The hack saw did its duty, as did the live wire, and the workman took the count. Only the fact that he wore gloves forecloses the injunction to omit flowers.

ALLIES REPLY TO PROTEST OF UNITED STATES

British and French Governments

Discuss Seizure of Mails in Documents

TEXT IS NOT MADE PUBLIC

Claim They Will Do All in Their Power to Minimize Delay

Washington, Oct. 12.—Identical memoranda from the British and French governments replying to the American protest against seizures of neutral mails were delivered today to the state department by the embassies here. The text was not made public, but the Allies are understood to give renewed promises that every effort will be made to minimize delays and annoyance caused by examination, but to insist upon certain legal rights in regard to mails which the United States has denied.

The complaint of the American government has been based upon the contention that many vessels have been diverted from the high seas in British seaports in order to give the British censors jurisdiction. There is no indication that the new memorandum makes any concession of principles on that point.

The reply is made to the American note of May 24, characterizing the allied treatment of mails as a "lawless practice" and saying that "only a radical change in the present British and French policy, restoring the United States to its full rights as a neutral power will satisfy the government."

The Allies claim that as the United States admits the right of censorship for purely war purposes, it cannot rightfully object to reasonable delays inevitable to that censorship. The new communication is the second to come from the Allies in the mail controversy, which began January 4.

It is expected that the text of the allied communication will be made later by the governments concerned. The state department has been advised that the British reply to the American blacklist protest will soon be delivered here. There has been no indication as to its contents.

BRITISH SHIP BROUGHT TO PORT BY U. S. BOAT

New York, Oct. 12.—The British steamship, City of Madras, was overhauled off Ambrose Channel lightship tonight by the United States torpedo boat destroyer, Sterrett, and brought back to Clifton, Staten Island, after it had ignored the war vessel's signal to stop when it left quarantine.

BUSINESS VISITOR HERE. Edward W. Ogden of Atlanta, Ga., who has been spending several weeks on the Johnson farm near Menoken, spent yesterday in the city on business.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE GIVES HIS VIEWS ON LUSITANIA DISASTER

Strike Riot Continues at Bayonne, N. J.

Bayonne, N. J., Oct. 12.—One man was killed and at least a score wounded, two so seriously they are not expected to live, in a pitched battle here late today between striking employees of the Standard Oil company and the police. The fight was the culmination of a series of disturbances that began Wednesday and continued throughout last night and today. New Jersey militiamen back from the Mexican border, who were sworn in as special policemen, aided in dispersing the rioters, who were terrorizing the city by looting and burning.

Half a dozen sheds overlooking the oil refineries were set on fire before the authorities were able to restore a semblance of order by firing volleys of rifle and pistol shots into the ranks of the strikers and their sympathizers.

Isador Natilsky, 22 years old, a lawyer, who had no part in the rioting, late today, was killed. He was shot through the back, it was said, while running from the scene of battle. Harris Martin, 19 years old, a bystander, was shot through the right lung and will probably die, according to physicians. Edward Green, 30 years old, was shot through the left lung. He probably will die.

INVESTIGATION OF SUBMARINE RAIDS COMES TO AN END

Officials Relieved at Conclusion of Probe Into U-Boat Activities.

GOVERNMENT'S POLICY STILL UNDETERMINED

Washington, Oct. 12.—Investigation of Germany's submarine operations off Nantucket apparently has eased the minds of officials here, but it was said authoritatively here tonight that should the situation develop prolonged paralysis of American trade in the Atlantic or any similar injury vital to American interest abroad, issue might be raised transcending the discussed question of international law discussed in connection with the U-boat raid.

Such considerations as the dislocation of shipping along the Atlantic seaboard, the great increase in marine insurance rates, and the possibility of serious freight congestion and railroad embargoes have been foremost in the minds of officials, it was indicated, and will determine largely the government's policy if an extensive submarine campaign is attempted on this side of the Atlantic.

Hughes Says He Would Not Tolerate Friendly Relations After Disaster

CALLS ATTENTION TO PROTECTIVE TARIFF

Terms Wilson's Advocacy of "New Freedom" in Reality "The New Slavery"

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 12.—Charles E. Hughes, answering a question here tonight as to what he would have done when the Lusitania was sunk, declared he would have "made it known in terms unequivocal and unmistakable that we should not tolerate a continuance of friendly relations," when notice was published "with reference to the threatened action."

Charles E. Hughes went through the mountains of Kentucky today, a new campaign field for presidential nominees, outlining his views on the maintenance of American rights and ended his day's tour of the state with a meeting here tonight, in which he declared that the "new freedom" advocated by President Wilson four years ago had been transmuted in one respect to "the new slavery."

The Protective Tariff. In his speech in Phoenix Hill hall here tonight, Mr. Hughes devoted much of his attention to the protective tariff and to what he termed "the new slavery."

"We have heard much of the new freedom," he said. "It seems to have a surprising and deplorable range. It has meant freedom to sacrifice the principle of the merit system, which our opponents pledged themselves to support. It has meant freedom to embark the government in novel enterprises in competition with private business, as in the case of the government shipping bill."

"It has meant freedom to depart from the principles of international law to conduct a personal diplomacy to satisfy personal vindictiveness. It has meant freedom to wage war, not to protect American rights, but to dislodge a disliked ruler and to leave our citizens and their property to anarchy and revolution. It has meant freedom to depart from our time-honored policy of protecting American citizens who take American enterprise abroad, and to substitute a new policy, which treats them as adventurers, whose flag is no longer a symbol of protection of their just rights."

"It means freedom to subvert the principles of government by yielding authority to the demands of force. In this last phase, instead of the new freedom, we have the new slavery. What are the characteristics of this new slavery? It is the use of the form of free institutions to tyrannize over the public, to impose demands without inquiry as to their justice."

Government by Hold-up. "The new slavery is government by hold-up. It is terrorized government, or the rule of politics assuming terror as an excuse for submission. The executive is chosen to defend the citadel of constitutional government. Instead, he surrenders it. Where shall this stop?"

Serious Blows to Business. "These innovations are serious blows to American business. But it is said that the administration has aided business and, strangely enough, it refers to the anti-trust act."

"Yet, the administration complacently speaks of aiding business by defining the evils aimed at by the anti-trust act."

"Not only does the federal trade commission act not define what it means by unfair competition, but it leaves the anti-trust act in full effect as before."

Will Elect Every Man. "The Non-partisan league will elect every man it has endorsed," continued Mr. Wood. "Does that include Casey?" Mr. Wood was asked. "You bet it does," he replied. F. M. Casey of Lisbon, candidate for state treasurer, is the only state candidate on the Democratic ticket backed by the league. Mr. Wood declares he has met at the Twin Cities representatives from every county in the state, and that victory for the Non-partisan league is assured.

Not For Any One Man. "Neither the league nor any of its officers has declared openly or privately for Wilson or for Hughes, for McCumber or for Burke, or for any other candidate than those endorsed on the state and legislative tickets. I know it has been reported that there is a quiet movement under way in behalf of national candidates. It is absolutely untrue so far as the league as an organization is concerned. We have been careful as individual officers to express no preference, for fear it might be misinterpreted. We have friends on both sides, and we are keeping out."

RUBY FOUND NOT GUILTY OF ATTEMPT TO SUICIDE

The Nick Ruby suicide incident was closed in Police Magistrate Dolan's court, when Mr. Ruby was acquitted of a charge of attempted self-murder. Mr. Ruby, who was recently found sane by an insanity inquest, yesterday accompanied States Attorney Herndt and Judge Dolan to his home and re-enacted "the tragedy," proving that a man may hang about the house without suicidal intent. Ruby showed the officers of the law how he affixed the noose in such a manner that it could not do much damage, deposited a butcher knife within convenient reach of prospective rescuers and, with the stage all set, dispatched a neighbor to invite his wife to the hanging.

RETURNS FROM EAST. William Langley of Sterling stopped off here enroute from Bingham Lake, Minn., where he attended the funeral of his mother. L. H. Langley of Co. A, who was granted a leave of absence, has returned to his company in Texas.

ITALIANS MAKE TELLING DRIVE TOWARD TRIEST

Additional Points of Vantage Taken and 1,771 Made Prisoners

RUSSIANS FALL BACK BEFORE TEUTON ATTACK

British Troops Threaten Town of Seres in Greek Macedonia

London, Oct. 12.—Another step forward in their quest of Trieste has been made by the Italians in the region south of Gorizia, additional points of vantage having been captured and 1,771 men made prisoners. In this region, which is about 10 miles northwest of Trieste, in the Julian Alps to the east, the Italians from August 6 to the present, report that they have captured 30,881 Austrians.

Russians Still in Retreat. Along the entire eastern Transylvanian front the Russians are still in retreat, and also in the north are beginning to fall back before the troops of the Teutonic Allies, according to Berlin.

Town of Seres Threatened. The British troops have reached the outskirts of the important town of Seres, in Greek Macedonia, north of Lake Thymos, having driven in their opponents from the outlying districts. London reports that the town is strongly held by the Teutons. Westward the village of Brod, which lies in Serbia, southeast of Monastir, has been captured by the Serbians.

That the British have gained some additional ground north of Thiepval, south of the Ancre river in France, and on the Sars-Guenedecourt line, is indicated in the Berlin official communication, which says British attacks here failed "for the most part," before the German curtain of fire. West of Sully-Sailles, the French have made a further advance.

League Keeps Hands Off in National Row

"The Non-partisan league absolutely has no favorites in the national and county races," declared F. B. Wood of Fargo, manager of the Equity Live-stock exchange in the Twin Cities, and one of the "Big Five" in Non-partisan circles.

Mr. Wood gladly consented to be interviewed upon the subject. He denied positively that the league is taking any part in the presidential, senatorial or county fights. He was as certain that the league is not mixing in county scraps.

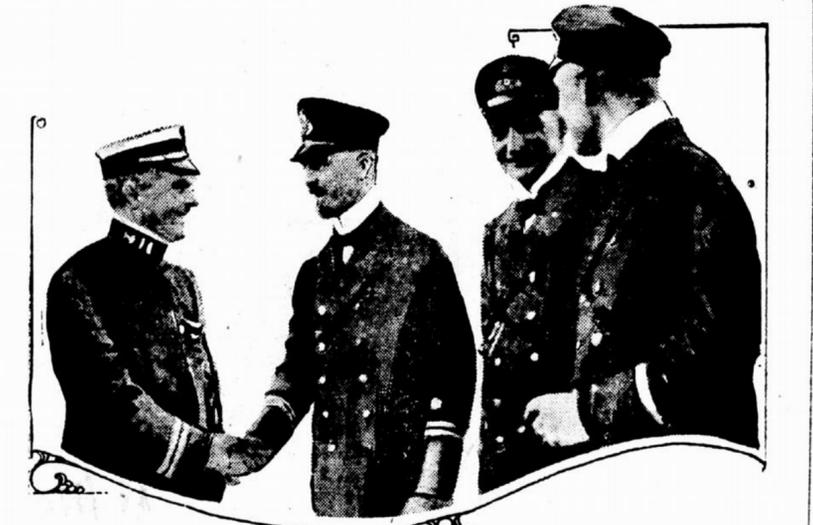

Not For Any One Man. "Neither the league nor any of its officers has declared openly or privately for Wilson or for Hughes, for McCumber or for Burke, or for any other candidate than those endorsed on the state and legislative tickets. I know it has been reported that there is a quiet movement under way in behalf of national candidates. It is absolutely untrue so far as the league as an organization is concerned. White Star Liner Running with All Lights Extinguished

New York, Oct. 12.—With all lights extinguished, the steamship Adriatic of the White Star line, carrying 353 passengers, six of whom are American citizens, and 1,800 tons of war munitions, was believed to be speeding south from this port. Her destination was said to be Liverpool.

THE MEN WHO BROUGHT U-BOAT WAR TO OUR COAST

When the German U-53 bobbed up at Newport, R. I., Admiral Knight of the United States navy, sent a representative with greetings to Capt. Rose of the undersize fighter. Left to right in the picture are Admiral Knight's representative, Capt. Rose, Lieut. S. Stein and Lieut. Moller, the men who brought the boat and the war to our sea coast.
