Capital City Artists To Appear in Concert

The one big musical attraction this week in the Capital City is the popular concert which will be given Thursday evening in the Auditorium by local artists. It promises to be one of the most interesting musical events ever given by musicians of the city and a program of concert numbers will be presented. Herr Lentz, violinist, is the only outside artist to appear on the program and will be one of the great drawing cards.

Farland and Mrs. M. J. Martin. They will sing Evening Song (Prayer) from Freischutz and "The Sun is Bright." Mr. Miller and George Humphreys will also sing a duet. The pianists include the very best talent in the city. They are Mrs. J. A. Haney, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. W. M. Roan and Miss Helen Fisk. Mrs. Rose and Mrs. Haney will entertain Passacaglia, by Hugo Kaufmann and Rapp's Gondolier, using two pianos. Mrs. Roan will play Strauss' famous "On the Beautiful Blue Danube." Miss Fisk and Mrs. Rose, at two pianos, will interpret Wagner's Die Walkyries. Miss Flora Harmon, Mrs. Rose and Ben B. Lenthart will be the accompanists. A chorus of twenty voices will give the closing number. A rehearsal of the chorus will be held this evening in the parlors of the Grand Pacific.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS NOT HER GOOD POINTS ANYWAY

OBESITY! WHY FAT MAKES ONE MORE LIKELY TO GET DISEASE

Obesity is an abnormal increase in the body weight, due to deposits of fat in the tissues. It lowers the resistance of the body to disease. Fat tends to accumulate around the heart and weakens that organ, causing palpitation and shortness of breath after exercise as well as interference with the functions of the body generally. There are two types of obesity, the fat, full-blooded type and the pasty anemic type. The anemic becomes fat because of the deficient oxidation or burning up process going on in their tissues. This anemic calls for treatment by a physician. The second type becomes obese through hereditary tendency, over-indulgence in food and drink, insufficient exercise and a care-free, easy life when the period of youth has been passed. Diminishing the amount of fluid taken into the system will tend to reduce fat. The weight should be reduced gradually. Anti-fat remedies which destroy the appetite by impairing digestion should be avoided. The quantity of food taken daily should be restricted and there should be absolutely no eating between meals. The carbohydrates or starches and sugars must be used sparingly, as well as butter cream, oil and other fats. Malt liquors and alcohol in any form are best avoided, and very small quantity of fluids should be taken with meals. Exercise which promotes oxidation or using up of the materials already formed in the body is necessary. Gymnastic work is good, also walking, riding, rowing, swimming and hill climbing. Massage helps. HEALTH QUESTIONS ANSWERED. Mrs. E. R. W.: "What are the symptoms of rickets in a baby?" Failure of opening of front of skull to close, enlargements of joints, bending of spine or curving of legs and arms, profuse sweating. Mrs. W. H. Weber of Eldridge, N. D., says she was cured of appendicitis and catarrhal trouble of the nose by Dr. Mellenthin's treatment, which she took last May. Dr. Mellenthin will be at Bismarck, McKenzie Hotel, Wednesday, Nov. 22. Hours, 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

OPERA STAR WHO WILL SING HERE

Mary Kaestner

Mary Kaestner, dramatic soprano with the San Carlos Grand Opera company, which will open a two day engagement in the Capital City Friday and Saturday, December 15 and 16, at the Auditorium, is one of the greatest principals of the company. She will sing the titular role of Verdi's famous opera, Aida, which will be the closing attraction. She has won a high place in the grand opera world by her splendid interpretation of this part and wherever she has appeared, has measured up to the exacting requirements of this brilliant role. She will have splendid support with Maddalena Carreno, Confratto, who sings the opposing feminine role that of the loving and jealous daughter of the Pharaohs. She is conceded as one of the best who has ever attempted this part. She possesses a contralto voice of wide range and timbre. The other operas include Lucia Di Lammermoor as the opening number, and for the matinee the double bill of Cavalleria Rusticana and Pagliacci.
