WRONGS RIGHTED

In this country, about all you need when anything is wrong is to tell folks about it, and pretty soon they come out with their hammers and make it right.

We used to have, for instance, some of the worst municipal governments you could find anywhere on this earth.

When newspapers and magazines ripped the cover off it and showed up the filthy mess a certain element in every community laughed and said: "Oh, what's the use? It has always been like this and always will be. Why bother?"

These were foolish persons. To put good city government in the place of bad city government when the bad was apparently anchored, rock-cemented and steel-riveted, was some job, but we're doing it!

The other day there was a national convention of American city managers, and it appeared from their proceedings that we are steadily building up some of the best city government there is going.

Beyond any kind of doubt the improvement has been enormous. There is hardly a city in America that isn't better governed now than it was ten years ago.

The season has come for giving thanks. Then give thank heartily, O American, that it is your lot to live in a country where, when all is said and done, the thing that counts and controls is always a moral faith and a moral purpose!

Underneath all the hurry of business and all the distractions, there is always the solid understanding at the bottom that right is right and the steady determination to have it.

It is so, as sure as you live, and every man of us knows in his heart that it is so. In this country, a wrong made known is a wrong made right.

It is a bigger thing to have that than to win all the battles in all the wars. Don't forget it when on November 30 you give thought to your blessings.

The Lady Next Door wants to know why they don't vote over again in California and have it settled.

THE OTHER SIDE. Jacob Schiff, the famous New York banker, having declared that the worst temptation that besets young men is young women, cynics, jesters and others are having no end of first-class fun about that doctrine.

Wil is wit, and we're for it. But when you come down to the brass tacks stage on this remark, is it really funny? And is there any basis for it, funny or otherwise?

An admired old German philosopher and poet, for instance, used to say exactly the other thing. His idea was that, instead of being a temptation to man, woman inspired about all there is good or decent or tolerable in him: This old boy, by the way, knew a lot more about life as it really is than Jacob Schiff, and had a better sense of humor than most of the jokesmiths. But he never sneered at women nor made jokes about their influence in the world.

If you want something to think about, take for a moment a practical American view about this. Start with seven in ten of all the young men that practice thrift, deny themselves, try to save money and stick like wax to their work. Well, you don't have to be told that they do all this chiefly for the wife—the wife that is or the wife to be. And that's enough. Temptation, is it? For every case where infatuation for a bad woman wrecks or injures a young man there are easily a hundred cases where wholesome love for a good woman steadies a young man, keeps him straight and starts him off right.

The sober inside of Jacob Schiff's cynical remark is that as a comment on life it is both bunk and punk. Because, after all, brethren, our mothers were once young. The world hasn't changed much since that time!

Has Mr. Hanly congratulated Mr. Wilson? We haven't noticed. CHANGES NAME. It is the Minot Daily News now.

With its Sunday issue the Optic-Reporter dropped the hyphen, adopted a new title line and started out with plenty of punch and vigor.

The old title was cumbersome in these days of newspaper condensation. Its contemporaries wish it success and increased prestige under the new name.

A touch of ice on the sidewalk makes the whole world tumble. A POOR PLAN. Again attention is called to the fact that it is a repudiated House which meets next month to serve the country.

What would be thought of any employer who fired an employe for bad work and still let him hang onto the job for months? Why, that employe would be classed as a fool. Yet, this is exactly what the nation does in respect to its workmen at Washington.

The House which convenes in December will consist largely of defeated members. They wouldn't be human beings if they were not reckless and indifferent about their work. It will be little short of miraculous if a lot of damage is not perpetrated in that House before March 4.

A bird on the table is worth two in the farmer's barnyard. READERS' COLUMN. ENJOYED CONCERT. Editor Bismarck Tribune.

The concert at the Auditorium last Thursday night was a source of such genuine pleasure to me that I feel that a word of appreciation would not be amiss. The concert perhaps attained a standard of excellence not heretofore reached in the Capital City.

Unstinted praise should be given Mrs. Cushing, Mr. Lentz, and all those to whose untiring efforts such splendid success is due. The exquisite playing of Mr. Lentz proved a delight to the large audience which listened in rapt attention to his beautiful playing and finished technique.

Mr. Lentz is so thoroughly a master of his craft and his instrument that further praise would be superfluous. To those who so ably assisted him the utmost credit is due and it must be extended en masse rather than to any individual, so high was the general level of their performance.

I can hardly forbear, however, to pay special tribute to the simple, heart-reaching appeal of Mr. Miller's well-selected songs, the finished beauty of Miss Bayliss' beautiful lyric voice, which was so effective, despite the evident handicap of a cold, and last, but not least, to the naive grace and charm of little Henlee Steele's dancing.

It seems to me that this entertainment was a thing of which Bismarck citizens may well be proud. We hope it will blaze the way to more of its kind and we trust that its repetition in Mandan, if this could be brought about, would be welcomed by a host of Mandan people, who never lack appreciation for the best in music.

WHEAT TAKES VIOLENT DROP

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Wheat violently dropped at the close today, December was down 6 1/2%; May showed a 10 1/2% range during the day and closed at $1.75; December closed at $1.67 1/2 and July at $1.44.

Renewed submarine activities were responsible for a wild change in the market. Shortly after noon a break came in, with sellers wildly offering their holdings. December shot down $1.60 in a few minutes, a loss of 14%, Recovery of six cents followed in less than two minutes. May and July wheat also went through violent fluctuation, additional victims of German U-boats.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Wheat had a slight downward tendency today. Offerings were weak at the opening and were increased by holders desiring to take their profits. December was up 1/4@17 1/2; May down 1/4@180%; July down 1 1/2@158%. Corn opened easier on selling by pit; good buying later brought recovery, and December was unchanged at 89 1/2. May down 1/4@93 and July down 1/4@92 1/2. Oats were weak. December was up 1/4@54 1/2; May down 1/4@58%. Provisions were dull and steady.

MARKET DECLINES AS SALES OPEN

New York, Nov. 28.—The stock declined further on opening sales today, increasing 1 to 3 points losses, which followed a strong opening yesterday. Active market leaders were down 1/4 to 1 1/2 on first sales today.

United States Steel opened at 126 1/2, down 1/4. Against the high record of 129 1/2 set yesterday, International Paper and American Writing Paper, preferred, were down 1 1/4 each. Lead-coppers were down 1/2 to 3/4.

Prices moved upward during the first hour, many gains of 1 to 1 1/2 being recorded. The market moved forward and back alternately during the second and third hours. At 1 o'clock steel was back at 126 3/8 and other leaders were down.

CATTLE MARKETS

Chicago, Nov. 28.—The live stock markets here were little affected today by the embargo on Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska shipments, pending an investigation of reported cases of hoof and mouth disease at the Kansas City yards.

Hogs closed today slow, at 15 to 20c lower, with the top at $10.15. The receipts were 60,000 in excess of the estimate for today. Cattle were strong, with the top for heaves at $12.35; calves, $12.75. Receipts fell 1,000 below estimates.

Sheep were strong, with the top at $8.30; lambs, $12.25. Kansas City government inspectors and stock men admitted that it is practically certain the Kansas City stock yards are infected with hoof and mouth disease.

BISMARCK IS DEFENDANT IN DAMAGE SUIT

Mrs. Hattie McBride of Halliday, Files Paper To Recover $5,000 Damages. HOLDS CITY NEGLIGENT IN NOT CARING FOR WALKS

Because her heel hooked itself into an elevation on the sidewalk near the McKenzie hotel with the result that she was thrown to the walk and incapacitated, Mrs. Hattie McBride of Halliday has filed suit for $5,000 damages, naming the City of Bismarck as defendant. The action was made public at last night's session of the city commission.

Happened October 23. In the complaint, Mrs. McBride alleges that she was injured on the 23rd day of October, about 9 o'clock, "on the street running east and west on the south side of the McKenzie hotel. She avers that she was "walking along the said sidewalk and there was a rise in the walk which caught her heel, throwing her down and severely injuring her right knee, breaking some veins and cartilages of the knee; also hurting her back and inflicting internal injuries."

Curtis to Represent Plaintiff. The papers were served on City Auditor R. H. Thistlewaite, who presented them to the commissioners, who on motion of President A. W. Lucas of the commission, enacted that they be turned over to the city attorney and the health officer for an investigation and a report to be made at the next session. Attorney L. D. Curtis of Halliday, it was said, will represent the plaintiff.

Little Before the Commission. There was little to come before the commissioners. About a half dozen bills were allowed. H. G. Grove appeared before the commission with a complaint to the effect that some scrap iron company has been dumping bones between Eighth and Ninth streets, east of the elevators, which he regarded as a menace to the health of the community. He asserted that conditions were not bad now, but that they would be with the fall of snow. The matter will be turned over to Chief of Police Downing, who will be authorized to have the nuisance removed.

BISMARCK TO AID IN WHITE PLAGUE FIGHT

Saturday's Sale of Red Cross Seals Surpassed Last Year's Figures by $128.88. Bismarck, as is its usual custom when any charitable aid is solicited, contributed liberally to the annual Red Cross seal sale conducted Saturday, swelling the receipts to $355.88, a lead over last year's sales of $138.88. The sale surpassed all expectations of the state secretary, Mrs. Fanny Dunn Quinn, and her assistants, who were in charge of the local sale. Last year Bismarck led the state by $150, and the most vital question in determining those in charge of the movement is will Bismarck get the pennant which the North Dakota Anti-Tuberculosis association is presenting the city or town making the largest sales per capita. There is little doubt but that the Capital City will again rank first, although competition has been very keen throughout the state.

The public in general bought liberally and on all sides the women and girls were received with marked cordiality. Mrs. Jack Oberg of the Grand Pacific hotel and Mrs. J. L. Whitney, who worked the east end district, led in the sales. They sold $107.20 worth of seals, having sold over $75 of this amount by noon. Mrs. Quinn had the assistance of a number of the young maids and matrons and the Camp Fire Girls. Following is the list of seals sold from the various districts:

Table with 2 columns: District Name and Amount Sold. Includes East and West districts, Mrs. Oberg, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Henry West, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. W. P. JUSTICES ELECT WOULD DEPOSE PREDECESSORS

(Continued from Page One) elected for six years and a month; and if I mistake not, the certificates of election given to you and to every other judge, shows an election for a term of six years from the first Monday in December. It would be strange, indeed, if it were competent for the legislature to fix any other date, as of the first Monday of July, August or September.

Doesn't Require Certificate. "It is true, as you say, the state board of canvassers do not meet until Tuesday, the fifth day of December, and until then there can be no certificate of election. But the certificate is merely a prima facie evidence of the election. And when the election is known to everyone and is unquestionable, and when it is shown by the official reports of the county canvassers on file in the office of the secretary of state, the certificate becomes non-essential. The judges are bound to know what is generally known within their jurisdiction. Of course, we all want to be duly courteous, and at the same time, we think it is our duty to take office and to serve for six years, and we do not want to be in the position of contending for a month with our successors in office. We do not think it would be the fair thing to do. Am I right? Very respectfully yours, J. E. ROBINSON.

Birdzell Here. Luther E. Birdzell is the only one of the new judiciary trio who is not convinced that Robinson's contention is entirely just and proper. Birdzell is expected today from Grand Forks for a look-around.

Ordinarily, no public official can take office until his election has been regularly certified. The election of the supreme court justices cannot be certified until next Tuesday, when the state canvassing board meets. Heretofore, the state board has not met until the middle of December, and it is difficult to understand how the constitutional provision enabling justices of the supreme court to take their seats the first Monday in December can have been availed of in the past.

Others Mays Qualified. When Justices Burke and Goss were elected in 1910, they qualified the first Monday in December, in order to be certain of compliance with the statutes. The certificates of election issued by the secretary of state advises of election for a period of six years, dating from the first Monday in December. All certificates issued supreme court justices in the history of the state have been printed in this form.

Kidney Disorder

(By Dr. L. C. Babcock.) Simple methods are usually the most effective ones when treating any disorder of the human system. The mere drinking a cup of hot water each morning, plenty of pure water all day, and a little Anuric before every meal has been found the most effective means of overcoming kidney trouble.

Death would occur if the kidneys did not work day and night in separating poisons and uric acid from the blood. The danger signals are backache, depression, aches, pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness, rheumatic twinges, swollen joints, gout.

It is such a simple matter to step into your favorite drug store and obtain Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, of the Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Every druggist dispenses it.

All people in America and especially those who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit uric acid (dratic salts) in their tissues and joints. They often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. Such people are not always able to exercise sufficiently in the outdoor air in order to sweat freely and excrete impurities thru the skin. Anuric will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant need of getting out of bed at night, by carrying off the uric acid poison.
