"OVERLANDERS" RETURN TO CITY FROM BIG TRIP

Dealers Regaled in New Ideas and Determination to Launch Big Sales Drive

LAHR MOTOR COMPANY
CONTRACTS FOR 1,500

Loud in their praise for the hospitality and the "big time" accorded them, regaled in new ideas and with a determination that the next season's sales drive of Overlands in western North Dakota and eastern Montana will establish a record, 75 Overland dealers out of 200 who left here on the Bismarck special last Saturday night at 8 o'clock, returned from their "joy-ride" to Toledo yesterday morning.

Somewhere between Bismarck and Chicago the rest of the "boys" are taking a vacation, spreading yuletide greetings mixed with Overland raiment to their friends and relatives. On the return trip the special made a stop of 24 hours in Chicago as an accommodation to the dealers. The

Make that Overland a Christmas Present to the Family

Christmas looms large on the horizon. Why not make this year's celebration a sane one--free from "ginger-bread and gim-cracks"?

Why not forestall the frantic gift-buying, the misjudged desires--the invidious comparisons--the aftermath of exchanges? By a master stroke you can convert the futile, feverish holiday frenzy into a glorious triumph--a Yuletide without parallel in the family history.

Give that Overland to the folks for Christmas. Make it a "co-operative" gift, if need be. Who will dissent when you propose "Let's ditch the Christmas cigars--the hand-painted neckties--the purple socks--the violet perfume--and all chip in for an Overland--one present for all of us. All for me."

Why not? What better holiday can you conceive than this--a beautiful, brand-new, roomy Overland? A crisp Christmas morning ride! Lungs atingle with fresh air! A razor-edge on your appetite! You'll return at noon fully equal to that twenty pound turkey.

Best of all, Overland joys do not end with Christmas day. There are four months of good motoring between Christmas and early spring, different from summer riding, perhaps, but delightful. "Waiting until spring" gains you nothing. "Obey that impulse" now and your Overland will be waiting at your door on Christmas morn.

Make this the biggest, merriest Christmas ever. We can make immediate deliveries.

party was gone five days. Special vaudeville attractions, banquets at which John Willys was the principal speaker, were just a few of the attractions for the dealers. One of the features was the "raid" made on the administration building on the afternoon of the day they arrived in Toledo, which was Monday, and made the president of the company dance to the tune of revolver shots.

According to W. E. Lahr, president of the Lahr Motor Sales company of Bismarck, his company contracted for 1,500 cars for the coming season, representing more than one million and a half dollars. After leaving Toledo, 660 cars were re-contricted for by dealers of the Lahr Motor Sales company, representing a million dollars, 187 cars being for immediate delivery.

A new convention sheet was published by the Lahr company and distributed in Toledo among the 1,500 dealers present from Texas, Montana, North Dakota and Louisiana. Its title was "The Bismarck-Miles City Exhaust."

WILDER SUCCEEDS ANDREWS

Secretary of State Hall this morning announced the appointment of Frank Wilder, for the past six years chief clerk, as deputy secretary of state, vice John Andrews, recently resigned to become secretary to Representative P. D. Norton of the Third congressional district. Mr. Wilder came to the capitol in 1910, to become recording clerk under Secretary of State Norton. Prior to that time he had been publisher of the Mandan News, which he established in 1892, and which he disposed of to the present management when he received the appointment under Norton. The new deputy has been a resident of North Dakota 20 years, and of the territory practically all of his life. Before coming to North Dakota he served six years as deputy secretary of state for South Dakota, at Pierre.
