

DRAFTED MEN MAY ENLIST IN GUARD

Capt. A. B. Welch Receiving Enlistments for Co. I—No Orders to Contrary

"Drafted men will continue to be enlisted until we receive orders to the contrary," said Capt. A. B. Welch of Co. I today, in response to a question as to the status of drafted men who may now desire to join the guard. "There is nothing to indicate that the war department is opposed to voluntary enlistment in home organizations on the part of drafted men," said Captain Welch. "I have taken the matter up with Adjutant General Fraser, and he has received no instructions which would prevent our accepting these enlistments. We are receiving many applications, and we will file them subject to approval from the war department."

VOTE IN FIRST WILL BE CANVASSED AUGUST 10 BY STATE BOARD

Secretary of State Hall of Opinion That Usual Provisions Will Apply

August 10, in Secretary of State Hall's opinion, is the date upon which the vote in the recent special congressional election must be canvassed. Mr. Hall believes the regular election laws will apply in this instance. They provide that the returns shall be canvassed by the county auditing boards and reported to the secretary of state not later than 20 days following the election, and that the state canvassing board shall meet and officially certify the results of the election not more than 10 days after the returns reach the capital. The canvassing board will consist of the chairman of the two principal parties—William Lemke of Fargo for the republicans, and W. E. Byerly of Williston for the democrats—N. C. Macdonald, superintendent of public instruction; J. H. Newton, clerk of the supreme court; and the secretary of state. Until the board meets and officially files its certificate with Washington Representative John M. Baer remains, so far as legal prerogatives go, a private citizen.

BARNES CIRCUS HERE TODAY; MATINEE CROWDS PLEASED; IS DIFFERENT FROM OTHERS

Depending entirely on educated animals to give the entertainment, the Al. G. Barnes big 4-ring wild animal circus at Bismarck today stands forth as the animal circus par excellence and distinctly different from all others.

With all the pomp and splendor of the big tops, with its acres of water-proof tents, parade floats, clowns, sawdust rings and general circus festivities, to which is added steel arenas, electric fans, electric lights and a program of the most unusual.

In the center of the show's tents, a steel arena is erected, in which are presented the most amazing, thrilling wild animal acts ever witnessed. Men and women educators vie with one another for the plaudits of the people as they put the fiercest of jungle beasts through their paces.

Martha Florine offers a group of Persian leopards and jaguars; Mabel Stark presents the only perfectly educated Royal Bengal tigers. Dainty Cleo Webber dances in a den of African lions.

Clarence Crosby, under whose training bears of nearly every specie have been educated to perform in amazing features, is among the male members who draw the glad hand from the patrons. Stephen Eatty has the only group of performing zebras under his supervision. These stubborn animals have been educated to walk on their hind feet, roll barrels, jump through hoops and do a saw-saw.

In the rings on either side of the arena, domestic animals are soon in comedy and unusual acts. Posing elephants, conceded by those who know, to be the best on exhibition. Kangaroos that might have given "Gumbo Smith" a few pointers in boxing. Goats that walk a tight-rope and ride galloping horses, monkeys and dogs are continually busy in the sawdust circles. Five hundred and fifty dancing and posing horses and ponies and mules that just can't be "rid" and besides, many beautiful spectacles, among which is Miss Earle and her musical pigeons.

Martha Florine and Prancer, her tango horse, to be seen in Al. G. Barnes Wild Animal Circus today

There is a big two-mile long parade at 10:30 in the morning, doors opening at 1:00 p. m. and 7:00 p. m. Performances greatest animal pageant ever witnessed—"The Conquest of Nyanza."

WIRELESS MUST COME DOWN AND BE STOWED AWAY, ASSERTS FRASER

Adjutant General Declares Boys Disregarding Instructions May Be Called

"Our orders are that wireless apparatus, no matter whether operated by amateurs or professional radio men, must be dismantled, taken down and put out of commission. Merely disconnecting them is not sufficient," said Adjutant General Fraser, today, referring particularly to an excellent installation visible from the Capitol street railway. "While no serious penalties may be inflicted, boys who insist on keeping their apparatus suspended are letting themselves in for a severe reprimand," said Mr. Fraser. The fact that government regulations require the complete dismantling of wireless equipment is not generally known. Many installations are still up in North Dakota, although presumably not in commission.

PREMIER LVOFF RESIGNS AMID STORMY SCENE

Kerensky, Minister of War, Scores Cabinet Members for Lack of Efficiency

MILITARY GOVERNOR OF PETROGRAD IS CRITICISED

Petrograd, July 21.—The cabinet meeting leading to the announced resignation of Premier Lvoff sat until dawn yesterday and was somewhat stormy. Minister of war Kerensky criticized the minister and military authorities for not rising to recent events, and for not using their powers to suppress mutiny.

M. Kerensky was particularly severe toward M. Polovtzev, governor of Petrograd military district, whom he had proposed to remove from the Petrograd command, but reconsidered his decision after the ministers had assumed the responsibility of changing the original orders of General Polovtzev, which they considered were fraught with danger. It was made clear that General Polovtzev's hands were tied. M. Tereshtenko will remain in office as foreign minister.

LEADER ARRESTED. London, July 21.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Petrograd says it is rumored there that Lenine, leader of the extremists, and seven of his lieutenants have been arrested while trying to escape to Kronstadt.

ARREST THIRTY-SIX. Petrograd, July 21.—A detachment of soldiers and sailors with machine guns have arrested 36 Maximillians (radical socialists) delegates to the Baltic fleet aboard the Russian destroyer Roshel, which was lying at a British quay.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK. Dispatches say that a most intense artillery battle is raging on the Smolgon-Krevo front. Several hundred German heavy guns are said to be engaged. The Germans sought to advance, but were driven back by the Russian fire, a crack Siberian corps bearing the brunt of the fighting. It is said the Russian guns are obtaining the mastery of the situation.

LATE JAMES W. FOLEY VETERAN OF OLD REGIME

Game to Fort Lincoln With U. S. Troops in 1878—Had Been at Medora Since 1885

No notices have been received locally as to the date set for the funeral of the late James W. Foley, whose sudden death at his home in Medora was recorded yesterday. It is presumed, however, that the last rites will be held tomorrow. In the death of Mr. Foley North Dakota loses a typical frontiersman and a gallant soldier of the old regime.

James W. Foley was born in Maryland on June 18, 1845. As a young man he enlisted in the regular army, serving for a number of years at St. Louis, where the older children were born. In 1878 Mr. Foley was transferred from Jefferson barracks to old Fort Lincoln, where he remained until 1885, when he was called to Medora, to take an executive position with the newly organized De Mores Packing company. From that time on he was principal representative in this section of the Marquis de Mores, whose friendship for Mr. Foley endured until the death of the marquis, a number of years ago. The de Mores family, whose sons are serving under the flag in the present great war, retained its large landed interests surrounding Medora following the failure of the packing enterprise, and retained Mr. Foley as agent.

Mr. Foley's first wife died 27 years ago, shortly after the family took up its residence in Medora, and three years later he wedded Mrs. Gertrude Wood of Jamestown, who survives, with four sons and two daughters of the deceased, as follows: James W. Foley, former editor of the Bismarck Tribune, secretary of the railway commission and secretary to Governor Hanna during the first part of the latter's term, now making his home in California; R. K. Foley, cashier of the Interstate bank of Sentinel Butte; Edward W. Foley, a rancher at Townsend, Mont.; Mrs. W. T. Dennison of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Mary Todd of Billings, Mont.

CIRCUS DAY BRINGS HUNDREDS TO TOWN

Hundreds of people from all parts of the county and from many of the surrounding towns thronged Bismarck streets today to see the Al. G. Barnes circus, which arrived this morning. The long parade left the circus grounds at 12:30 and covered the main streets of the city. The large number of magnificent wild animals was most noticeable, the Barnes circus being famed for that particular branch of the business. The first show started at 2:30 this afternoon and the big tent was packed, in spite of the fact that it is the hottest day of the summer.

Make Sacrifices and Save Lives

Under that slogan the most loyal of our people have by now pledged $5,250,000 of the ten million dollars which

WE DESPERATELY NEED to save the lives of 3,000,000 Jews in the Eastern war zone. Half our time for raising the total has passed.

In charity extremes meet. Nathan Straus gives up his house and humble men earning $15 a week pledge 1-10 of their earnings to the fund!

Work continues unhampered despite the war, but meanwhile babies of our blood are dying like flies, fathers beg for crusts and mothers go mad. It is to America that they call for aid.

It is not right that the burden should be borne by a conscientious few. Will you not HELP?

Independence Declared by Finnish Diet

Conflict With Russia Is Regarded As Inevitable Because of Action

PETROGRAD TOO BUSY TO REPRESS REVOLT

Helsingfors, July 21.—A conflict with Russia is regarded as inevitable because of the action of the Finnish diet in adopting the bill giving independence to Finland. The socialist members of parliament assert, however, that Petrograd has its hands too full with its own troubles to attend to repression. Announcement of the vote was received by prolonged cheering and cries of "Long Live Finland" and "End Russian Connection." The dietists thereafter rejected, 104 to 87, a proposal by a member of the Young Finnish party, that the law as prescribed by the constitution be submitted for Russia's approval or veto. After the diet dispersed there was a patriotic demonstration in the street. Premier Tokoi expressed his satisfaction at the diet's coup d'etat, saying, "We may be sure of Finland's independence guaranteed for all time."

SUBMARINES GET MILLION TONS IN MONTHLY RAID

Washington, July 21.—Figures in the possession of the government based on the best information within reach of the Allies make it appear that since the beginning of the German ruthless submarine warfare the destruction of merchantmen, hitherto available to the Entente has been at least four times the tonnage built.

The figures show the losses averaging about 1,000,000 tons dead weight monthly, this including the weight of cargo, whereas the weekly statement from London are based on registered tonnage.
