TOM, YOU'RE LUCKY

HEBRON NEWS

The German Congregational church celebrated their annual mission festival last Sunday. Services were held in the morning, afternoon and evening. Rev. F. O. Brose of Blue Grass delivered the main addresses. Large crowds were present at all of the services.

Louis Kohne left recently for Illinois and Wisconsin where he will spend several weeks visiting friends and relatives in South Dakota.

A committee of the Commercial club has been pushing the establishment of an evening school in Hebron. A meeting was held at the school Monday evening but not all who were interested found it possible to be present. Another meeting will be held Thursday evening at which time it is expected that the school will be definitely started. About forty have signified their desire to attend.

Charles Gregory, now of Hazelton, is in Hebron packing his household goods to move them to that place.

The Commercial club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the hall. A good number of the members were present and a number of important committee reports were heard.

The school board has employed two additional teachers to have charge of the seventh grade, and a section of the first grade, respectively. Both will arrive in Hebron during the week and will begin work immediately. The seventh grade will be moved to the Congregational church which has been secured for this purpose temporarily.

J. H. Watts, W. H. Irich, and C. L. Robertson have been appointed a committee to secure contributions for the army Y. M. C. A. during the present week.

Rev. N. Hass, Miriam Hass, Mrs. A. G. Urban, and Mrs. C. L. Robertson autted to Bismarck Thursday to visit Mrs. Hass, who is in the Bismarck hospital.

Davidson, were called to her bedside and arrived Sunday via Steele.

Mrs. Sealy, who returned recently from a several weeks' visit in the east, is again under a doctor's care.

Prof. Koenig gave an interesting lecture in the church Saturday.

The Ole Sunde family left Monday for southern Minnesota, where they have rented a farm.

The Ole Tin family left by auto Wednesday for South Dakota and Minnesota, where they will spend the winter.

Frank Barta runs a roller rink in his building—open Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

H. C. Gander made a business trip to Napoleon last Saturday.

PATRIOTIC OCCASION

Interesting Addresses on Naturalization Day in Ramsey

Devils Lake, N. D., Nov. 16.—Naturalization day in the Ramsey county district court was made an unusual patriotic event, with excellent addresses from Edward F. Flynn, president of the city commission; Frederick T. Cuthbert and Rev. Charles Chester of Edmore. The program was arranged by Judge Buttz, who invited the public to attend, hear the addresses and witness the administration of the oath of allegiance.

THROWN UNDER MOWER AND DRAGGED TO DEATH

Bucyrus, N. D., Nov. 16.—Henry Spencer was thrown under a mower and dragged to death at his home near here. Death is thought to have been due to strangulation, as when the team was stopped it was found that his neck had been caught under the pitman of the mower. A widow and two children survive.
