He does it in the physical world, but in the spiritual world—where a man's need is greatest—there is no limit to His favor. His pardon is abundant. "He will have mercy—and He will abundantly pardon," Isaiah tells us. The pardon is complete. He cleanses us "from all unrighteousness." Sometimes men say they'll forgive us, but they

SECOND MUSIC PUPILS RECITAL PROVED DELIGHTFUL EVENT The second of a series of Mrs. E. G. Wheeler's music pupils was given on Saturday evening at the Bismarck high school. The affair was given in honor of the Armenian children, and in two recitals about $125 was cleared. The program was well attended and the program arranged was a most delightful one. Every number was particularly well rendered and the entire program was presented with a skill that showed remarkable talent, far above the usual standard for children, those taking part being between the ages of 5 to 10 years. The memory work and absolute confidence and style in rendition showed excellent results, and the work of the pupils showed a wonderful advance during the past year. The program in three parts was carefully selected and in part three Lucile Oelien played two original compositions which displayed what it provides the absolutely reliable way to be rid of any itching or eruptions trouble, that it will serve you well and save you harm. Mr. Bartleson is 22 to 23 years of age. Mr. Munk had driven in from Winona to bring Mrs. Munk to a local hospital for treatment and he was much upset by the accident, which is the first in which he has ever figured.
