SPEAKER TRIBE CONFIDENT ON WINNING GAMES

Manager Has Respect for Brooklyn But Says He'll Pull Out Ahead

YESTERDAY'S VICTORY

Ebbetts Field, Brooklyn, Oct. 6.—The Cleveland Indians with one Brooklyn scalp dangling from their belt, went on the warpath again today to tomahawk the National leaguers in the second encounter of the world series warfare.

"A wind-blown fly was the cause of our downfall yesterday," said Manager Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers today. "With an even break on luck my club will show the way to victory. Speaker ruined our ball game with his catches in center field. I think I'll tell our fellows to hit the ball over the fence, then let Speaker do his worst."

Tris Speaker believes that the edge now lies with his American league pennant winners in the series. "We have looked the Brooklyn over and my men feel they can take the majority of the games," said Speaker today.

"Brooklyn has a fine ball club, make no mistake, and I have my troubles to find pitchers to beat them in a long series."

The Cleveland team, in the opinion of many experts, is the better team. The team worked nicely yesterday, taking quick advantage of breaks.

Both team and individual play of the winners was superior to that of Brooklyn. Coveleskie pitched a masterly game and held the opposing batters in check throughout the contest. He was backed by perfect fielding of both infield and outfield. Sewell played a remarkable game at short, showing no signs of nervousness such as might have been expected of a youngster thrown into a world's series under the conditions which marked his debut. Manager Speaker in center field proved a barrier beyond which it was almost impossible to drive the ball and made sensational catches far to the right and left of his normal position with abandon which brought cheers even from the most rabid of the home team followers. Catcher O'Neill, with his two timely run-scoring doubles, was the star batsman for the victors.

For Brooklyn the feature individual play of the game was Griffith's catch of Speaker's drive to right field in the fifth inning. The ball shot off the bat of the Cleveland manager with a report like the crack of a whip and sailed to the extreme limits of right field. It appeared to be a certain extra base hit, but Griffith started back with the crash of the bat and ball, and when he reached the retaining wall, sprang high up against the concrete and caught the ball in one hand, fully 10 feet above the ground.

Find Marquard Easy
Cleveland batters found Marquard easier to hit than either Mammaux or Cadore. The Indians failed to get a runner on first after the close of the fourth inning, going into the order for the remainder of the game.

Manager Robinson of Brooklyn tried every artifice of baseball to turn the defeat into victory in the closing innings, sending two pinch-hitters into the game without effect, which explains in part the appearance of three pitchers in the Brooklyn box score. Coveleskie, however, held his own at all times against the three twirlers used by Brooklyn.

A comparison of pitchers in the first game of the world's series shows that Coveleskie of Cleveland threw the ball up to the batter only 85 times in nine innings, while the total of his three Brooklyn oppo-

COVELESKIE COMES THROUGH

Manager Tris Speaker put Stanley Coveleskie, his big right-hand spitball artist, in the box against the Dodgers in the first game of the world series, and Stanley came through. The big boy allowed by five hits.

ents was 112. Marquard threw 80 times in six innings, Mammaux 26 in two, and Cadore 6 in one.

Coveleskie, although yielding the same number of hits as the rival Brooklyn pitchers was much steeper than Marquard or Mammaux. Coveleskie threw 24 balls, Marquard 31, Mammaux 9 and Cadore 2, while their respective totals for missed strikes were 22, 21, 10 and 1. The Brooklyn batters fouled off nine pitches for strikes and the Cleveland men 14. Only one foul occurred after two strikes were on the batter, and that was made by J. Johnston of Brooklyn in the first inning.

Three Strikeouts in Seventh

Only six Cleveland men went out on flies, while 11 Brooklyn batters went out by the air route. Each side had 13 men grounding out. Marquard never pitched less than 10 balls an inning and doubled that number in the second, when he became unsteady after Konetchy's error. Total score, Coveleskie's total in the seventh and eighth innings was 13 each. Marquard had four strikeouts, Coveleskie three, and Mammaux three, all of which came in the seventh when he relieved Marquard.

Division of the receipts for the game follows:

Ten per cent of gross to national commission, $7,904.90, leaving a balance of $71,144.10. Sixty per cent of this balance for players' fund, is $42,886.46, 40 per cent, to club owners, $28,457.94.

The players' fund is divided, 75 per cent to the members of the two teams participating in the world's series and 25 per cent to go into a pool to be divided among the players of the teams which finished second and third in the National and American leagues.

The Cleveland players have voted a full share of their portion of the receipts to the widow of Ray Chapman, the shortstop who was killed by a pitched ball in a game between Cleveland and New York in this city.

LITTLE SERIES GAME TAKEN BY EASTERN STARS

Baltimore Trims St. Paul in First Contest for Minor League Title

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 6.—Jack Bentley, star pitcher and first baseman of the Baltimore International league champions, sent St. Paul, winners of the American Association championship down to defeat yesterday in the first game of their post season series by a count of 5 to 2. While his two base run drives were responsible for four of the five runs chalked up to his team's credit.

The veteran Charley Hall opposed Baltimore and he pitched a good article of ball throughout. Save Bentley, the remainder of the local squad could do little or nothing with his curves in the pinches. He kept the hit column lower than Bentley did, but the Baltimore twirler showed his best in tight places.

About 7,000 fans witnessed the contest. Score:

GOPHERS BEGIN WORK TO MEET NORTHWESTERN

First Conference Game of "Doc" Williams Team is on Saturday

Minneapolis, Oct. 6.—The Gophers, none the worse for their hard grind with North Dakota last Saturday have plunged into the real serious business of football.

Minor bruises and bumps were the extent of the injuries to the Minnesota men last Saturday, and unless disaster falls during practice this week, they will face Northwestern next Saturday at Evanston in good shape. Ed Rubin, fullback, is recovering rapidly from the injury to his shoulder, received ten days ago, but probably will not get into the Purple game unless he is badly needed.

The brush with the Flickertails showed Dr. Williams wherein his team is weak, and gave him a fine chance to test out the caliber of his athletes. The Gophers are no longer an unknown quantity. All who saw them in action had no doubts that Minnesota has the stuff out of which great teams are made. They have speed, merchants, weight, kickers, and passers, and are only lacking conspicuously in experience and training.

Most of the crudeness displayed Saturday was clearly caused by unfamiliarity with Dr. Williams' complicated system. This fault they should overcome in a week or two.

CLEVELAND SETS FIRST PENNANT

Cleveland, Oct. 4.—Cleveland has been in big league baseball for 42 years and this year is the first time a pennant has been brought home. Consequently the fans are "wild" and Tris Speaker is the hero of the town. In 1908 the team lost the American league pennant by half a game. For 20 years the city has been represented in the American league.

BROTHERS PLAY IN WORLD SERIES

New York, Oct. 6.—Two brothers are on opposing teams in a world's series for the first time. Jimmie Johnston, Brooklyn third baseman, and "Doc" Johnston, Cleveland's veteran first sacker, are of the same household, which is already assured the distinction of having in its number a "world champion ball player."

WORLD SERIES UMPIRES

The four umpires chosen to officiate in the World Series are veterans at the game. Every one of them has umpired in a big series before. They are Thomas Connolly and William Dineen, of the American League, and William J. Klen and Henry O'Day of the National League.

BISMARCK MAN GETS BACK $25 HE BET ON 1919 WORLD SERIES

A Bismarck man today knows of a swell sport. This is his story—but he won't let his name be used. Last year he bet $25 with a man that Chicago would win the world series. After the gambler's exposure the man who won the $25, and who now lives out of the city, sent the local man $50.

"I not only don't want the $25 because the series was fixed, but Chicago would have won had it been on the square, so I give you $50," he wrote. The local man sent $25 back to him—and the offer $25 he bet on Brooklyn in the present series.

"MARTYRED MINNIE" IS LESSON OF SIXTH STREET VOTERS SCHOOL

The Nonpartisan league has strengthened the office of state superintendent which Miss Nielson holds, she has also been made a member of the board of administration. NO SINGLE PREROGATIVE EVER BELONGING TO THE OFFICE OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION HAS BEEN REMOVED BY THE PEOPLE OF NORTH DAKOTA.

The little frame building, the erstwhile bakery from now used election will continue to thunder forth "Bill's" election dope. The vicious lies, which stamp the tract circulated from the Sixth street "voters' school," aroused considerable comment among the women voters of Bismarck. The tract labelled "Martyred Minnie," is anonymous in its viciousness and glaring untruths. The same is true of Bulletin No. 9 and Bulletin No. 10. But the friends and associates of league leaders and league officeholders in Bismarck are distributing this kind of vicious propaganda from the Sixth street school. Persons with these lies memorized are giving them currently about the city, probably some of the workers do not know that they are dealing in the most vicious kind of political rot. "Martyred Minnie" will go down into history as one of the most vicious roadblocks ever written and an insult to every woman in the state who knows the kind of persecution Miss Nielson has been put to ever since she took office. The women of Bismarck doubtless will take steps to counteract the teachings of the Sixth street school for Voters presided over by Principal "Bill" Prater and his faculty.

"Here's Real Tobacco" says the Good Judge

That gives a man more genuine chewing satisfaction than he ever got out of the ordinary kind. Smaller chew, lasts longer—so it costs less to keep this class of tobacco.

And the good, rich tobacco taste gives a world of satisfaction. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
