MAY 12 LATEST DATE FOR THE GERMAN ANSWER

Note is Handed to German Representatives in London by Allies

CITE TREATY FAILURE

Say Germans Have Failed in Many Respects to Abide by Treaty of Peace

London, May 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—The allied ultimatum issued to Germany today summons her to reply categorically by May 12 at the latest whether she will perform her unfulfilled obligations under the treaty of Versailles primarily as to the payment of reparations to the Allied powers.

Should Germany fail to comply the allies give notice that they will proceed on May 12 with the occupation of the Ruhr valley and to undertake all other military and naval measures.

The terms for Germany's payment of her debt to the allies are to be given her by the allied reparations commission by tomorrow.

Continue Preparations. Meanwhile the allies, the ultimatum states, are to continue with all necessary preliminaries for the occupation of the Ruhr.

The ultimatum was handed to Dr. Stahmer, the German ambassador in London, this morning. It recites Germany's unfulfilled treaty obligations with regard to disarmament, reparations, the trial of war criminals, and other matters.

Terms of Protocol. The protocol to be handed the German war reparations commission in Paris tonight by the reparations commission says:

"Germany will perform in the manner laid down in this schedule her obligations to pay the total fixed in accordance with Articles 231, 232 and 233 of the Treaty of Versailles; 132 billion gold marks less (a) the amount already paid on account of reparations; (b) sums which may from time to time be credited to Germany in respect of state property in ceded territory, and etc. (c) Any sums received from other enemy or former enemy powers in respect to which the commission may decide credit should be given to Germany plus the amount of the Belgian debt to the allies, the amount of these reductions to be determined later by the commission.

GIVE U. S. INVITATION. Washington, May 5.—Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador, carried to the state department today the formal invitation to the United States from the allied powers to be represented on the supreme council, the reparations commission and the council of ambassadors. The invitation was cabled from London last night.

Comment as to the course the administration would take was withheld pending study of the invitation. There were intimations today in some official quarters, however, that acceptance by the allied governments of the principle regarding mandates recently announced by Secretary Hughes might be made the condition of unreserved participation by the United States in the deliberations abroad which it is asked to join.

COCKROACH HOLDS UP TRAIN

Winnipeg, Man., May 5.—"Hold train for large party" is a common order to railroad passenger train conductors, but the smallest "party" that ever held up departure of a train in this section was a small cockroach. The Canadian National train, with its 460 passengers, was held at Cochrane, Ont., on its way from Winnipeg to Toronto. After the operator had tried to get through a message to release the train without success, he discovered the cockroach was caught between the ground plate and the strip on the telegraph instrument. The train had been held up for 20 minutes.

SECOND LIEUTENANT FINDS ONE PLACE WHERE HE GETS A REALLY BIG SALARY

Coblentz, May 4.—(The Associated Press.)—The pay of a second lieutenant in the American army on the Rhine is equivalent to present rates of exchange to that of Marshal Foch. This may explain in part why the American army of 15,000 men costs Germany more than 80,000 French troops in the Mayence zone. It accounts also for the exaggerated statement from German sources that America's fighting force cost Germany more than all the Allied armies of Occupation. Marshal Foch's salary is 33,000 francs. A second lieutenant in the American forces in Germany receives $2,120 a year which extra allotments bring up to about $2,500. At the rate of exchange of 14 francs and a half to the dollar, the second lieutenant draws about 33,350 francs a year. The buck private receives $36 a month; a corporal $51.80; a sergeant $63; and a technical sergeant $74.20. The French poilu at Mayence has to be content with 75 centimes a day; a corporal received 90 centimes and a sergeant two francs. With the rate of exchange about 60 to 65 marks to the dollar, the American soldier in Germany draws a larger salary than many of the high German city officials.

BAND, PARADE, LYNCHING ALL THIS EVENING

Arch Conspirator of Knockers to be Placed on Big Funeral Pyre

ELKS TO HEAD PARADE

Real Live Knocker is Exhibited in Downtown Window by Town Criers

PROGRAM Arch conspirator of "Knockers' Gang" on exhibition in the Lucas store window this afternoon and evening. 8 p. m.—Elks band, Town Criers, Rotarians and others gather at Fourth and Broadway. 8:05 p. m.—Advertising Elks minstrels. 8:15 p. m.—Knocker taken out of window, placed in steel cage, paraded to lot north of Auditorium. 8:30-9:00 p. m.—Jollification and burning of "Knocker" in big bonfire.

"Well, they did it." The Town Criers captured the real, live arch conspirator of the "Knockers' Gang" which they've been hunting down during "Know Bismarck Week" and they put him on exhibition this afternoon in a store window of A. W. Lucas and company fronting Main street.

The window, transformed into a cell, was decorated with placards telling what the knocker had been doing, which included knocking everything, even the Elks minstrels.

The clever writing on some of the cards indicated to some citizens that the conspirator must have had a witty co-conspirator, and some one thought of Sam Clark, but they dismissed the thought for they knew he wouldn't be writing knocking signs under any circumstances.

The Town Criers captured the conspirator, but the Elks have the honor of disposing of him and venting their feelings, for the reports said he had been knocking even the big minstrel show to be given Friday and Saturday nights.

Have Big Cage The big steel cage in which the knocker will be securely locked when he is paraded around town this evening was on exhibition in front of Web's store and the bars looked formidable.

The Elks and Town Criers will start the demonstration at 8 o'clock, when the knocker is removed from the window and placed in the steel cage. Placed on a truck he will be at the head of the parade through the downtown district while the band plays a funeral dirge.

All Elks, Town Criers, Rotarians and other boosters are urged to fall in line for the parade. A special invitation was extended to the boys of the city to form a big bicycle squadron in the parade.

A big funeral pyre has been placed in the lot north of the Auditorium and the flames which will devour the knocker will reach high in the air.

Those in charge of "Know Bismarck Week" say this is to be the fate of all knockers in the future, but with they hope to be able to say: "Do You Know—That there isn't a single knocker in the city?"

U. S. REGULATION OF PACKERS IS HELD NECESSARY

Secretary of Agriculture Asks it be Placed in His Department

POINTS OUT REASONS

Washington, May 5.—Federal regulations of the meat packing industry is very desirable now, to aid the livestock industry, Secretary Wilson declared today before a house committee holding hearings on proposed regulatory legislation.

The agricultural secretary suggested that his department be charged with administration of the law as it had a large number of men familiar with the industry and also because the farmers felt it was closer to them possibly than any other government agency.

Mr. Wallace told the committee he was unable to understand why the packers should oppose such legislation as reasonable supervision of their industry might have the effect of ending the criticisms to which they have been subjected.

Secretary Wallace asked the committee to give his department power to make studies of the price movements and economic changes in methods in distributing agricultural products.

"It seems to me the government should provide agencies in the department of agriculture which may give continuous study to price movements and the distribution of greater agricultural commodities," the secretary said. "The United States is now undergoing profound economic changes which may change the relationship and the balance for all our people. It is most important that we have the data which will enable us to determine the general trend."

TOWNLEY WILL DEBATE LANGER HE WIRES HERE

Offer Accepted and Two Men Will Meet First on Platform in Salina, Kan.

DEBATES WILL CONTINUE

Townley Objected to Isolated Debates and Wants a Series of Meetings

William Langer, former Attorney-General, and A. C. Townley, head of the National Nonpartisan League, will engage in a series of debates in Kansas and Nebraska. Mr. Langer, who offered Townley $100 to debate him, the offer being made through the Beatrice, Neb., American Legion post, today received a telegram from Townley reading as follows:

Townley's Wire "Your challenge to debate forwarded to me through parties at Beatrice and Salina. I have men in Kansas now arranging a series of meetings. Cannot accept one or two isolated debates but am willing to enter a series of debates covering several states. If you will agree to a series of debates covering wide territory I am willing to turn meetings now being arranged in Kansas into joint debates and suggest that the debates start at Salina, Kansas, the first of next week. Suggest that each appoint a committee of three to fix rules governing debates. Advise at once so I may authorize my representative in Kansas to advertise debate instead of meetings." (Signed) A. C. Townley.

Langer's Reply Mr. Langer replied to the following wire:

"Will debate you any time and night anywhere and everywhere except Russia. Consider yourself engaged at Salina on Tuesday, and from then on as long as the court will let you, except for time out for me to appear as witness in my libel suit against your Courier-News. Will wire you names of my committee today. Will pay you the hundred dollars I offered you on platform at Salina." (Signed) William Langer.

Mr. Langer also immediately wired O. A. Kitterman, president of the American Defense League of Kansas, to represent him in the arrangements for the debates in the different places in Kansas.

"I've been trying to get Mr. Townley to debate since October 24, 1919," said Mr. Langer, expressing satisfaction that Townley had accepted after he asserted, Townley had been bombarded by American Legion posts in Nebraska and Kansas with questions as to why he would not debate.

Take Possession of Large Region on German-Polish Frontier

ANGERED AT COMMISSION

London, May 5.—Polish elements in upper Silesia have forcibly taken possession of a wedge-shaped region the base of which is the former German-Polish frontier and the apex of which has reached Gdovce Strahlitz, it is declared in advices received here. Many large cities are said to be in the hands of the Poles, who have reached the Oder river and are marching toward the northwest in the direction of Oppeln.

Dispatches from Silesia assert the Poles, angered by reports that the inter-allied plebiscite commission had recommended the awarding of only the region of Pless and Rybnik in southeastern Silesia to Poland, have declared their intention to seize the whole region over the possession of which a bitter political struggle has been waged and the future status of which was to have been determined by the plebiscite held recently.

BATTLE SOUTH OF JAMESTOWN AT EARLY HOUR

One Wounded in Battle Dies After Being Brought To Jamestown

TWO OTHERS GET AWAY

Leave Big Car and Escape in Light Car Stolen From Farmer

Jamestown, N. D., May 5.—At daybreak today enforcement officers and Sheriff Wright of Jamestown, and party, intercepted a whiskey runner's car containing three men and 35 cases of whiskey at Beaver Dam bridge on Sunshine trail about 12 miles south of Jamestown. The men were ordered to stop, but speeded up. The officers fired and punctured a tire. When the men stopped later two men got behind a rock pile and held off the officers, while the third repaired the tire.

Leave Wounded Man. One of the whiskey runners was wounded, and the men, after the big car was repaired and they speeded off, left him at a farmhouse. He later was brought to Jamestown, where he died. His name was Matthew Madgen. His home is not known, but it is said that he had mail waiting for him at Minot on May 2.

The whiskey runners abandoned the big Cadillac car in which they were riding at a farmhouse and stole the Ford car of the farmer. They speeded away and early this afternoon had not been captured. The officers party had waited for nine hours for the whiskey runners to appear. Scores of shots were exchanged.

The chase party included Chief Inspector Harry Danbur, of the state license department, and several other officers.

"The booze runners were poor shots," said one account, telephoned here. "They couldn't even hit Seaman Smith."

Seaman Smith is a Bismarck man weighing 250 pounds.

At 2:30 o'clock a report was received that the runners were seen fleeing in a southwesterly direction.

SUPT. DEVINE REMOVED FROM SCHOOL POST

When Resignation Was Not Forthcoming, Board Takes Matter in Own Hands

J. M. Devine, superintendent of the Mandan Training School, was removed today by the board of administration and Ole Lund, employed by the board was placed in temporary charge.

Mr. Devine has drawn the fire of the administration several times and not long ago was formally requested to resign but evidently did not comply. It was stated at the board of administration headquarters today that conditions at the school warranted the removal of Supt. Devine.

Mr. Devine was appointed to head the training school by Gov. L. B. Harwa about six years ago. He came to Mandan from Minot.

Supt. Devine is a former governor of North Dakota and former state superintendent of schools. "There was no ground for my removal," said Mr. Devine today. They have filed charges that I was not conducting the school according to the best interests of the state and not turning out the best kind of citizens. I refused to resign without an opportunity to be heard and answer specific charges. Now that they have seen fit to remove me, I will retire as soon as my successor is installed. I believe my removal is due to the fact that I do not agree politically with the administration."
