FLOWERED COATS OF LEATHER ARE POPULAR

BY MARIAN HALE. New York, Nov. 9.—Leather coats found great favor during the war and the material is greatly used in sports wraps.

Paul Poirot, however, has gone to the very last possible step in the adaptation of leather for coats.

The particular Poirot model is almost futuristic in effect. It is of white leather with huge flower-like designs painted on the white surface in yellow and gray.

Huge cuffs and collars of mink add distinction to this wrap. It also has a deep band of the fur around the bottom.

Hand painted materials have long been vogue, but the combination of leather with fantastic paintings gives full way to a sartorial imagination.

This meeting is the regular Weekly Opera House party.

WOMAN'S DUTY

(By Winona Wilcox) When the young wife surrenders her notion that she is privileged, by the marriage ceremony, to make over her husband into what she thinks he ought to be, she will see to the peace of the world.

"My husband insists that I get his breakfast before 6 a. m.," writes A BRIDE. "I think him unreasonable. We haven't been married nine months and we have lately had our share of trouble over this. His mother always got out of bed early to make his coffee and boil eggs, and so he thinks I must."

Good men are such patient creatures. They marry expecting to enjoy the ministrations of adoring wives as much as they did the care of their loving mothers.

And shortly, some of them find that they have to go on duty as "kitchen police" before 6 a. m. and perhaps after business hours.

Occasionally some husband murmurs as above indicated, and attracts attention to a kind of wifely behavior which is becoming increasingly common.

Unfortunately for the wife who refuses to get breakfast, the patient-seeming husband does not change his opinion about his rights.

He is disappointed in matrimony—and in his wife. No man ever was neglected or imposed upon by a wife without finding it out sooner or later.

Does his good work as he feels wronged. Rightly, they might ask what the wife plan to do with their days, but the nicer they are as men and the better woman cherishing as husbands, the more patiently they endure the break-up of their bachelor dreams.

Put in terms of dollars and cents, some wives can grasp this idea quickly.

Here's another form of the exploitation of the male:

"I've found that a young man loves me. He has a car, and I have no intention of marrying him. How can I make him over into a friend and nothing more?"

By a miracle, and not otherwise, because the more a man is with a girl he loves, the more he loves her. Men are just as sensitive as women.

When a man goes with a girl for months, wins her love, with no intention of marrying her, the world condemns him. Should a woman be spared who does the same thing.

A rather low temperature is required for all egg country.

CHEESE SAUCE. Cheese sauce is a delicious addition to cauliflower.

POTATO WATER. The water in which you boiled the potatoes will clean your flat silver nicely.

QUILT BLOCKS. Use a pasteboard pattern in cutting the quilt blocks. It can be made double and the material put between the pieces, thus there is less chance for irregularity.

LEMON JUICE. Before you squeeze the lemon to get the juice, heat it slightly in the oven. It will produce nearly twice as much juice.

BLACK STAIN SOLVENTS. Salt, lemon juice and sunlight are the best known mediums for removing ink stains from white materials.

MANY WAYS IN WHICH TO USE DRIED BEEF

BY SISTER MARY. Dried beef is a great addition to the emergency shelf. It may be added to scrambled eggs, macaroni or white sauce and a nourishing and attractive dish is the result.

For breakfast or luncheon dried beef is a stand by.

If the meat is too salty let it stand in cold water to cover for half an hour. Drain and dry between towels.

Dried Beef With Scrambled Eggs. One-fourth pound dried beef, 4 eggs, 2 tablespoons butter, 1-2 cup milk, 1-8 teaspoon pepper.

Melt butter in frying pan. Add dried beef pulled into bits, cover and let cook three minutes. Add milk and eggs unbeaten. Lift and stir with a fork while cooking over a slow fire.

The eggs should be rather fluffy and dry when cooked properly and only slow cooking will accomplish it.

Macaroni With Dried Beef. One cup macaroni broken in inch pieces, 1 cup shredded dried beef, 2 cups canned tomatoes, coarse bread crumbs, butter.

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water till tender about twenty minutes. Drain and rinse in cold water.

Put a layer in a buttered baking dish, add dried beef and cover with macaroni. Pour over the tomatoes, cover with bread crumbs, dot with bits of butter and bake in a moderate oven until the crumbs are brown.

Cream Dried Beef. One-fourth pound dried beef, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 2 cups milk.

Melt butter in frying pan and add dried beef pulled in small pieces. Let cook until the edges curl. Sift over flour and stir till well blended.

Add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook five minutes after the milk begins to bubble and serve on toaster with baked potatoes.

One cup of shredded dried beef may be combined with 2 cups of mashed potatoes, an egg added and the whole well beaten. Then turn into a buttered baking dish and bake twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Home cured dried beef is delicious served just as it is. Slice very thin and serve for supper. (Copyright, 1921, N. E. A. Service.)

Equal parts of cream of tartar and alum moistened with water to form a paste is the treatment suggested for colored goods. This does not injure either the color or the fabric.

Turpentine is a solvent for black shoe polish stains.

Either or antline will remove stains made by pitch.

SELFISHNESS BY WINONA WILCOX. Men are supposed to be more selfish than women.

But from letters presenting their angles of triangular love affairs, it appears that as a rule men have a finer sense of justice than women and a broader comprehension of an involved situation.

Contrast these two photographs—one written by a girl, the other by a man:

"Am eighteen and in love with a married man and he with me. He is ten years my senior and the father of two children. He tells me he wishes to divorce his wife, pay her alimony and marry me, but she will not hear it. He says his children keep him away from me."

"My parents are doing all they can to break up this thing, but I doubt if it can be done. Haven't I my right to my lover even if he did marry another before he ever saw me?"

Let us pass over this selfish defiance of the right with the recommendation that the girl commit the seventh commandment to memory and apply it in the larger way; and then let us consider a man's angle of a similar problem:

"I know my duty to my children and to my industrious little wife. I have a stubborn will, nevertheless, and I am afraid that next year's work of the girl I adore may prove too much for my resistance."

"I have a stubborn will, nevertheless, and I am afraid that next year's work of the girl I adore may prove too much for my resistance."
