New Year's Greetings

Accept our appreciation of past patronage and our sincere wishes that the New Year will bring you a full measure of Prosperity and Happiness.

Let us have no place in our midst for the "Pessimist." He is a wrecker—not a builder. Let us rather listen more to the "Optimist," he at least is a distributor of cheer.

But the real leader that we should appoint for 1923, is the "Peptimist." The "Peptimist" is the man who DOES THINGS.

Let us all be pupils of the "Peptimist" and DO THINGS in 1923.

Balance all an' hit 'em heavy
Swing an' throw 'em back in place
All p'm'ade, an' may the devil
Ketch the hindmost in the race.
Gents sashay an' do it lively,
Ladies ditto, foller suit,
Balance opposites an' whir 'em,
Swing 'em twice an' hold 'em to it,
Grand right-left an' keep a goin'
Till you hit yer parás agin.
Swing 'em off their underpinnin'
Till their sassy noggin's spin.
Cinch an' run togate from yer spurs.
Shake the music from yer spurs.
Swing an' hug yer sage-hen plenty,
Slide yer chin 'longside o' hers,
Bunch the heifers in the middle,
Balance all 'an do-se-do.
All run away cinched up together,
Seat you sweets an' let 'em blow.

And thus the merry dance goes on till morning.

We wish you a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

A Farm Inventory

An inventory at the end of the year is as necessary and desirable for the farmer as for the business man.

We advise every farmer to list his stock, equipment and property and to know exactly where he stands before a new year starts. This institution is always ready to cooperate.
