

THE DAILY ARDMOREITE.
 Entered at the postoffice at Ardmore, as second class mail matter, November 27, 1893.
 ARDMORE, I. T., WED., NOV. 29.
 F. E. WILSON, Editor.

TOMORROW is the time to return thanks.
 Give us better sidewalks and some kind of street crossings.

The Perry Democrat is a new and welcome exchange on our desk.

CONGRESS convenes next Monday. Members are now assembling in the national capital.

TODAY is the last full day of grace for the many thousands of turkeys which will tomorrow go toward making the American people feel thankful.

THE way to make a citizen independent is to make him self-reliant. The best way to make him self-reliant is for the government to leave him to rely upon himself as far as possible.

A PREACHER in Perry gives notice of a Thanksgiving dinner for the poor and afflicted, but adds a postscript stating that he will serve his guests in the rear of the English Kitchen. This probably means a hand-out through the back door.

THE question now before the democratic party of this country is whether it will put in a bid for the votes of the safest and most conservative voters, or whether it will bid high for the support of the ravenous communists of the land.

IT SEEMS that the ways and means committee of the lower house of congress has decided on an income tax as one of the methods for raising revenue. The ARDMOREITE is in favor of such a measure and is free to say it is just. The millionaires of the country should be made to contribute liberally to the support of the government under whose benign protection their rights, as American property owners, are so closely guarded. We trust congress will be in the same frame of mind as the ways and means committee, and that a fair reduction of the tariff, together with an equitable income tax, will be among the first of its acts toward redeeming the pledges of the Democratic party to the people.

OFFICER COURTMARTIALED.
 An attempt at courtmartial against Capt. Stiles is being made at Guthrie. The Leader in commenting on the case has this to say:
 The evidence in the Stiles court martial is now all in and those who heard the evidence, declare that no case at all was made against the captain, at least the evidence would not convict in a civil court. The argument will be heard today, and a vote will follow the argument but the result will not be made public until it has first been passed upon by the president.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
 Bids will be received until Saturday Dec. 1st, 1893 at 11.45 a. m. for the wood work on a ware house for J. B. Spragins & Co., according to plans and specifications now on file at the office of the undersigned. The owners reserve the right to reject any and all bids.
