HOLD UP YOUR HANDS

A man living near Lebanon named John Southern was robbed at or near the O. K. wagon yard night before last about 7 o'clock by two unknown men. The amount taken was $27.00, all he had. From Mr. Holland the proprietor of the wagon yard the following are the particulars as far as he knows them. He states that night before last at the above mentioned hour Southern who claims to have been robbed, came running into the yard calling out "robbery give me a gun, etc." He then told Mr. Holland that two men had held him up, took his money and disappeared in the darkness. Mr. Holland could see no one, but he says it was very dark and he was blinded by a lantern which he carried in his hands. Yesterday morning James Calloway a horse trader was arrested charged with being an accessory to the robbery.

An effort was made to gain additional information from Commissioner Gibbons before whom the papers were sworn out, but that judicial dignitary for obvious reasons refused to give out anything. It is learned from a reliable source that the evidence against Calloway is wholly circumstantial. It is to be hoped that if the right man has been caught that he will be properly punished.

Hold ups must stop.
Calloway was held by the commissioner in the sum of $300 which he did not give and was taken to Paris.
