Hon. Sydney Clark was at the Royal last evening. In conversation with the Leader man he stated that a bill admitting Utah, Nevada and New Mexico to statehood would undoubtedly soon pass, and that Oklahoma would be tacked on in some shape before it got through. Then he thought, some provision would be made for a statehood convention about next fall and Oklahoma would not flatterly enter upon her career of statehood until the spring of 1895.—Guthrie Leader.

Sam Greenwood having bought the oyster parlor and short order business of the cream bakery has rearranged things and is prepared to serve first class customers in first class style. Ladies are especially invited and assured of treatment acceptable to the most fastidious. His cuisine department is in the hands of a first class cook and everything served over his tables is of unquestionable quality. 12-5 tf
