The Signal of Liberty.

The universal verdict of every audience that has ever witnessed Mr. Jossey's naval drama "The Signal of Liberty," has been that the full value for the money expended for admission was given.
If you have any doubts upon the subject you should see it. Anyway for the sake of the proud patriotic feeling that it will give you --this great drama will be produced during the engagement of the Jossey Stock company, who will appear at the Kloski opera house, one night only--Wednesday, April 3.

We expect to close out our business in Ardmore in the next few days. Those who are in need of anything in furniture, carpets, stoves or any thing to furnish your house, can save some money.

for rent for cash. Apply Bud Watkins, Ardmore. 22-6t

Public School Exhibit.

There will be an exhibit of written work by the pupils of Ardmore's free schools on Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock in the building on West Main street between Akers & Russell and Saxe & Crawford. The exhibit will be solely written work, showing the ability of the pupils to express themselves on paper. Everybody is invited to visit the rooms on this occasion. It's all free--no charge whatever.

Kindergarten.

Miss Sallie Cleaves of Gaineville is in the city in the interests of Kindergartens and would like to meet mothers of Ardmore on Friday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. T. Y. Morgan.

WANTED--Second hand goods.
W. H. Rogers, next door to J. B.
Mansfield. 4 1m

J. L. Sanders died at Hewitt yesterday of pneumonia. He was 44 years old and was buried today.

"Red Cross Bag Blue makes the clothes whiter than snow. Large package only 5 cents."

Eight spoons of Clark's or Williamson's thread go for 25 cents.
All numbers and plenty of it at Barall's fire sale. 5t

J. T. Coleman has returned from a business trip to his former home, Princeton, Kentucky. He was accompanied by his son Aubrey, who was taken with pneumonia during their absence, but recovered sufficiently to be brought home.

A good chance to get a bargain as we expect to remove to Madill, I.
T. We offer our entire stock of furniture stoves and house furnishing goods, cheap. Fixtures for sale, store house for rent.

Sam Noble Announces.

Mr. Samuel Noble has reluctantly yielded to the earnest solicitation of his friends, and in this evening's ARDMOREITE may be found his announcement as candidate for short term alderman from the First ward. Mr. Noble is one of Ardmore's leading business men. He has represented his ward before in the city council and needs no introduction from us. If elected he will make, as he has heretofore, a good alderman.

Snake Eater had to Quit.

Tuesday when the Allied Shows opened up, Uno, the snake eater, was right in line, and the platform blower lost no opportunity of telling the people, in his stentorian voice, about Uno, the snake eater; that he ate them alive, too.

The people paid their good money to walk up on the platform and gaze down on a man covered with a mask, and by some mechanism, cut the snakes' heads off and seemingly eat it. One gentleman went so far as to tell that the "snakes" he eat were nothing but rubber, and when cut in two a reddish fluid would ooze out, leaving one above to believe that it was a snake, and could see the blood.

At any rate it was revolting, and our good mayor put a quietus on it yesterday afternoon, and Uno has to eat something else as long as he stays in Ardmore.

You know a shoe stock is not hurt by the boxes getting wet, Barall's stock is for sale at damaged prices--at maker's prices-- at your price. No better shoes for men, women and children are sold in any store. 5t

One dozen barred Plymouth Rock hens for sale. A bargain.
26 31 E. B. PUGH.

The many friends of Mrs. N. C.
Wood will be glad to know that she is recovering from a severe case of lagrippe.

We have for rent 30,000 acres of good pasture land.
28dwtf HUDSON & ARNOLD.

Cotton Burned at Marietta.

Sixteen bales of cotton on the depot platform at Marietta burned yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
The cotton belonged to Coopman of Gainesville. A spark from a freight engine is supposed to have started the flames. 24-1m

WARNING TO THE PEOPLE.

Attorney Johnson's Word of Caution Regarding Trapping Quails.

ARDMORE, I. T., March 27, '01.

TO THE COMMISSIONERS:
The department of justice is very anxious that every effort be exercised to suppress the shipping of quail and other game out of the Indian Territory, and your attention is respectfully called to section 2137 Revised Statutes, and also to an Act of Congress approved May 25, 1900, which provides the penalty.

Judge Townsend last week at Parcell, passing upon this question, explicitly held that quail was included in the term game.

The deputy marshals will seize all nets, guns, traps and ammunition and write me a complete description of same, giving the full name of the defendants and their residence, also stating where and to whom the game was consigned.

If the employes of the railroad or express company persist in receiving same for shipment, have them arrested also.

You are at liberty to give this publicity that all people may be duly warned.

WM. B. JOHNSON,
United States Attorney.

When you see the White Elephant name plate on buggies, you will know it stands for full value and a good guarantee as to quality.
Sold only by Bivens & Williams.

Big bargains in a new organ, folding beds, chiffoniers, sideboards, sewing machines, suits, mattings and carpets.

27 31 AKERS & RUSSELL.

The ladies of the Carter avenue church will give an oyster supper for the benefit of the church on Tuesday night, April 2, in the building on west Main street, between Akers & Russell and Saxe & Crawford. There will be oysters for everybody, and all are invited.

Furniture, carpets and matting.
New goods, beautiful designs and prices that meet the closest competition. 24 6t A. C. YOUNG.

The White Elephant buggies are value givers in every material point, wear, comfort, finish and style, and we guarantee them without reserve.

m25tf BIVENS & WILLIAMS.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will give a social at the residence of Mrs. I. R.
Mason on Thursday night. The small admission of 15 cents will be charged.

If you want any corn ground into meal or chops take it to L. B.
Roberson's mill on North Caddo street. Phone 116. 4 1m

Look for the name plate White Elephant. It is placed on the best buggies made. Bivens & Williams sell them. m25tf

Owen Ingram, Wheeler Cantrell, Otha Phelps, J. R. Cook and Jas.
Bond, all of Kentucky, accompanied Mr. J. T. Coleman home on his return trip and are here prospecting. They have come to a good town and we believe they will locate among us.

Play goes who delight in a performance that embodies all the elements that entertain will find just such productions given by the Jossey Stock Company who will open a one night engagement in the "Signal of Liberty," Wednesday, April 3. This play is drawn on new lines and is one that does not wholly depend on scenery and effects to make it popular. There is a carefully drawn plot, and one that holds the audience from rise to fall of the curtain. Vaudeville acts given by recognized artists are a feature with this company, same being introduced between acts, making a continuous performance.

Go to Mrs. Mason, corner Fifth avenue and E street N. E., for instructions and material in embroidered Indian head, sofa pillows, tapestry and hall pictures. A sample of which is on exhibition at R. Lowenstein's millinery establishment. 24-1m
