ODD FELLOWS' PICNICS.

Interesting Times In Territory Towns Among Triple Linked Brethren.

Friday was the 82nd anniversary of the order of Oddfellowship in the United States. All lodges were supposed to have some suitable exercises in commemoration to E. B. Luke went to Gainesville yes- that event, and we are free to say that nearly all of them did.

At the little town of Lebanon some twenty-five miles from here Dr. W. G. Hathaway of Provence the members of the order celebrated the day by giving a general

About 11 o'clock the members Sulphur visiting her children and assembled in the hall where anniversary services were held-

The members then formed in same in yesterday afternoon from procession and headed by the brass band of the place and a big United N. C. Vaughn of Sterrett, who has States flag, the state and stripes, inspired by the strains of "Dixie," marched to the ground, one mile hence. Everything here was "flutter and flurry," but in a short

Dr. W. T. Gardner, who, by the way, is the Grand Master of all Indian Territory Odd Fellows, was asked to fill the vacancy. No one ents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Boyd, left could doubt for a moment but he could fill the bill, and he did in one of the best, neatest and most logical speeches it has been our pleasure to listen to. He captured family of Fount Duston, returned to the ladies from the start, did not ber home in St. Jo, Texas, last even- forget the widows and orphans, ing. Everything to them was viewed in the most matter of fact manner and no questions asked. These were all orphan children, and if an Odd Fellow on the ground had not a loving respect for each and every one of them, he is unworthy of his order today.

Leaving the gay and festive scenes at Lebanon, the little town of Pleasant Mound, a place without a post office or a public well was reached.

Here the Odd Fellows had cut just such capers as they did at Lebanon, and the speakers had treated them with the same respect. The vacancy we learned was filled at this place by Frank Fox, editor
