

Got the Numbers Switched.
It was a long time before the front-man could get attention of the telephone girl, but at last he roused her, and in answer to the question, "What number?" he answered, "Give me 444 Dr. Stewart."

"Hello, doctor. My wife is not feeling at all well tonight. She had a severe pain in the back of her head and neck; a bad taste in her mouth, and a sort of giddiness at the stomach."

"Got a touch of malaria, mixed with colic, I guess," answered the doctor.

"I think so. What shall I do for her?"

Just then the telephone girl switched on the Santa Fe machine shop. The machinist was telling somebody what he supposed was the matter with an engine boiler, and this is what the citizen heard in answer to his anxious inquiry to the physician:

"I think she is covered with scales about an inch thick. Let her cool down during the night and before she gets up in the morning take a hammer and pound her thoroughly all over, and then take a bow and hatchet out the fire plug and wash her out. I wouldn't be surprised if she was full of mud as well as scales. When you go through, fill her up with cold water and build a good fire under her, and if she don't get hot enough to steam in half an hour I'll eat her."

And it was more than two weeks before Dr. Stewart was able to explain to his patient that it was the blamed telephone system and not himself that was to blame.—Mail and Breezes.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Bosch's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but relieves inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Get Green's Prize Almanac, City Drug Store, Ardmore and Madill.

Lured of Chronic Diarrhea After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even trave, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For $1.50 by City Drug Store and F. J. Ramsey.
