The Valentine Market.

The ladies of the First Baptist church are conducting a Valentine market today at S. E. Jenkin's grocery store on West Main street. The weather was unfavorable but the promoters could not have anticipated a more successful market, as everything they have for sale is being purchased.

The art and fancy work department was in charge of Mrs. F. F. Fox and contained many really beautiful pieces of Battenburg and point lace. In addition to these were scores of little fancy articles that are very useful in every home.

Mesdames Kinney and Martin had charge of the lunch and candy department. The menu consisted of everything good to eat and those who took dinner with the ladies were delighted with the service. Lunch will be served this evening.

The ladies mentioned were assisted by Mrs. M. L. Garrett, Mrs. E. C. Heath, Misses Mabel Bivens, Clara Tucker and Daisy Nichols.
