ABE LINCOLN'S MURDER.

Samuel Arnold, Convicted of Crime. Pardoned—Now Dead.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 8.—Samuel Arnold, 72 yeas of age, who was convicted in 1865 for participation in the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, is dead at his home in Masonville. Arnold, with Dr. Mudd, Frank McLaughlin and others, was tried and convicted in Washington during Andrew Jackson's term of office. Arnold and Mudd were sent to the Dry Tortugas for life, but were pardoned by President Johnson after they had been acquitted in the impeachment trial. All efforts to get Arnold's story of the incidents leading up to the tragic death of President Lincoln were futile.

"I prepared a statement which will exonerate me from guilt which will be given to the world after my death," was all he would say concerning the tragedy.

It is not known whether Arnold left his promised statement or not.

OUTLAWS CAPTURED.

Oklahoma Sheriff Makes a Good Haul After a Brief Fight.

A special from Anadarko tells us that Sheriff James Thompson of Caddo county arrived in Anadarko today with a bunch of eight prisoners, alleged to be members of a gang of outlaws who were surrounded and captured after a brief fight in Cedar canyon in Caddo county.

The leader had called a conference of the gang to discuss future action. The officer became aware of the rendezvous and with twenty-one deputies surrounded it. The leader left his horse to be confiscated, crawled on his hands and knees through the underbrush to the top of the canyon and escaped. He is thought to have headed the gang last evening that made an attack on the Rock Island train, near Chickasha, for the purpose of robbery.

Forty Years Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years of torture might well cause the gratitude of any one. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. City Drug Store.

The Extinct Northern "Sea Cow."

In the year 1754 the Bering explorers discovered gigantic species of rytinae, or northern sea cow. These enormous manatees were similar in general habits to those of the South American coast and were from twenty to thirty feet in length and from ten to twenty feet in girth. They were very stupid, harmless beasts and lived by browsing on seaweeds and other marine growths near the land. The sailors were not slow in finding out that a sea cow steak beat seal meat "all hollow." From 1754 until 1768 they were the principal food of the sailors and explorers on our western coast. This being the case, it is not at all surprising that the northern sea cow, never a very numerous species, should become extinct in the short space of fourteen years. The last of the giant manatees was killed in September, 1768, a few months less than fourteen years after the discovery of the first one.

A Wise Answer.

The shah once asked a group of courtiers whom they thought the greater man—himself or his father. At first he could get no reply to so dangerous a question, the answer to which might cost the courtiers their heads. At last a wily old courtier said, "Your father, sire, for, though you are equal to your father in all other respects, in this he is superior to you—that he had a greater son than any you have."

Logic.

"The vessel is on the rocks!" shouted the captain, thrusting his head in the ship's saloon.

"That's good news," remarked the idiotic passenger who was taking his first trip abroad. "So long as we are on the rocks we can't sink."—Ohio State Journal.

It is probably called the "almighty dollar" because it prevents some girls from breaking into the spinster class.

The man who talks most usually says the least and the man who promises the most is apt to fulfill the least.
