

SHOT DOWN BY TILLMAN.

Nephew of Senator Tillman Shoots Editor at Columbia.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 14.—N. G. Gonzales, editor of The State, was shot down on the street here today by Hon. James Tillman, lieutenant-governor of South Carolina. The wound is in the stomach and may be serious.

Gonzales was walking home to lunch when met by Tillman and two state senators. Tillman stepped toward Gonzales and drawing his revolver, placed the weapon close to him and fired.

Gonzales staggered but was caught by the two men. Tillman after shooting walked away wiping his revolver and threw the weapon away. He was arrested. Gonzales was carried to his office and preparation made to take him to the State hospital. The bullet entered Gonzales' right side and went entirely through the body, passing out through the left side. Gonzales says the shooting was entirely without provocation. It is said Tillman and Gonzales have not been on speaking terms since Tillman's campaign for governor, when Gonzales was so bitterly opposed to him. The thousands congregated at the scene of the shooting and at the newspaper office.

Gonzales at this time, 3 p. m., is still conscious. Physicians report that Gonzales' wound may prove fatal.

No Gambling.

The Democrat is in position to announce to Colonel Randlett and the citizens of Anadarko that there will be no gambling with the Indians in the city of Anadarko during the Indian payment. The gentleman who controls the Indian gambling in the city is willing to place $500 to the credit of the city, Colonel Randlett or anyone else guaranteeing that there positively will be no gambling with the Indians of any kind during the payment that takes place here soon. We want to say that none of the saloons on Broadway at any time permit gambling with the Indians at their place of business. Several of the saloons on Main street do not allow Indian gambling. We are of the opinion that with the officers we now have, county and territorial, that the law can and will be enforced.—Anadarko Democrat.

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it for a week and see what it would do for me. As he seemed to have so much faith in it I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats. Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.
