

MILL CREEK.

Special Correspondence.

Mill Creek, I. T., June 1.—John Jones of Ada is visiting in the city today.

Sanctified meeting is still in progress with large crowds in attendance every night.

Everybody on the sick list in this vicinity seems to be on the mend.

It is said that the city council will discuss at their next meeting the advisability of passing an ordinance distinguishing between what is "holier-in" in the spirit and "holier-in" in the letter of the law.

Mill Creek and vicinity has been exceptionally fortunate of late in the matter of bad storms. Almost on every side comes news of disaster from wind, water and hail but as yet we remain undisturbed.

M. L. Moore was in Tishomago a few days last week.

C. O. Cox is here from Texas.

Such unprecedented cool weather was never before experienced in the history of this country at this season of the year.

Henry Oats is in Ardmore attending United States court.

Miss Emeka Dye has been quite ill the past few days, but at present writing is much improved.

Owing to washouts up the road our mail service has been quite irregular of late. Most of the passenger trains go around via Denison over the Katy track.

Mr. Kemp, operator for the Frisco at Ravia, was a pleasant visitor in the burg last Friday.

J. K. Cobb is out in the country buying cattle for the St. Louis market. Mr. Woods, his partner, is here also with the same object in view.
