Merchants' $500 Contest.

Interest is being aroused in this contest to such a degree that before the end of the month a statement has been asked for regarding the votes.

The following gives the vote up to Saturday evening:

Total vote as counted up to Saturday evening Sept. 19th, 1903.
Benevolent	74,287
M. E. Church	50,763
First Baptist Church	21,108
W. O. W.	18,323
Masonic Orphan's Home	12,437
CITY NATIONAL BANK.
A. H. PALMER, Cashier.

Taffeta Silks and Tailored Hats.

A select line of this fine headwear will be on display Friday and Saturday at Miss Baird's. 21-3

At the Jail.

Mose Taylor, colored, was arrested at Hennepin by Deputy House, charged with disturbing religious worship by getting drunk and using loud and boisterous language while services were going on. Such conduct is against the law and dignity of this land, hence Mose's arrest. He was taken before Judge Robnett this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge. The judge assessed a fine of $10 and costs, amounting to $47.35, which will keep Mose in jail for quite a little while unless he takes the pauper's oath at the end of thirty days and thereby secure his release.

William Caffrey, an Irishman 59 years old, was arrested yesterday in Ardmore charged with robbing one Peter Bunk, another Irishman. The defendant's bond was set at $500 and he was committed to jail for want of sureties.

Taffeta Silks and Tailored Hats.

A select line of this fine headwear will be on display Friday and Saturday at Miss Baird's. 21-3

A BETTER MANSE

Will Be Built By The First Presbyterian Church.

The First Presbyterian church have begun a movement toward building a more substantial manse than the one now occupied by their pastor. An informal meeting was held today at the Ardmore National bank and a congregational meeting will be held at the church tonight.

Oh! how beautiful are those fall samples from which to select your fall suit at L. F. Burton's, 113 North Washington street. 20-3

Hamilton's Shoe Store has received a new shipment of the celebrated Queen Quality shoes. 20-2

Judges for Special Election.

Judge Townsend today appointed Lum Johnston, W. T. Simmons and Frank Berryhill as judges and Frank Pettit and Frank Wymore as clerks in the special election to be held in the Fourth ward to elect an alderman to succeed Dr. W. T. Gardner, who resigned and has moved from the city.

Vote for the Benevolent Society for the Merchants' $500 contest. 11-1m

Jack Martin's Appointment.

Saturday night United States Marshal Colbert appointed J. W. Martin as a field deputy to work out of Ardmore, vice B. V. Henson, resigned. Mr. Martin was a deputy under Captain Hammer and made a good and fearless officer.

For a real downright exciting time, there is nothing that beats that of a man trying to ride an animal when the animal is trying to keep the man from riding him. If, then, you would witness such sport don't fail to see Frank Still at the Bailey park Sept. 25. He will ride anything brought before him. Don't forget the date—next Friday, September 25, at 2:30 p. m. at Bailey park.

Six outlawed horses and ten wild horses that have never had a rope on before will be ridden by Frank Still at the ball park Friday afternoon at 2:30. 21-4

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will give an international Tea Tuesday evening, Sept. 22, at the Robison building, on Main street. All are cordially invited to attend. 20-3

Woman's Guild.

There will be a regular meeting of St. Phil's (Episcopal) Guild at the school room Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Every member urged to be present.

MRS. J. N. DODSON, Pres.

MRS. FANNIE WOLVERTON, Sec.

Central Baptist Church.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Baptist church will meet in the church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. MRS. P. B. CONLEE, Secretary.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. D. Cullers is here from Sherman.

Deputy W. H. Norton is in the city from Marietta.

W. P. Blanton is a visitor in the city from Gainesville.

H. G. House and J. C. Smith are here from Marietta.

Albert Rennie came down this morning from Pauls Valley.

J. W. Hocker and J. W. Gillet are in the city from Byars, I. T.

D. A. Richardson is a visitor in the city today from South McAlester.

Wm. F. Warren and Mark R. Ford are in the city today from Berwyn.

J. A. Williamson of Oklahoma City, traveling representative of Park, Davis & Co., is in the city today.

Miss Jilla Blake was called to Birmingham today on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. T. Graham.

Mrs. G. W. Stuart will depart this afternoon for Dragoon, Ariz., where she will visit with her sister. Before her return Mrs. Davis will spend several weeks in California.

Deputy Clerk S. H. Wootton of Pauls Valley arrived in the city today where he found Mrs. Wootton and the boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Doak, Mrs. Wootton's parents.

C. W. Hotchkiss has returned from New York and Chicago, where he laid in a swell stock of jewelry. Mr. Hotchkiss visited his brother at Champagne, Ill., one of the finest farming sections of the North.

Messrs. Johnson and Cobb, who have disposed of their Ardmore marble yard to L. Hanway of Dallas, are making preparations to move from Ardmore. The former will return to Gainesville and Mr. Cobb will probably locate at Pauls Valley.

N. L. Davis, a prominent young lawyer of Waco, Texas, who has been in the city the past two weeks on legal business, left for home today. Mr. Davis is very favorably impressed with the territory and goes from here to Ada, Okmulgee and Muskogee to see that section of the country.

ORDINANCE OF BAPTISM.

Seven People Baptized Yesterday By Three Churches.

The First, Central and South Ardmore Baptist churches attended to the ordinance of baptism yesterday afternoon at the Santa Fe lake. Three members were baptized by the First, one by the Central and three by the South Ardmore church.

Commissioner's Court.

Ollie Harris and Bob Capps, charged with the murder of Frank Cooney, near Burneyville on September 2, were on examining trial before Judge Robnett's court.

Stillwell H. Russell is assisting the district attorney in the prosecution, while Henry M. Furman and J. C. Graham are conducting the defense. Only two witnesses were examined up to noon and it is probable that the examining trial will not end before tomorrow.

Everything good to eat at Felker's 20-3

First Presbyterian Church.

A congregational meeting is called for the First Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock sharp tonight. There is business of importance to be attended to and a full attendance is expected. C. C. WEITH, Pastor.
