Secretary.

Horse Racing Events.
The Walington park Friday afternoon was the scene of some pretty aces. The wind blew hard and the track was heavy. The result was not that could be reached when all conditions are favorable. Horses belonging to Ed Byrd, Frank Pettitt and R.
Hardy were on the tracks. Byrd's iron gray gave unmistakable evidence of a swift trotter. Mr. Hardy's animal is a smooth mover but his training is insufficient. Mr. Pettitt was unfortunate in getting his harness broken which caused the driver, Bob McGee, to quit the tracks.

There will be a mile racing course established in Ardmore within a short time and a deal is now being made to bring some Eastern horses here.

Indians Off to School.

A party of full and mixed blood Mississippi Choctaw Indian children to the number of eighteen left here yesterday to attend the United States Government Indian Industrial School at Chilocco, O. T. J. E. Arnold, who is at the head of the movement states that the Mississippi Choctaw children he brought here from Mississippi never had any school privileges and are therefore backward and timid, but many of them wish to attend school, and Mr. Arnold hopes to finally get them all to acquire an education and make good citizens.

Another list will be made up in a few days and forwarded to the same school.

Who's Money.

United States Commissioner Robnett yesterday had before him William Caffrey, an Irishman, charged with robbing Peter Buck, another Irishman, on the 29th instant in Milburn. The evidence went to show that the defendant took $45 from Buck while Buck was asleep. The defendant's defense was that the money was his; that Buck took it from him and he was only taking that which belonged to him. Judge Robnett held the defendant to await the action of the grand jury at Tishomingo on October 19. Caffrey is still in jail.

brought in Friday morning and placed in jail. Judge Robnett set his trial for October 5.

Card of Thanks.

Through the columns of the "Ard-moreite" we desire to thank our ladies who contributed to our entertainment and especially do we feel grateful to Mr. T. A. Thurmond who so generously donated $5 to the cause. To our pastor's wife we extend heartfelt thanks for the many favors shown us.
Quite a neat sum was realized. Class
