

CENTER.

Special Correspondence.

Center, I. T., May 8.—Mr. Vaughn died here at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. Holloway, last Tuesday of consumption.

Grandma Rhea, aged 72 years, is very low and not expected to live.

J. A. Franklin is on the sick list this week with la grippe.

Andrew McCarty has been sick for the past two weeks.

T. D. Dodgins, formerly of Center but for three years a resident of Ada, has moved to California.

While preparing a yearling this week a son of Alex Lane came near losing one of his eyes.

For Weak, Languid People.

Weak, sickly people often remark, "If I could only get something that would nourish me and give me strength," they do not know why but the food they eat is of no benefit to them, they gain no flesh and feel no stronger. The fact is the stomach is too weak to perform its work, and the little appetite they once had is soon gone. The blood becomes more thin and watery, bringing on faint sick spells with loss of memory and ambition. There is a remedy for all this that acts in the right way. It is called Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic, and is sold by all druggists for the per box, or three boxes for $2. It turns the food you eat into rich, red blood, making flesh and strength, creating an appetite because the system demands sustenance. For sale by W. B. Frame, druggist.

The merchant sells his wares, the doctor and lawyer their time, the druggist his medicines and the newspaper man his space in the paper. No one goes to the merchant and expects him to give him a bolt of cloth or sack of sugar without pay. He does not expect the lawyer to plaid his cause or the doctor to remove his tumor without compensation, but he does expect the newspaper man to give his space for nothing, and becomes greatly offended if the newspaper man gently, kindly protests. The newspaper man is told by these scoundrels that he would have to fill his paper with something. True, but he is trying hard to fill it with something better than free advertising. The paper must be filled, but so also must the merchant's clerks be kept busy, and it is best to see that doctors and lawyers do not have too long time in which to rest.
