

The Worst Disaster

That can befall a man, outside of a death in his family, is the destruction of his home by fire. All the savings of his life time may be consumed within a few brief minutes and the future of himself and family forever blasted. A policy in our companies makes such a disaster

Impossible

For they supply the means of restoring everything that fire may have destroyed.

To Rejected Claimants.

To the Rejected Court and Mississippi Choctaw Claimants:

Those of you who have genuine and good claims and wish to further prosecute your claims, I wish to say that I am associated with the best constitutional and treaty lawyers in Washington city, and we will for an interest in your claims prosecute the same in Washington, D. C. We furnish you a certified copy of the records in your case. No win no pay. Cases threatened with fraud need not see us, we will not take them. We want only genuine court claims and descendants of Mississippi Choctaws whose cases are honest and well proven.

Notice.

To All Whom It May Concern: Notice is hereby given that four years ago, more or less, I executed to Sam H. Butler my conditional note for $200, and the public is warned against purchasing said note because the consideration thereof has wholly failed, the said Butler having failed to perform his part of the contract made upon the date of said note. This October 15, 1904.

J. S. ALVERSON, Woodford I. T.

New Law Firm.

Sam H. Butler and H. W. McGill have formed a partnership to practice law and may be found in their office in the Cruce building.

Mr. Butler has been in Ardmore for nearly five years and has a wide acquaintance and by close application has built up a nice practice for a young man.

Mr. McGill is a graduate from the law department University of Michigan, and comes highly recommended.

It may be unnecessary to state that on circus day there is always danger of getting touched, but it is a fact nevertheless. It will do well to bear this in mind.

Circus day will bring big crowds from Tishomingo, Madill and all points on roads running into this city. It is estimated that the crowd will be a record breaker for this section.

The Elks' lodge has changed its meeting nights to the second and fourth nights of each month. The ladies' nights will be on each Friday evening hereafter.

LYNN, The Shoe Man

Were Quietly Married.

At Walters, Ok., Saturday, Oct. 1, J. S. Downard of Ardmore and Miss Naomi Wilhelm were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wilhelm, formerly of this city.

Miss Naomi needs no introduction to our people. Ardmore was her home for several years where she was a universal society favorite with all. Her captivating manner and many high accomplishments enhanced by her remarkable beauty won for her distinction everywhere and she was a young lady Ardmore was and is today proud of.

The groom, who was fortunate in securing such a prize, is known to every business man in Ardmore as manager of the valuable asphalt mines which adjoin this city. Mr. Downard is an untiring working business man, successful to a remarkable degree as shown by the vast increase of the work at his mines and plant.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Downard visited St. Joseph, St. Louis and other points.

Congratulations of the Ardmoreite are extended to the happy couple in their matrimonial venture.

You are invited to call and inspect the fine line of Marceau diamonds at the postoffice drug store. 16
