BANKRUPTCY NOTICE.

In the United States court for the Southern district of the Indian Territory, at Tishomingo.

In the matter of Boyd-Bivens Furniture company (a partnership).

To the Hon. Hosea Townsend, judge of said court:

S. P. Boyd and W. R. Bivens, partners, under the firm name of Boyd-Bivens Furniture company, respectfully represent to the court that on the 23d day of December, 1902, they were duly adjudged bankrupts under the acts of congress relating to bankruptcy, and that they have each duly surrendered all of their property and rights of property and have fully complied with all of the requirements averted and all of the orders of the court touching on bankruptcy.

Wherefore, they pray that they may by a decree of court have a full discharge from all their debts provable against the estate of said firm under said bankruptcy acts except such debts as are exempted by law from such discharge.

This the 2d day of December, 1904.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve," writes J. L. Tucker of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for piles, cuts and burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invariable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Jaffe of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was recommended to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by all druggists."
